1 REVISED DECLARATION OF OMEL A. NIEVES
 IN SUPPORT OF FINAL APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT AND REQUEST FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES

1 The undersigned, Omel A. Nieves, under penalty of perjury, hereby declares 2 and states as follows:

3 1. I am an attorney duly licensed to practice law in the State of California
4 and I am admitted to practice in this Court. I am a shareholder and managing partner
5 of the law firm of Hunt Ortmann Palffy Nieves Darling & Mah, Inc. ("Hunt 6 Ortmann"), Plaintiffs' local counsel in this litigation. I have personal knowledge of 7 the matters set forth herein and, if called upon, I could and would competently testify 8 thereto.

9 2. I submit this Declaration in support of Plaintiffs' motions for final 10 approval of the Settlement and for an award of attorneys' fees and reimbursement of 11 expenses. These motions and supporting memoranda of law are filed concurrently 12 herewith.

13 3. This Declaration sets forth the nature of the work my firm performed in 14 the litigation to demonstrate why Plaintiffs' Counsel's request for attorneys' fees is 15 reasonable and should be approved by the Court.

16 4. As the Court is aware, the Action was extensively investigated by 17 Plaintiffs' Counsel before it was commenced, and was actively and aggressively 18 litigated by Plaintiffs' Counsel until the Settlement was reached on February 8, 2016.
19 For their part, Defendants (and, to a lesser extent, the Intervenors) vigorously 20 defended themselves against Plaintiffs' claims. The case presented novel and 21 complex issues and posed great risk to both sides. Nothing about the litigation was 22 simple.

23 5. My firm acted as local counsel for Plaintiff Rupa Marya, and all 24 Plaintiffs throughout the litigation. We were involved in most of the major efforts by 25 Plaintiffs' Counsel. Specifically, Hunt Ortmann reviewed all documents prepared by 26 Plaintiff's Counsel including filings to ensure conformance with the District Rules
27 and Local Rules. Hunt Ortmann reviewed pleadings, law and motion and discovery 28 in this matter and made appearances in court when necessary. Our work in each

1 phase of the litigation is described in detail below.

2 6. The information in this declaration regarding the firm's time and 3 expenses is taken directly from time and expense printouts and supporting 4 documentation prepared and/or maintained by the firm in the ordinary course of 5 business. I am the partner who oversaw and conducted the day-to-day activities in 6 this litigation and I reviewed these printouts (and backup documentation where 7 necessary or appropriate) in connection with the preparation of this declaration. The 8 purpose of this review was to confirm the accuracy of the entries on the printouts as 9 well as the necessity for, and reasonableness of, the time committed to the litigation.
10 As a result of this review, reductions were made to both time and expenses in the 11 exercise of billing judgment. As a result of this review and the adjustments made, I 12 believe that the time and the expenses for which payment is sought as set forth in this 13 declaration are reasonable in amount and was necessary for the effective and efficient 14 prosecution and resolution of the litigation.

15 7. My firm incurred minimal costs of which we are not seeking 16 reimbursement.

17 8. After the reductions referred to above, the number of hours spent on 18 litigation by my firm is 102.70¹. The fee amount for attorney time based on the firm's 19 current billed rates is $56,458.50. The hourly rates shown below are the usual and 20 customary rates set by the firm for each individual, and are rates that are actually 21 billed to, and paid by, clients of the firm.

22 A. Attorneys' Fees

23 9. My firm assisted with primarily reviewing and advising on (1) the initial 24 complaint; (2) amended complaint; (3) response to Defendants' Motion to Dismiss;

26 ¹ This figure includes three (3) additional hours that Omel A. Nieves reasonably anticipates spending on 27 travel to and attendance at the June 27, 2016 hearing, and conferences with Plaintiff's Counsel and the client 28 regarding the hearing.

1 (4) discovery; (5) cross-motions for summary judgment; (6) settlement negotiations;
2 and (7) settlement approval and administration. As stated above, as local counsel, 3 my firm was responsible to ensure all District and local rules were followed. As a 4 result, all documents were passed by my firm for quality assurance.

5 10. The work and the amount of time performed by the attorneys of my firm 6 during this phase of the litigation is summarized below:

7

Attorney	Position	Hours Worked	Hourly Rate	Total

13 11. I graduated from the University of California, Davis School of Law, was 14 admitted to the California Bar in December 1989, and am a Shareholder and 15 Managing Partner with Hunt Ortmann Palffy Nieves Darling & Mah, Inc. ("Hunt 16 Ortmann").

17 12. For the past 26 years I have specialized in complex litigation with an 18 emphasis on business and real estate matters. As managing partner, I oversee the 19 firm's 23 attorneys and its considerable inventory of litigation matters which range in 20 value from $25,000 up to complex multiparty cases with claims in excess of $200
21 million. In addition, we handle many transactional matters for our clients in contracts 22 worth over five (5) hundred million dollars. I have also represented large numbers of 23 plaintiffs in the Northridge Earthquake Insurance Claims litigation, a collective 24 action which yielded multiple multimillion dollar settlements for our clients.

25 13. I am an experienced trial lawyer. Throughout the course of my practice, 26

27 ² This figure includes three (3) additional hours that Mr. Nieves reasonably anticipates spending on travel to 28 and attendance at the June 27, 2016 hearing, and conferences with the client regarding the hearing.

1 I have successfully tried in excess of 25 high value bench and jury trials in addition
2 to countless arbitrations. I have represented cross complainants in a large complex
3 multiparty construction action captioned SSR Marlowe, LLC v Taisei Construction
4 Corporation, et.al. LASC Case No. BC363862I which was resulted in a very 5 favorable confidential settlement. I represented plaintiffs in a Consolidated Complex
6 action captioned In Re UCLA Westwood Replacement Hospital Cases LASC Case 7 No. SC096499 which resulted in a large confidential settlement on the eve of trial. In 8 addition, I represented plaintiffs in a Class Action action captioned 9 Dalal Abedrabo, et al vs. AT&T Mobility Services LLC, a Delaware limited liability
10 company USDC Central District Case No. SACV 11-01388 VAP, which resulted in a 11 confidential settlement prior to trial. This is just a small sampling of the complex 12 actions in which I have been involved. As a consequence, I have extensive 13 experience in managing and directing large discovery efforts, overall litigation 14 strategy, interviewing and deposing percipient and expert witnesses, developing 15 experts in a wide variety of fields, and in all aspects of trial preparation and 16 management.

17 14. Katherine Odenbreit was a Senior Attorney with the Class Action
18 Program at the law firm Hunt Ortmann.

19 15. Ms. Odenbreit has been an attorney nearly 18 years and has exclusively 20 dedicated her practice to litigating class actions for the past 9 years. She is a member
21 of the California Employment Lawyers' Association ("CELA"), a state-wide 22 association of over 1,000 plaintiff lawyers who focus on employment law and 23 currently serve on the Wage and Hour Committee and as Chair of the Federal 24 Practice sub-committee. She has been invited to be a guest speaker at many wage 25 and hour seminars, including those sponsored by Bridgeport and CELA.

26 16. Prior to joining Hunt Ortmann, she was one of the founding partners of 27 Barge, Petersen & Odenbreit LLP. Barge, Petersen & Odenbreit LLP was a boutique 28

1 firm whose practice was dedicated to representing employees and peace officers in 2 wage and hour class and collective actions. The firm represented over 2,500 Los 3 Angeles Police Department officers in wage and hour claims in the California
4 Central District Court and the California Southern District Court. Barge, Petersen &
5 Odenbreit was also lead or co-lead counsel on numerous state and federal wage and 6 hour class actions.

7 17. Prior to Barge, Petersen & Odenbreit, she was the Director of Litigation 8 for the firm Class Action Litigation Group APC ("CALG"). CALG's practice was 9 exclusively dedicated to state and federal wage and hour class and collective actions.
10 As Director of Litigation, she was responsible for oversight of litigation of all cases, 11 including supervision of attorneys and staff, case management and making key court 12 appearances.

13 18. The first 7 years of her legal career, her practice was focused on 14 criminal defense where she litigated over 30 cases to jury trial in both state and 15 federal courts and handled numerous appeals.

16 19. She began class action practice at the law firm of Spiro, Moss, Barness, 17 Harrison & Barge (aka "Spiro Moss"). At the time she was there, the firm had 18 approximately 8-10 attorneys and focused primarily on employment wage and hour 19 class actions.

20 20. Her collective firms and attorneys have handled more than 200 overtime 21 and other wage related class actions for the past 9 years. Her collective firms and/or 22 herself have been appointed lead or co-lead counsel and/or counsel for representative 23 plaintiffs in FLSA collective actions in over fifty matters in federal and state courts

18 Division 3, Case No. G046225. This matter is a consumer class action currently on 19 appeal following an order denying a motion to compel arbitration. This case 20 involves issues recently raised by the United States Supreme Court in AT&T v.
21 Concepcion.

22 22. Alison C. Gibbs is an associate with Hunt Ortmann.

23 23. For the past three years, Ms. Gibbs has devoted her practice to 24 representing workers nationwide in wage and hour class and collective actions. She 25 has quickly become recognized as a skilled and efficient litigator in wage and hour 26 class actions litigating against defendants such as Downey Savings & Loan, the 27 Federal Depository Insurance Company ("FDIC"), TelePacific Communications Inc.,

8 member of Educating for Justice non-profit organization where she was instrumental 9 in seeking fair wages for employees around the world.

10 24. Tina B. Nieves was Of Counsel to the Hunt Ortmann law firm. As of 11 January 1, 2012, the firm had engaged her services to work on all of the firm's class 12 action matters.

13 25. In addition to her association with Hunt Ortmann as Of Counsel, she 14 was formerly founding partner in the firm of Gancedo & Nieves LLP, which 15 specializes in Wage and Hour, Consumer Fraud and Products Liability Class Actions
16 and Pharmaceutical Mass Torts. In her 24 years of practice, she has represented 17 thousands of plaintiffs who have been the victims of corporate fraud and 18 wrongdoing.

10 28. Based on my experience practicing law in the area of complex litigation 11 and class actions, it is my opinion that the hours charged and the rates are reasonable 12 and consistent with community standards. Furthermore, the hours were necessarily 13 incurred.
