15           <sup>1</sup> Under 28 U.S.C. §2253(c)(2), a Certificate of Appealability 16 may issue "only if the applicant has made a substantial showing of the 17 denial of a constitutional right." Here, the Court has accepted the 18 Magistrate Judge's finding and conclusion that the Petition is 19 unexhausted. Thus, the Court's determination of whether a Certificate 20 of Appealability should issue here is governed by the Supreme Court's 21 decision in Slack v. McDaniel, 529 U.S. 473, 120 S. Ct. 1595 (2000), 22 where the Supreme Court held that, "[w]hen the district court denies 23 a habeas petition on procedural grounds without reaching the 24 prisoner's underlying constitutional claim, a COA should issue when 25 the prisoner shows, at least, that jurists of reason would find it 26 debatable whether the petition states a valid claim of the denial of 27 a constitutional right and that jurists of reason would find it 28 debatable whether the district court was correct in its procedural ruling." 529 U.S. at 484. As the Supreme Court further explained:

"Section 2253 mandates that both showings be made before the court of appeals may entertain the appeal. Each component of the § 2253(c) showing is part of a threshold inquiry, and a court may find that it can dispose of the application in a fair and prompt manner if it proceeds first to resolve the issue whose answer is more apparent from the record and arguments." Id. at 485.

Here, the Court finds that Petitioner has failed to make the requisite showing that "jurists of reason would find it debatable whether the district court was correct in its procedural ruling."
