LEADER: *Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord,
And the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.*

ASSEMBLY: Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people.

LEADER: When the righteous are in authority the people rejoice; but when the wicked beareth rule, the people mourn.

*If thou hearken diligently unto the voice of the Lord thy God,
The Lord thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth.*

Psalms

UNISON: We hold these truths to be self-evident:

That all men are created equal;

That they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights;

That among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness;

That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed.

Thomas Jefferson

Lincoln's Gettysburg Address

LEADER: Fourscore and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.

ASSEMBLY: Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure.

LEADER: We are met on a great battle-field of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting-place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live.

ASSEMBLY: It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. But, in a larger sense we cannot dedicate—we cannot consecrate—we cannot hallow—this ground.

LEADER: The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it far above our poor power to add or detract.

ASSEMBLY: The world will little note nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here.

LEADER: It is for us, the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced.

ASSEMBLY: It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion;

That we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain; that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom; and that the government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth. Abraham Lincoln

LEADER: God hath made of one blood all nations of men, and we are his children, — brothers and sisters all.

ASSEMBLY: We are citizens of these United States, and we believe our Flag stands for self-sacrifice for the good of all the people. We want, therefore, to be true citizens of our great country, and will show our love for her by our works.

LEADER: Our country does not ask us to die for her welfare; she asks us to live for her, and so to live and so to act that her government may be pure, her officers honest, and every corner of her territory shall be a place fit to grow the best men and women, who shall rule over her.

Mary McDowell

UNISON: The Flag means universal education—light for every mind, knowledge for every child. We must have but one flag. We must also have but one language. This must be the language of the Declaration of Independence.

Woodrow Wilson

Pledge To The Flag

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, One Nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

Singing In The Rain

ELIZABETH AKERS ALLEN

FRANZ JOSEPH HAYDN

1. Where the elm-tree branches By the rain are stirr'd, Careless of the show-er
 2. From their heavy frin-ges, Pour their drops a-main, Still the bird is sing-ing,
 3. Cheerful summer prophet! List'ning to thy song, How my faint ing spir-it

Swings a lit-tle bird: Clouds may frown and darken, Drops may fall in vain,
 Sing - ing in the rain. O thou hope-ful sing-er, Whom my faith perceives
 Grow-eth glad and strong. Let the black clouds gather, Let the sunshine wane,

Lit-tle heeds the warbler Sing-ing in the rain. Dimmer fall the shad-ows,
 To a dove transfigured, Bring-ing ol-ive leaves; Ol-ive leaves of prom-ise,
 If I may but join thee, Sing-ing in the rain. Let the black clouds gather,

Mist-ier grows the air, Still the black clouds gather, Dark'ning here and there.
 Types of joy to be; How in doubt and tri-al Learns my heart of thee.
 Let the sunshine wane, If I may but join thee, Sing-ing in the rain.
