Defendants.

Case No. CV12-4439 SVW (PJWx)

~~PROPOSED~~ PROTECTIVE ORDER

DISCOVERY MATTER

In light of the parties’ Joint Stipulation for Protective Order, and good cause appearing, the Court hereby grants the parties’ stipulation and hereby orders as follows:

1. As used in this Protective Order, these terms have the following meanings:

“Attorneys” means present or future counsel of record;

“Confidential” information shall consist of Documents designated pursuant to paragraph 2;

1           “Documents” are all materials within the scope of Fed. R. Civ. P. 34;
2           “Highly Confidential” information shall consist of Documents 3 designated pursuant to paragraph 3;

4           “Outside Vendors” means messenger, copy, coding, and other clerical 5 or electronic service vendors not employed by a Party or its Attorneys; and 6           “Written Assurance” means an executed document in the form 7 attached as Exhibit A.

8           2. A party may designate a Document “Confidential” to protect 9 information within the scope of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c).

10           3. A party may designate a Document “Highly Confidential” if the 11 producing party considers the Document to contain proprietary information of a 12 highly sensitive nature.

13           4. All Confidential and Highly Confidential Documents, along with the 14 information contained in the Documents, shall be used solely for the purpose of this 15 action except as provided below:

16           (a) The Parties agree that, to the extent not subject to any attorney-17 client privilege, all documents produced in this litigation will be produced in 18 accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

19           (b) The Parties further agree that, if documents produced by the 20 Plaintiffs in this litigation contain information relating to Supplemental Market 21 allocations made by other contributing employers to the Plaintiffs (“Other 22 Employer Material”), and if Defendants determine that such Other Employer
23 Material is relevant to any claims or defenses asserted in any arbitration or litigation 24 brought by the Directors Guild of America, Inc. against Defendants (the “Related 25 Proceedings”), Defendants shall have the right to seek to use such Other Employer 26 Material, in redacted form, as follows:

27           (1) Defendants will take the necessary steps to redact any and 28 all information contained in such Other Employer Material that would reveal the 1 identity of the other contributing employer including, but not limited to, motion 2 picture titles.

3 (2) At least ten (10) business days before use of such redacted
4 Other Employer Material in a Related Proceeding, Defendants will provide copies
5 of such redacted Other Employer Material to Plaintiffs for review. In the event 6 that Plaintiffs have any objections to Defendants' redactions, Plaintiffs shall raise 7 such objection in the Related Proceeding .

8 (3) Nothing herein shall preclude Defendants from using 9 other means, including issuance of subpoenas (to the extent available), from 10 obtaining relevant materials from the Plaintiffs for use in any Related Proceeding.

11 (4) Nothing herein shall preclude the Plaintiffs, from 12 objecting or taking any position, without limitation or prejudice, in the Related 13 Proceedings.

14 (5) Nothing herein can, or shall, affect the rights of any third 15 party, including without limitation, the Directors Guild of America, Inc.

16 5. Access to any Confidential and Highly Confidential Documents shall 17 be limited to:

18 (a) the Court and its staff;

19 (b) Attorneys, their law firms, their clients, and their Outside 20 Vendors who provide Written Assurance confirming agreement to the terms of this 21 Stipulated Protective Order;

22 (c) persons shown on the face of the document to have authored or 23 received it;

24 (d) court reporters retained to transcribe testimony;

25 (e) outside independent persons (i.e., persons not currently or 26 formerly employed by, consulting with, or otherwise associated with any party) 27 who are retained by a party or its Attorneys to furnish technical or expert services 28 and/or to give testimony in this action, who provide Written Assurance confirming

1 agreement to the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order ;

2 (f) witnesses, deponents and their counsel, during the course of, or 3 in preparation for, depositions or testimony who provide Written Assurance 4 confirming agreement to the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order, except such 5 persons shall not have access to information designated Highly Confidential;

6 (g) the parties who provide Written Assurance confirming 7 agreement to the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order, except such persons 8 shall not have access to information designated Highly Confidential;

9 (h) arbitrators and other decision makers in Related Proceedings.

10 6. Third parties producing Documents in the course of this action may 11 also designate Documents as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential,” subject to 12 the same protections and constraints as the parties to the action. A copy of the 13 Protective Order shall be served along with any subpoena served in connection with 14 this action. All Documents produced by such third parties shall be treated as 15 Confidential for a period of 14 days<sup>1</sup> from the date of their production, and during 16 that period any party may designate such documents as Confidential or Highly 17 Confidential pursuant to the terms of the Protective Order.

18 7. Each person designated pursuant to paragraph 5(e), 5(f), 5(g) who may 19 receive Confidential or Highly Confidential information must execute a Written 20 Assurance in the form attached as Exhibit A. Opposing counsel shall be notified at 21 least 10 days prior to disclosure to any such person who is known to be an 22 employee or agent of, or consultant to, any competitor of the party whose 23 designated Documents are sought to be disclosed. Such notice shall provide a 24 reasonable description of the outside independent person to whom disclosure is 25 sought sufficient to permit objection to be made. If a party objects in writing to 26 such disclosure within 10 days after receipt of notice, no disclosure shall be made

27

28

1 until the party seeking disclosure obtains the prior approval of the Court or the 2 objecting party.

3 8. All depositions or portions of depositions taken in this action, or 4 exhibits thereto that contain confidential information may be designated 5 Confidential or Highly Confidential and thereby obtain the protections accorded 6 other Documents receiving those designations. Designations for depositions shall 7 be made either on the record or by written notice to the other party within 10 days 8 of receipt of the transcript. Unless otherwise agreed, depositions shall be treated as 9 Confidential during the 10-day period following receipt of the transcript. The 10 deposition of any witness (or any portion of such deposition) that encompasses 11 Confidential or Highly Confidential information shall be taken only in the presence 12 of persons who are qualified to have access to such information.

13 9. Any party who inadvertently fails to identify Documents as 14 Confidential or Highly Confidential shall, promptly upon discovery of its oversight, 15 provide written notice of the error, specify the Document with sufficient 16 particularity necessary to identify such Document and substitute appropriately-17 designated Documents. Any party receiving such improperly-designated 18 Documents shall retrieve such Documents from persons not entitled to receive those 19 Documents and, upon receipt of the substitute Documents, shall return or destroy 20 the improperly-designated Documents.

21 10. A party may file a Document containing Confidential information with 22 the Court, after providing the designating party with seven days notice and 23 participating in a meet and confer upon request, in normal course compliance with 24 the Electronic Case Filing Procedures for the Central District of California. Prior to 25 disclosure at trial or a hearing of Confidential Documents, the parties may seek 26 further protections against public disclosure from the Court. Documents designated 27 Highly Confidential may not be filed with the Court except that a party must first 28

1 either seek leave of the Court to file such Documents under seal or seek a change in 2 designation pursuant to the procedure discussed in paragraph 11.

3 11. Any party may request a change in the designation of any information 4 designated as Confidential or Highly Confidential. Such a request must be in 5 writing, sent to the Attorneys via email, and specify the Document at issue with 6 sufficient particularity necessary to identify the applicable Document. Any such 7 Document shall continue to be treated as designated for 30 days, during which time 8 the party seeking to change the designation may file a motion with the Court for 9 appropriate relief, providing notice to any third party whose designation of 10 produced documents in the action may be affected. Once the asserting party has 11 moved the Court for appropriate relief, the designating party shall have the burden 12 of proving that the information in question is within the scope of protection 13 afforded by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c). If the asserting party does not file a motion with 14 the Court for relief within the 30 day period , the designation remains unchanged.

15 12. Within 60 days of the termination of this action, including any appeals, 16 each party shall either destroy or return to the opposing party all Documents 17 designated by the opposing party as Confidential or Highly Confidential and all 18 copies of such Documents, and shall destroy all extracts and/or data taken from 19 such Documents. Each party shall provide a certification as to such return or 20 destruction within the 60-day period. However, Attorneys shall be entitled to retain 21 a set of all Documents filed with the Court and all correspondence generated in 22 connection with the action.

23 13. Any party may apply to the Court for a modification of the Protective 24 Order, and nothing in this Stipulation shall be construed to prevent a party from 25 seeking such further provisions enhancing or limiting confidentiality as may be 26 appropriate.

27
28

1           14. No action taken in accordance with the Protective Order shall be 2 construed as a waiver of any claim or defense in the action or of any position as to 3 discoverability or admissibility of evidence.

4           15. Nothing contained in this Order shall limit the use of any Confidential
5 material at trial or in any hearing before the Court, except provided that any party 6 has the opportunity to seek further protections of Confidential Documents against 7 public disclosure.

8           16. The parties intend to proceed with Document production in this matter 9 in a prompt and efficient manner without waiving their respective abilities to assert 10 the protections of the attorney-client privilege, the attorney work-product doctrine 11 or any other applicable privilege.

12           17. Because the parties recognize that inadvertent disclosure of material 13 protected by attorney-client privilege, the attorney work-product doctrine or any 14 other applicable privilege (“Privileged Material”) may occur during the course of 15 production, the parties wish to agree upon a “clawback” procedure that will apply 16 in the event that any Privileged Material is inadvertently produced. By producing 17 any Document, the producing party does not waive its right to subsequently assert 18 that certain produced Documents are Privileged Material. A producing party must 19 identify with sufficient particularity necessary to identify the applicable Document 20 that it subsequently wishes to designate as Privileged Material. A receiving party 21 will not challenge the producing party's right to assert that certain produced 22 Documents are Privileged Material, but the receiving party retains the right to refute 23 the claim of privilege. The receiving party will not assert otherwise that, pursuant 24 to Federal Rule of Evidence 502(b), any such disclosure of Privileged Material shall 25 be considered “inadvertent” and that the producing party took reasonable steps to 26 prevent it. By any production of Privileged Material, the producing party does not 27 intend to waive, and is not in fact waiving, as to the receiving party or any third 28

1 party, the protection of the attorney client-privilege, attorney work-product
2 doctrine, or any other applicable privilege regarding the Privileged Material.

3 18. A receiving party will not assert in this or any other matter that (a) the 4 producing party, by its production of Privileged Material, intends to waive, or is in 5 fact waiving, as to the government or any third party, the protection of the attorney-6 client privilege, attorney work-product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege 7 regarding the Privileged Material; or (b) the production of Privileged Material 8 pursuant to this Stipulation constitutes a waiver by the producing party as to the 9 government or any third party of the protection of the attorney-client privilege, 10 attorney work-product doctrine, or any other applicable privilege regarding the 11 Privileged Material.

12 19. If the producing party discovers it has inadvertently disclosed 13 Privileged Material, the producing party shall promptly upon discovery of such 14 disclosure advise the receiving party in writing, identify the Privileged Material 15 with sufficient particularity necessary to identify the applicable Document and 16 request that the Privileged Material be returned or destroyed. Upon receiving such 17 notification from the producing party, or upon independently discovering that the 18 producing party inadvertently has produced Privileged Material, the receiving party 19 shall promptly (within five days) return the Privileged Material to the producing 20 party or destroy the Privileged Material, including all copies thereof and any other 21 Document or information derived from such inadvertently produced Privileged 22 Material. A receiving party will use all reasonable efforts to preserve the 23 confidentiality of the Privileged Material until such time as it is returned or 24 destroyed, and agree that they will not use the Privileged Material in this or any 25 other proceeding . The producing party will add any such returned or destroyed 26 Privileged Material to its privilege log and will state the basis for withholding the 27 Document from production.
