-SH Givenchy S.A. v. BCBG Max Azria Group, Inc.

Doc. 19

The parties have requested entry of an order under Rule 26 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure ("Federal Rules") to protect confidential information during discovery and trial. The court has determined that it is appropriate to enter such an Order for that purpose. It is therefore ORDERED as follows:

INTRODUCTION

The parties agree that they will discuss at the Meeting of Counsel Before Final Pretrial Conference pursuant to Local Rule 16-2 the issue of the use of documents at trial that have been designated as confidential information pursuant to this Order, and will also address this issue with this Court at the Final Pretrial Conference.

- 1. Applicability. The confidentiality provisions of this Order shall apply to all depositions, deposition transcripts, productions of documents, answers to interrogatories, responses to requests for admissions, and all other discovery taken pursuant to the Federal Rules, as well as testimony adduced at trial, matters in evidence, and any other information that a disclosing party may designate as Confidential Information or Confidential Attorney's Eyes Only in connection with this action.
- 2. Third parties. The terms "disclosing party" and "producing party" encompass not only the parties to this action but third parties who may disclose or produce information, e.g., in response to a subpoena.

DEFINITIONS

- 3. "Confidential Information" and "Confidential Attorney's Eyes Only" (collectively "Covered Information") means information in written, oral, electronic, graphic/pictorial, audiovisual, or other form, whether it be a document, information contained in a document, information revealed during a deposition, information revealed in an interrogatory answer, or otherwise:
 - (a) which is designated as such by the producing party; and

- (b) which constitutes or contains a trade secret or other confidential research, development, business transactions, or commercial information; and
- (c) the disclosure of which information is likely to have the effect of harming the competitive position of the producing party; or the disclosure of which information would violate an obligation of confidentiality to a third person, including a court.
- 4. Examples of Covered Information. In appropriate circumstances, Covered Information might include, by way of example but not of limitation, trade secrets, business plans, operations, research, technical or developmental information, know-how or apparatus, customer lists, contact lists, supplier lists, independent contractor lists, or the production, marketing, sales, shipments, purchases, transfers, identification of customers, inventories, or amount or source of any income, profits, losses, or expenditures of the producing party.
- 5. Exceptions to confidentiality status. Information will not be deemed Covered Information, and the parties shall use reasonable efforts to ensure that information is not designated as such, if the content or substance thereof:
 - (a) is at the time of production or disclosure, or subsequently becomes, through no wrongful act or failure to act on the part of the receiving party, easily available to the public through publication or otherwise; or
 - (b) is already, through no wrongful act or failure to act, in the possession of the receiving party at the time of production.
- 6. "Other law firm attorneys" means attorneys (i.e., members in good standing of the bar of the highest court of any state or of any federal district court) who are members or employees of the law firms of the outside attorneys of record for any party but who are not themselves of record and who have signed a document in substantially the form of Exhibit A attached hereto.

- 7. "Law Firm Personnel" means (i) regular full- or part-time employees of the law firms of the outside attorneys of record for any party; and (ii) non-employee clerical personnel engaged by such law firms on a contract basis (e.g., data clerks) who have signed a document in substantially the form of Exhibit A attached hereto; to whom it is necessary that the confidential information in question be disclosed for purposes of any dispute between parties to this lawsuit.
- 8. "Outside consultants/experts" means persons who are not employed by the receiving party and who are retained by a party or its attorneys of record in this litigation for the purpose of assisting in preparation of this litigation for trial, such as accountants, statisticians, economists, technical consultants or other technical experts, who have signed a document in substantially the form of Exhibit A attached hereto.
 - 9. "Service bureau" means a company that:
 - is independent of the parties, but a company will not be deemed nonindependent solely because it does business, regularly or sporadically, with a party;
 - (b) is engaged by counsel of record to perform clerical-type services in connection with this litigation, e.g., photocopying, imaging, computer data entry, and the like, or jury consultation services; and
 - (c) has executed an undertaking to be bound by the provisions of this Order in substantially the form of Exhibit A attached hereto, including the specific undertaking to have its employees who have access to Covered Information sign a document in substantially the form of Exhibit A attached hereto agreeing not to use or disclose such information.
- 10. "Other qualified person" means any other person (a) who is so designated (i) by order of the court after notice and an opportunity to be heard to all affected parties, or (ii) by agreement of the producing party, and (b) who has signed a document in substantially the form of Exhibit A attached hereto.

- 11. "Qualified persons" as to Confidential Information means persons who have signed a document in substantially the form of Exhibit A attached hereto and includes the following persons identified in this paragraph (except that the Court, Court personnel and counsel of record for any party and their personnel shall not be required to sign such document):
 - (a) the Court and its officers, reporters and personnel;
 - (b) counsel of record for any party and their personnel;
 - (c) other law firm attorneys and their personnel;
 - (d) in-house counsel and their staff and paralegals;
 - (e) service bureaus, subject to the provisions of paragraph 9;
 - (f) outside consultants/experts for plaintiff and outside consultants/experts for each defendant, with prior notice to each producing party as detailed in paragraph 20; and
 - (g) other qualified persons, as to the information they are so designated qualified, pursuant to paragraph 10.
- 12. "Qualified persons" as to Confidential Attorney's Eyes Only means persons who have signed a document in substantially the form of Exhibit A attached hereto and includes the following persons identified in this paragraph (except that the court, court personnel and counsel of record shall not be required to sign such document):
 - (a) the Court and its officers, reporters and personnel;
 - (b) counsel of record for any party and their personnel;
 - (c) other law firm attorneys and their personnel;
 - (d) in-house counsel and their staff and paralegals;
 - (e) outside consultants/experts for plaintiff and outside consultants/experts for defendant, with prior notice to each producing party as detailed in paragraph 20; and

(f) witnesses employed by the entity that produced such information. DESIGNATION AND IDENTIFICATION OF INFORMATION

- 13. Labeling of documents. Information being designated as Covered Information that is in documentary or other tangible form shall be labeled by the producing party, prior to its production, to reflect its designation as Confidential, or Confidential Attorney's Eyes Only, as appropriate. If the documents are produced in the form of electronic of magnetic media, the producing source shall place a stamp, label or other clear designation on the disc or tape containing the Covered Information.
- 14. Designation of other disclosures. Information being designated as Covered Information that is not in documentary or other tangible form, or that cannot conveniently be labeled, shall be designated and/or categorized by the disclosing party in a writing provided to the receiving party at the time of production.
- 15. Preliminary designation of documents being inspected. If a producing party elects to produce documents and things for inspection, it need not label the documents and things in advance of the initial inspection. For purposes of the initial inspection, all documents within the produced files will be considered as having been marked "Confidential Attorney's Eyes Only." Thereafter, on selection of specified documents for copying by the inspecting party, the producing party shall mark either the original documents or the copies of such documents as may contain Covered Information with the appropriate confidentiality marking at the time the copies are produced to the inspecting party.
- 16. Designation not determinative. Designation of documents or other specified information as Covered Information by counsel, or receipt of documents or information so designated, shall not be considered as determinative of whether the contents of the documents or the information specified are entitled to be deemed as such.

- 17. Challenges to confidentiality designations. A party shall not be obligated to challenge the propriety of a designation of information as Covered Information at the time made, and failure to do so shall not preclude a subsequent challenge thereto. For all such disputes, if any, the parties shall proceed pursuant to Local Rule 37. The burden of proving that the information has been properly designated as Covered Information is on the party making such designation.
- 18. Designation of deposition testimony. The following procedures shall be followed if Covered Information of a producing party is discussed or disclosed in a deposition:
 - (a) The producing party shall have the right to exclude from attendance at the deposition, during such time as the Covered Information is to be discussed or disclosed, any person other than the deponent, the court reporter, and qualified persons. For the avoidance of doubt, the deponent must be a qualified person who has signed a document in substantially the form of Exhibit A or Exhibit B attached hereto.
 - (b) The Covered Information shall be designated as Confidential or Confidential Attorney's Eyes Only at the request of counsel for the producing party (or, if the producing party is not a party to the action and is not represented at the deposition, at the request of counsel for the party disclosing the information or questioning the witness about it).
 - (c) If a request under subparagraph (b) is made on the record during the deposition, the reporter shall indicate on the cover page of the transcript that the transcript contains Covered Information and additionally shall list the pages and line numbers of the transcript on which the information in question is contained. If the deposition is recorded on video, the designation shall also be placed on the DVD, CD-ROM, videocassette or other video recording container. Counsel retaining personnel to make the video recording shall have the responsibility for ensuring their compliance with this subparagraph.

(d) Alternatively, a request under subparagraph (b) may be made in writing within thirty (30) days after the requesting counsel receives a copy of the transcript of the deposition. During this 30-day period, all deposition transcripts and the information contained therein shall be deemed Confidential - Attorney's Eyes Only. The request shall contain a list of the numbers of the pages and lines of the transcript that are to be designated as containing Covered Information, and specific designations for each item or group of items on the list. The list shall be set forth on one or more separate pieces of paper, the first one of which shall bear the caption of the action and identifying information about the deposition. The requesting counsel shall insert the list before the cover page of the transcript and shall mail or fax copies of the list to counsel for all parties so that it may be affixed to the face of the transcript and each copy thereof.

ACCESS TO INFORMATION

- 19. Access to Covered Information disclosed to a receiving party shall be limited to qualified persons except with the prior written agreement of the producing party.
- 20. The following procedure shall be followed for any disclosure of information as to which prior notice to the producing party is required under paragraphs 11(f) and 12(e):
 - (a) By facsimile transmission with confirmation by overnight mail, counsel for the receiving party shall (i) notify counsel for the producing party in writing of its intention to make such disclosure ten (10) court days before the intended disclosure; (ii) specify the identity and the current employment of the individual(s) to whom the proposed disclosure will be made; (iii) identify the particular information proposed to be disclosed; (iv) specify the reasons why the proposed disclosure is believed to be necessary; (v) provide to the producing party at the time of notice under this paragraph, a document in substantially the form of Exhibit A or Exhibit B attached hereto that has been signed by the party to whom disclosure shall be made.

- (b) If the producing party makes a written objection setting forth in detail the grounds for such objection within the 10-day period and the objection is not resolved between counsel within five (5) court days thereafter, the party seeking disclosure shall not disclose the information but shall have the right to bring the dispute before the court for its resolution.
- (c) If the dispute over the proposed disclosure is submitted to the Court by motion, the party objecting to disclosure of the information shall have the burden of persuasion.
- 21. Disclosure in certain circumstances. Nothing in this Order shall preclude any party to the lawsuit or their attorneys from disclosing or using by the disclosing party, in any manner or for any purpose, any information or documents from the disclosing party's own files that the party itself has designated as Covered Information.
- 22. Restrictions on use. Disclosure of information designated as Covered Information shall be solely for the purposes of resolving this lawsuit between the parties; information so disclosed shall not be used for any other purpose. The persons receiving the information in question are prohibited from disclosing it to any other person except in conformance with this Order.

OTHER PROVISIONS

- 23. Inadvertent Disclosure of Covered Information. The inadvertent or unintentional disclosure or failure to designate documents or material as Confidential or Confidential - Attorney's Eyes Only shall not be deemed a waiver in whole or in part of a producing party's claim of confidentiality, either as to the specific information disclosed or as to any other information relating thereto. Upon learning of an inadvertent or unintentional disclosure of Covered Information, the producing party shall provide notice to the parties who have received such Covered Information as to how the information should have been designated and shall thereafter have ten (10) business days to make the appropriate designation. During this ten-day period, the information may not be used in a manner inconsistent with such notice. Upon receipt of properly re-designated documents, counsel for the receiving party shall, within ten (10) business days, either return to counsel for the producing party, at the producing party's expense, all versions of that information that were not so designated or certify in writing that all versions of that information including without limitation any physical or electronic copies have been destroyed.
- 24. Documents subject to the attorney-client privilege or work product immunity. To facilitate discovery, the parties may make documents available for inspection by counsel for the receiving party, and such documents may inadvertently include documents subject to the attorney-client privilege, work product immunity, or both. Neither the production for inspection of documents and things by the producing party nor the inspection of such documents and things by the receiving party shall constitute a waiver of the attorney-client privilege or work product immunity. After inspection, the producing party may withhold documents subject to the attorney-client privilege and work product immunity provided proper identification is made on the producing party's list of such documents, and the inspecting party shall not refer to or rely on the contents of such inspected but withheld documents for any purpose, subject to further order of the Court.

- 25. Inadvertent production or disclosure of documents subject to the attorney-client privilege and/or work product immunity. Inadvertent production or disclosure of documents or information subject to the attorney-client privilege, work product immunity or both shall not constitute a waiver of, nor a prejudice to, any claim that such documents or related material is privileged or protected by the work product immunity, provided that the producing party notifies the receiving party in writing promptly after discovery of such inadvertent production. Such inadvertently produced documents and all copies thereof shall promptly be returned to the producing party upon request. No use shall be made of such documents during deposition or at trial, nor shall they be shown to anyone who has not already been given access to them subsequent to the request to return them. If the parties are unable to reach agreement within ten (10) days of such notice, the producing party may seek relief from the Court pursuant to the requirements of Local Rule 37. The receiving party shall not disclose a document for which a claim of privilege or immunity is made pursuant to this paragraph to any person, other than those persons who had it in their possession prior to receipt of the notice from the producing party, until the expiration of the 10-day period identified in this paragraph or, if application is made to the Court, until disposition of that application by the Court.
- 26. Filing under seal. The Parties shall follow the filing procedures set forth in Local Rule 79.5, which provides:

Except when authorized by statute or federal rule, or the Judicial Conference of the United States, no case or document shall be filed under seal without prior approval by the Court. Where approval is required, a written application and a proposed order shall be presented to the judge along with the document submitted for filing under seal. The proposed order shall address both the sealing of the application and order itself, if appropriate. The original and judge's copy of the document shall be sealed in separate envelopes with a copy of the title page attached to the front of each envelope. Conformed copies need not be placed in sealed envelopes. Where under-seal filings are authorized by statute or rule, the authority therefor shall appear on the title page of the proposed filing. Applications and Orders to Seal, along with the material to be placed under seal, shall not be electronically filed but shall be filed manually in the manner prescribed by Local Rule 79-5. A Notice of Manual Filing shall also be electronically filed identifying materials being manually filed.

27. Use of information in court proceedings. Any receiving party that knows that it intends to present Covered Information of another party in oral form at trial, or during any pre- or post-trial hearing, shall first notify the Court and the producing party within a reasonable amount of time in advance. Because of the policy favoring public attendance at judicial proceedings, the parties are strongly encouraged to agree on procedures that will minimize the presentation of Covered Information in open court. In appropriate circumstances such procedures might include, e.g., submission of written testimony under seal, presentation of "declassified" summaries of confidential information, and the like. The Court does not here determine which if any such procedures might be suitable in particular situations. Absent a stipulation of all parties, the fact that information has been designated as Covered Information shall not be admissible during the trial of this action, nor shall the jury be advised of such designation.

- 28. Disposition of documents, etc., after final termination
- (a) Except as set forth below, within 60 days of final termination of this action, the attorneys of record for each receiving party shall return to each producing party or its attorneys of record, at the expense of the producing party, all documents (and copies thereof) and all materials (and any copies thereof) that have been furnished to it by the producing party and that have been identified as Covered Information pursuant to this Order. At the option of the producing party, such documents received by the receiving party may be destroyed in lieu of being returned to the producing party. Counsel for each party must certify compliance with this subparagraph within this 60-day period.
- (b) Notwithstanding subparagraph (a), the attorneys of record for a party may maintain a set of pleadings, briefs, and similar papers filed with the Court, including all exhibits marked in discovery or at trial. The above-described pleadings, briefs and similar papers filed with the Court and exhibits marked in discovery or at trial may be retained in confidence under the terms of this Protective Order by the outside counsel for the party.
- 29. No waiver of right or obligation to object to production. Nothing contained in this Order shall be construed as a waiver by any party of its right to object to the subject matter of any request for production of documents in this action, nor as a waiver by any other party of the first party's obligation to make proper response to discovery requests. The entry of this Order shall not be construed as an agreement by any party to produce any documents or to supply any information and shall not constitute an admission that any such documents that may exist are relevant or material in any way to the issues raised in the pending action or admissible in such action, nor as a waiver of any privilege with respect thereto.

- 30. Third parties. In the event that a party seeks discovery from a non-party to this action, the non-party may invoke the terms of this Order in writing to all parties to the action with respect to any Covered Information to be provided to the requesting party by the non-party by signing a document in substantially the form of Exhibit B attached hereto. When serving subpoenas on non-parties that potentially call for the disclosure of Covered Information, a copy of this order shall be included, and the subpoena shall expressly incorporate by reference the terms of this Order.
- 31. Continuing jurisdiction. This Order shall survive the final conclusion of the action, and this Court retains jurisdiction of the parties hereto, and of any person who executes a copy of Exhibit A or Exhibit B, indefinitely as to any dispute between any of them regarding improper use of information disclosed pursuant to this Order.
- 32. Requests for additional protection. This Order shall be without prejudice to the right of the parties to request additional protection under Fed. R. Civ. P., 26(c), for discovery requests made by any party.
- 33. Additional Parties. The terms of this Order shall be binding on all current and future parties to the litigation and their counsel. Plaintiff's counsel shall be responsible for serving a copy of this Order on such new party's counsel, if any.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
