27
28

1 such Confidential Discovery Material, provided the parties have disclosed the identity of 2 the expert witness and consultant to the other party and provided the other party an

8 g) any mediator or settlement officer, whom the parties have elected or 9 consented to preside over the case; and/or 10

11 h) as required by law or court order upon notice to the designating
12 party sufficiently in advance of such disclosure to permit it to seek a protective order.

13
14 6. Designation of Confidentiality: With respect to the Confidential
15 portion(s) of any Discovery material other than deposition transcripts and exhibits, the 16 producing person or party or that person's or party's counsel may designate such 17 portion(s) as "Confidential" or "Confidential /Attorneys' Eyes Only" by stamping or 18 otherwise clearly marking as "Confidential" or "Confidential/Attorneys' Eyes Only" the 19 protected portion(s) in a manner that will not interfere with legibility or audibility.

20
21 With respect to deposition transcripts and exhibits, a producing person or party or that 22 person or party's counsel may indicate on the record that a question calls for 23 Confidential Information, in which case the transcript of the designated testimony shall 24 be bound in a separate volume and marked "Confidential Information Governed by 25 Protective Order" by the reporter.
26
27
28

1 7. Documents Under Seal: If Confidential Material, including any portion
2 of a deposition transcript designated as Confidential or Attorney's Eyes Only, is 3 included in any papers to be filed with the Court, such papers shall be accompanied by 4 an application to (a) file the confidential portions thereof under seal (if such portions are 5 segregable), or (b) file the papers in their entirety under seal (if the confidential portions
6 are not segregable). The application shall be directed to the judge or magistrate judge
7 to whom the papers are directed. Pending the ruling on the application, the papers or 8 portions thereof subject to the sealing application shall be lodged under seal. The 9 designation of documents or information as "Confidential" or "Confidential/Attorneys'
10 Eyes Only" creates no entitlement to file such documents or information under seal.
11 Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and reflects the 12 standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file
13 materials under seal.
14

15 8. Separate Non-Disclosure Agreements: Prior to any disclosure of any 16 Confidential Discovery Material to any person referred to in paragraph 3e, 3f, 3g, 5b,
17 5d, and/or 5e above, such person shall be provided by counsel with a copy of this
18 Protective Order and if said person has not already signed this Protective Order, said
19 person shall sign a Non-Disclosure Agreement in the form agreed to by the Parties,
20 stating that that person has read this Order and agrees to be bound by its terms. Said
21 counsel shall retain each signed Non-Disclosure Agreement, hold it in escrow, and upon 22
23
24
25
26
27
28

1 request produce it to opposing counsel either prior to such person being permitted to
2 testify (at deposition or trial) or at the conclusion of the case, whichever comes first.
3

4 9. Failure To Designate: If at any time within 60 days after production, a
5 producing person or party realizes that some portion(s) of Discovery Material that that 6 person or party previously produced without limitation should be designated as 7 “Confidential” and/or “Confidential /Attorneys’ Eyes Only”, they may so designate by 8 so apprising all parties in writing, and providing said parties with appropriately marked
9 copies of said Discovery Material, where possible, and such designated portion(s) of the 10 Discovery Material will thereafter be treated as “Confidential” and/or 11 “Confidential/Attorneys’ Eyes Only” under the terms of this Order. If at any time prior 12 to trial, and after 60 days after production, a producing person or party realizes that 13 some portion(s) of Discovery Material that that person or party previously produced
14 without limitation should be designated as “Confidential” and/or “Confidential 15 /Attorneys’ Eyes Only”, the producing person or party shall apprise all parties in 16 writing of the proposed designation and the parties shall meet and confer regarding the 17 proposed designation. If agreement cannot be reached promptly, counsel for the 18 producing party may seek appropriate relief from the Court in accordance with Local 19 Rule 37 and the party asserting confidentiality shall have the burden of providing same.
20 Should the Court determine a revised designation of confidentiality was not made in
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

1 good faith, the objecting party shall be entitled to recovery of reasonable attorneys fees
2 and costs in connection with the motion regarding the designation of confidentiality.
3

4 10. Designations In Good Faith: “Confidential” and/or 5 “Confidential/Attorneys’ Eyes Only” material shall only include information which the 6 designating party in good faith believes will, if disclosed, have the effect of causing
7 harm to its competitive position. “Confidential” and/or “Confidential/Attorneys’ Eyes
8 Only” material shall not include information that (a) was, is or becomes public
9 knowledge, not in violation of this Protective Order or any other obligation of 10 confidentiality, or (b) was or is acquired from a third party having no direct or indirect
11 obligation of confidentiality to the designating party.
12
13
14

15 11. Objections To Designations: Any party who either objects to any 16 designation of confidentiality, or who, by contrast, requests still further limits on 17 disclosure (such as in camera review in extraordinary circumstances), may at any time
18 prior to the trial of this action serve upon counsel for the designating person or party a 19 written notice stating with particularity the grounds of the objection or request. If 20 agreement cannot be reached promptly, counsel for the objecting party may seek 21 appropriate relief from the Court in accordance with Local Rule 37 and the party
22 asserting confidentiality shall have the burden of providing same. Should the Court
23 determine a designation of confidentiality was not made in good faith, the objecting
24 party shall be entitled to recovery of reasonable attorneys fees and costs in connection
25
26
27
28

1 with bringing the Motion to object to any designation of confidentiality. If a party
2 disagrees with or challenges the grounds or basis for the designation of any document
3 or information as Confidential Material, that party nevertheless shall treat and protect 4 such material as Confidential Material in accordance with this Protective Order unless 5 and until all parties shall have agreed in writing, or an order of the Court shall have 6 been entered, that provides that such challenged Confidential Material may be used or 7 disclosed in a manner different from that specified for Confidential Material in this
8 Protective Order.
9
10
11

12 12. Use At Trial: Documents designated “Confidential” and/or 13 “Confidential/Attorneys’ Eyes Only” may be used by any party without limitation at 14 trial. However, any party who wishes to have such documents treated as “Confidential”
15 and/or “Confidential/Attorneys’ Eyes Only” may renew their request for confidentiality
16 before the trial judge at the status conference and/or through a motion in limine.
17

19 13. Continuing Jurisdiction: This Court shall retain jurisdiction over all
20 persons subject to this Order to the extent necessary to enforce any obligations arising 21 hereunder or to impose sanctions for any contempt thereof.
22

23 14. Obligations Upon Termination Of Litigation: This Protective Order
24 shall survive the termination of the litigation. Within 30 days of the final disposition of 25 this action, including all appeals, the producing party may require that all Discovery
26 Materials designated as “Confidential,” and/or “Confidential/Attorneys’ Eyes Only”
27
28

1 and all copies thereof, that have not been annotated, illuminated or otherwise “marked-
2 up” to be promptly returned to the producing person or party (at the producing person’s
3 expense), or shall be destroyed. All documents marked “Confidential,” and/or 4 “Confidential/Attorneys’ Eyes Only” that have been annotated, illuminated or otherwise
5 “marked-up” shall not be returned, but shall be destroyed. Counsel, however, shall be 6 entitled to maintain an archival copy of all pleadings, discovery and work product in 7 this action.
8
9

10
11 15. Further Modifications: Any party to this action may, at any time, request
12 the modification of this Protective Order, upon a noticed motion, unless emergency
13 relief is appropriate, and upon a showing of good cause.
14

15 16. No waiver: This Order is entered solely for the purpose of facilitating the 16 exchange of documents and information between the parties to this action without 17 involving the Court unnecessarily in the process. Nothing in this Order nor the 18 production of any information or document under the terms of this Order nor any 19 proceedings pursuant to this Order shall be deemed to have the effect of an admission or 20 waiver by either party or of altering the confidentiality or non-confidentiality of any 21 such document or information or altering any existing obligation of any party or the 22 absence thereof
