Lisa:

I am not sure if you misunderstood the Magistrate, or have chosen to disregard his ruling. Your letter merely lists every question that was not answered. The Magistrate expressed that he had no interest in reviewing a 3-page list of every single question that was not answered. He asked us (both sides) to work together to narrow these issues. Instead, you have just listed everything. How is that helpful?

Can you please send, as instructed by the Magistrate, a list of the items that were not answered, that are relevant to the claims to be tried in August, and that you really believe you need answered for the trial.

Maria,

That is not true. There were other unanswered questions that I omitted as irrelevant. Sorry, I meant to delete the question about the phone vendor.

The rest are, we believe, relevant to trial. Let's call Magistrate Walsh on Monday if you disagree.

Lisa
