Proceedings:            (IN CHAMBERS) ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

According to the Court's previous scheduling order (Docket # 32), both parties were required to file case management reports by July 8, 2013, informing the Court about the various anticipated issues in the litigation. However, to date, neither party filed the mandatory report.

Therefore, Plaintiff and Defendant are ordered to show cause why the Court should not enter an order of sanctions (monetary or litigation-related) against each party for failure to comply with the Court's previous order. Each party may discharge the OSC by submitting the required report – plus an explanation for the delay in its submission – by or before September 9, 2013.
