On May 17, 2012, a Report and Recommendation of United States Magistrate Judge was issued granting Defendants' Motion to Dismiss on the grounds that Plaintiff had not fully exhausted his administrative remedies; Plaintiff's claims of constitutional violations based on his arrest and incarceration were barred by the favorable termination rule; Plaintiff's supervisory claim was vague and conclusory; and Plaintiff failed to state an excessive force claim. (Docket No. 76.)

3 On May 25, 2012, the Court was informed that Plaintiff is no

14 (15) days of the service date, such Plaintiff fails to 15 notify, in writing, the Court and opposing parties of 16 said Plaintiff's current address, the Court may dismiss 17 the action with or without prejudice for want of 18 prosecution."

20 Within 15 days of the date of this Order, Plaintiff will 21 notify the Court of his current address, and, if applicable, 22 telephone number. Plaintiff is advised that if he fails to 23 apprise the Court of his current address, the Court will issue a
24 Report and Recommendation of United States Magistrate Judge
25 recommending the action be dismissed with prejudice.
