Cause called; appearances made.

Court announces that due to the Court’s upcoming retirement this case will have to be transferred to another judge for trial. The Court and counsel confer about their transfer options. The parties are advised that there is a Voluntary Consent List to the Assignment of Cases to Magistrate Judges (“Voluntary Consent List”) maintained by the Clerk of the Court with the names of magistrate judges that are willing to try a case. The parties should decide on how they wish to proceed but if the Court does not hear from them by close of business on Tuesday, November 25, 2014, the Court will return this case to the case assignment wheel to be randomly reassigned to another district judge.
