CITY OF LOS ANGELES, MARCELLA
WINN, PETER RAZANSKAS, and
DOES 1-45 inclusive,
Defendants.

NO. CV 11-3241-CBM(AJWx)
NO. EDCV 12-1332-CBM(AJWx)

[Honorable Consuelo B. Marshall]

PROTECTIVE ORDER FOR CDCR
RECORDS

OBIE S. ANTHONY, III,
Plaintiff,

v.

CITY OF LOS ANGELES, MARCELLA
WINN, PETER RAZANSKAS, and
DOES 1-10 INCLUSIVE,
Defendants.

GOOD CAUSE HAVING BEEN SHOWN, based on the stipulation of the parties, and pursuant to Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the

1 Court hereby GRANTS the parties’ stipulated request for a protective order, set
2 forth below.

3 STATEMENT OF GOOD CAUSE

4 WHEREAS, during the course of discovery, Defendants have issued
5 discovery requests seeking records maintained by the CDCR pertaining to the 6 incarceration of Plaintiffs Obie Anthony and Reggie Cole, including medical 7 records (“CDCR Records”).

8 WHEREAS, in response to Defendants’ discovery requests, CDCR Records
9 have been produced which contain personal and sensitive information regarding Mr.
10 Anthony and Mr. Cole that would have been kept confidential if it were not for this 11 litigation and which should not be in the public domain.

12 Accordingly, for these reasons of confidentiality, privacy, and privilege, the 13 parties shall comply with the following protective order:

14 PROTECTIVE ORDER TERMS

15 1. The CDCR Records shall be treated as confidential by the parties and 16 their counsel, and the CDCR Records shall not be further disclosed, disseminated, or 17 otherwise distributed except as provided in this Protective Order.

18 2. The CDCR Records shall be used solely in connection with the 19 preparation and trial of the above-captioned actions and any related appellate 20 proceedings. The CDCR Records shall not be used for any other purpose, including 21 any other litigation.

22 3. Defendants and their attorneys of record shall not show or disclose any 23 of the CDCR Records or information derived from those records to anyone other 24 than the following individuals:

25 (i) Counsels of record, including attorneys, support staff, legal 26 assistants, paralegals, investigators and clerical staff who are engaged in 27 assisting in this action;

28 (ii) Parties and testifying witnesses;

1 (iii) Claims adjusters, risk managers and in-house counsel who are
2 necessary to assist defense counsel in this action;

3 (iv) Any independent outside expert or consultant, and employees and 4 assistants under the control of such expert or consultant, who are engaged by 5 defense counsel to assist in this action;

6 (v) Any Court or shorthand reporter, or videographer, engaged by any 7 party to record or to transcribe sworn testimony in this action; and

8 (vi) The Court, including judicial staff assigned to this action.

9 4. Before showing or disclosing any CDCR Records or information
10 derived from those records to any person permitted by this Protective Order to 11 obtain such documents or information, counsel shall obtain the agreement of that 12 person to be bound by the terms of this stipulation and order; to maintain the 13 confidentiality of the CDCR Records or information protected by this stipulation
14 and order; and to refrain from disclosing the CDCR Records or information derived 15 from those records to any third person.

16 5. Any pleadings, motions, briefs, declarations, stipulations, exhibits, or 17 other written submissions to the Court in this litigation which contain, reflect,
18 incorporate, or refer to CDCR Records shall be filed and maintained under seal
19 following the parties compliance with Local Rules 79-5 et seq. If a document or 20 pleading submitted to the Court, as described in this paragraph, makes only a 21 general reference to any document or information contained therein covered by this 22 protective order, but does not quote or describe its contents in any specific way, and 23 does not include the protected document itself, then the filing party need not file it 24 under seal.

25 6. If any party or other person who has received documents covered by 26 this Protective Order receives a subpoena or other request seeking the CDCR
27 Records, he/she/it shall immediately give written notice to Plaintiffs' counsel,
28 identifying the CDCR Records sought and the time in which production or other

1 disclosure is required, and shall object to the request or subpoena on the grounds of 2 this Protective Order so as to afford Mr. Anthony and/or Mr. Cole an opportunity to 3 obtain an order barring production or other disclosure, or to otherwise respond to the 4 subpoena or other request for production or disclosure of CDCR Records. Other 5 than objecting on the grounds of this stipulation, no party shall be obligated to seek 6 an order barring production of Confidential Information, which obligation shall be 7 borne by Plaintiffs. However, in no event should production or disclosure be made
8 without written approval by counsel for the Plaintiff whose records are sought 9 unless required by court order arising from a motion to compel production or 10 disclosure of the CDCR Records.

11 7. This Order shall be without prejudice to the right of the parties (i) to 12 bring before the Court at any time a question of whether any particular document or 13 information is confidential or whether its use should be restricted or (ii) to present a 14 motion to the Court under FRCP 26(c) for a separate protective order as to any 15 particular document or information, including restrictions differing from those as 16 specified herein. This Order shall not be deemed to prejudice the parties in any way
17 in any future application for modification of this Order.

18 8. This Order is entered solely for the purpose of facilitating the exchange 19 of documents and information between the parties to this action without involving 20 the Court unnecessarily in the process. Nothing in this Order nor the production of 21 any information or document under the terms of this Order nor any proceedings
22 pursuant to this Order shall be deemed to have the effect of an admission or a waiver 23 by any party or of altering the confidentiality or nonconfidentiality of any such 24 document or information or altering any existing obligation of any party or the 25 absence of obligation.

26 9. This Protective Order, when entered into by the Court, shall be 27 retroactive to the date of the initial disclosure of CDCR Records.

28 10. This Protective Order shall survive the final resolution of this litigation

1 and shall remain in full force and effect after conclusion of all proceedings herein,
2 and the Court shall have continuing jurisdiction to enforce its terms.

3 11. Upon termination of this case, counsel of record for the parties shall 4 recover all copies of the CDCR Records, other than papers on file with the Court,
5 and shall secure such copies in confidential case files or destroy them. A copy of 6 this stipulation and protective order shall be placed in each file containing CDCR
7 Records.

8 12. In the event that any other parties are added to this action, their counsel 9 shall also be requested to sign a copy of this stipulation before receiving copies of 10 any confidential documents protected by the protective order.

12 IT IS SO ORDERED.
