PROCEEDINGS (In Chambers):

On October 15, 2010, the Court issued its Memorandum and Order, which dismissed the First Amended Complaint with leave to amend ("M&O"). The M&O was served on plaintiff by mail on October 26, 2010; thus, if plaintiff wished to have this action continue, he was required to file his Second Amended Complaint by no later than November 25, 2010. Plaintiff has not filed a Second Amended Complaint.

The Court is now in receipt of plaintiff's "Request for Time Extension" filed on December 3, 2010 ("Request"). Plaintiff complains about a variety of circumstances and asks for an extension of more than six months to file his Second Amended Complaint.

The circumstances set forth by plaintiff, even if adequately-shown, would not justify the exceedingly lengthy extension of time he requests. Accordingly, the Request is GRANTED as follows: plaintiff's time to file his Second Amended Complaint is extended to January 15, 2011. Plaintiff is reminded, and cautioned, that any pleading he files must be complete in itself; piecemeal submissions will be rejected and/or stricken from the record. Plaintiff is further cautioned that, if he has not filed a Second Amended Complaint in compliance with the M&O by that deadline, the Court may recommend the dismissal of this action.

In addition, it has come to the Court's attention that, due to a widespread but randomly occurring error, plaintiff may not have been mailed copies of the following documents: the Court's minute orders of September 10, 2010, and August 25, 2010; the Notice of Document Discrepancies of August 16, 2010; and the District Judge's Order of September 8, 2010. Accordingly, the Clerk is DIRECTED to mail copies of these documents to plaintiff.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
