Proceedings: IN CHAMBERS—ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY ACTION SHOULD NOT BE STAYED PENDING BANKRUPTCY ACTION

On July 1, 2011, a Notice of Commencement of Bankruptcy Case and Automatic Stay was filed herein [Doc. # 16] advising that defendants Rising Sun Enterprises, Inc., Ankush Banipal, Inc. and Nand Singh Garcha, Inc. (collectively, “Debtor defendants”) have filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California. As a result, this action as against the Debtor defendants is subject to the automatic bankruptcy stay pursuant to § 362(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. However, the automatic stay does not apply to this action as against the remaining defendants. As such, all parties herein are ordered to show cause in writing by July 28, 2011 why this entire action should not be stayed pending the pendency of the above-mentioned bankruptcy actions. Failure to file a timely response to this order shall be deemed consent to a stay.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
