I'd love to express my true feelings about Raymond Mobrez and Illiana Llaneras, but I have a feeling that they are litigious people, so I won't say it here, for fear they'd file a libel lawsuit against me (even though everything I would say would be true).

Suffice it to say, if you are desperate for a job or an internship and are considering working at the Asia Economic Institute, I assure you: scrubbing toilets on your hands and knees at the nastiest fast food joint would leave you with more dignity and self-worth than you would have after working at Asia Economic Institute. Plus, you probably wouldn't have to fight to get your paycheck.

If you feel like you have no choice but to work there, make sure you get everything Raymond Mobrez tells you IN WRITING BEFORE you begin work there. Oral contracts are nearly meaningless.

Charles, I want you to know you're not alone. I agree with you 100% on everything you said about Mobrez and Ilaneras. Also, I found another post on this website from another person just like us. Check it out:

I hope Raymond finally gets a taste of his own medicine through legal justice one day.

The Asia Economic Institute is distressed and profoundly saddened by the false allegations posted on this "RipOff "Internet gossip site. Particularly as they may reflect on the many fine people who have worked with and for us over the years, including the Directors, Raymond Mobrez and Iliana Llaneras and the numerous respected and trusted public servants in the international banking system who count us as friends and associates, and the various Government institutions that rely on our integrity. We know that the truth will come out and are confident that appropriate remedies will be found by our attorneys. If you have been similarly injured by this site, we would like to hear from you.
