Case No. 2:13-cv-06611 RSWL JEM
~~PROPOSED~~ PROTECTIVE ODER
 Judge: Hon. Ronald S.W. Lew

18 The Court, having reviewed the Stipulation for Protective Order executed by 19 the parties through their respective counsel, and good cause appearing therefor,

20 IT IS ORDERED:

21 1. Discovery in this action is expected to require the production of non-22 public confidential information concerning the business affairs of the parties, 23 including but not limited to pricing information, sales and revenue figures, 24 customer identities, and materials that may constitute trade secrets. There is good 25 cause for the entry of a protective order under Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of 26 Civil Procedure with respect to such materials because the disclosure of the pricing 27 information, sales and revenue data, customer identities, and trade secrets could 28 result in competitive injury.

GREENBERG GLUSKER FIELDS CLAMAN
 & MACHTINGER LLP
 1900 Avenue of the Stars, 21st Floor
 Los Angeles, California 90067-4590

1 2. As used herein, "Confidential Material" means: (a) non-public price 2 lists and price quotations; (b) non-public sales, profit and revenue figures; (c) non-3 public information disclosing the identities of any customer of any party providing 4 discovery, including any party to this action or any third party (a "Producing 5 Party"); and (d) any other non-public information that any Producing Party 6 reasonably believes, in good faith, is likely to cause competitive harm if disclosed 7 or constitutes a trade secret under applicable law.

8 3. "Confidential Material" does not include any information:

9 (a) that is known to or independently developed by the party 10 receiving the production (the "Receiving Party");

11 (b) that, after the disclosure to the Receiving Party by the Producing 12 Party is revealed to the public or to the Receiving Party by a person having 13 the unrestricted right to do so; or

14 (c) that is acquired by the Receiving Party from any third party 15 which lawfully possesses the information and owes no contractual duty of 16 non-disclosure to the Producing Party.

17 4. There shall be two categories of Confidential Material under this 18 Protective Order:

19 (a) "CONFIDENTIAL," and

20 (b) "ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY."

21 The "ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" category is reserved exclusively for 22 Confidential Material that constitutes trade secrets under applicable law, or 23 Confidential Material regarding pricing, profit or customer information that, if 24 disclosed to the Receiving Party, would cause competitive injury to the Producing 25 Party.

26 5. All tangible items or subject matter deemed by the Producing Party to 27 be subject to this Protective Order shall be visibly marked as "CONFIDENTIAL" 28 or "ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" at the time of production or disclosure to be

1 subject to this Protective Order. In order to designate an entire multi-page 2 document as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” each page of 3 the document must be so marked, except in the case of electronic documents 4 produced in native format (e.g., Microsoft Excel files), which may be designated by 5 affixing the appropriate designation on the first page of the document. If not all 6 pages of a document contain Confidential Material, then only those pages deemed 7 in good faith to be subject to each such designation shall be so marked, except in 8 the case of electronic documents produced in native format, which may be 9 designated as described above. With respect to deposition testimony, blanket 10 designations of an entire deposition transcript as “CONFIDENTIAL” or 11 “ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” should be avoided where possible, although 12 counsel may agree, for the sake of convenience, to temporary treatment of a 13 transcript as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” pending 14 specific page and line designations made by the Producing Party after the 15 deposition transcript for that deposition session or sitting is transcribed by the 16 reporter. In connection with electronically-produced documents in non-native 17 format, any designation as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” 18 shall be provided in a metadata field and shall also be stamped on the electronic 19 document itself.

20 6. Except pursuant to a prior written consent of the Producing Party or an 21 order of the Court allowing broader disclosure, no Confidential Material which has 22 been designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” shall be disclosed by the Receiving Party 23 to anyone other than (a) this Court and its personnel, (b) any person indicated on 24 the face of a document so designated to be its originator or author or a recipient of a 25 copy thereof, or is mentioned in it, (c) counsel of record for the Receiving Party 26 (including attorneys and employees working for such counsel), (d) experts and 27 consultants retained or consulted in this action by the Receiving Party, (e) 28 executives of the Receiving Party who are actively involved in working with the 1 Receiving Party or its legal counsel in the prosecution, defense, or settlement of 2 these proceedings, and (f) any court reporter before whom a deposition is taken in 3 this action.

4 7. Except pursuant to a prior written consent of the Producing Party or an 5 order of the Court allowing broader disclosure, no Confidential Material which has 6 been designated as "ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" shall be disclosed by the 7 Receiving Party to anyone other than (a) this Court and its personnel, (b) any 8 person indicated on the face of the document to be its originator or author or a 9 recipient of a copy thereof, or is mentioned in it, (c) counsel of record for the 10 Receiving Party (including attorneys and employees working for such counsel), (d) 11 experts or consultants retained or consulted in this action by the Receiving Party, 12 and (e) any court reporter before whom a deposition is taken in this action.

13 8. All persons to whom disclosure of Confidential Material is made under 14 this Protective Order, other than counsel of record for the parties and the attorneys 15 and employees who work for such counsel, shall be given a copy of the Protective 16 Order prior to such disclosure and, prior to such disclosure, shall sign the form 17 attached hereto as "Exhibit A" indicating that they have read this Protective Order 18 and agree to be bound by its terms.

19 9. Confidential Material shall be handled in the manner set forth herein 20 and shall be used solely for the purposes of the prosecution or defense of this action 21 unless and until such designation is removed by agreement of counsel for the 22 parties or by order of the Court. This reciprocal contractual obligation shall survive 23 the termination of this action and shall continue even after the Court loses its 24 current jurisdiction over the parties.

25 10. Where only a portion of a particular document or tangible item 26 furnished or produced by a Producing Party, or a portion of the transcript of any 27 deposition, is designated as Confidential Material, counsel for the Receiving Party 28 shall delete or redact therefrom the "CONFIDENTIAL" or "ATTORNEYS' EYES

1 ONLY” portions, before disclosing such information to any person other than those 2 designated herein.

3 11. Deletions or redactions made from any material or transcript in 4 accordance with the terms of this Protective Order shall not affect the admissibility 5 of any such material or transcript in evidence in this action.

6 12. Nothing contained herein, including in Paragraph 7 above, shall 7 preclude or impede the ability of the parties’ counsel to communicate with their 8 respective clients to provide advice and counseling with respect to this action, based 9 upon counsel’s review and analysis of Confidential Material designated as 10 “ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” Counsel may discuss with employees and officers 11 of their respective clients who are actively involved in the prosecution, defense, or 12 settlement of this action, the general nature of such “ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” 13 materials, without disclosing the specifics of those materials, to the extent necessary 14 to the effective representation of their respective clients.

15 13. If any Confidential Material is summarized, discussed, or quoted from 16 at any deposition or at any hearing in this action, all persons other than those to 17 whom disclosure is permitted hereunder shall be excluded from such portion of the 18 deposition or hearing.

19 14. The parties shall endeavor to avoid filing Confidential Materials with 20 the Court to the extent possible. If it becomes necessary to file Confidential 21 Materials with the Court, the party who wishes to file such materials shall (a) seek 22 the consent of the Producing Party to allow such filing, or (b) if such consent is not 23 forthcoming, shall file an application for approval to file the Confidential Materials 24 under seal, pursuant to Local Rule 79-5.

25 15. Nothing in this Order shall prevent a Receiving Party from contending 26 that documents or information have been improperly designated. A Receiving 27 Party may at any time request that the Producing Party cancel or modify the 28 designation with respect to any document or information contained therein. The

1 designated status of any Confidential Material and any restriction on the disclosure 2 or use of Confidential Material contained in this Protective Order may be changed 3 only by written agreement of the Producing Party or by court order. A party shall 4 not be obligated to challenge the propriety of any designation at the time of 5 production, and a failure to do so shall not preclude a subsequent challenge thereto.
6 Before filing any motion for an order changing the designated status of Confidential 7 Material or any restriction of this Protective Order, the Receiving Party shall make 8 a written request to the Producing Party to agree to the requested change. The 9 parties shall promptly meet and confer to discuss the request. If after meeting and 10 conferring, the parties cannot agree upon the resolution of the Receiving Party's 11 request, the Receiving Party may move for an order changing the designated status 12 of Confidential Material or otherwise relieving the Receiving Party from the 13 restrictions of this Protective Order. Pending the decision on the motion, the 14 involved item shall be treated in accordance with its designated status. In 15 connection with any such motion, the Producing Party shall have the burden of 16 establishing that the item of protected subject matter contains Confidential Material 17 of such a nature as to justify its designated status or as to justify the restrictions 18 from which the Receiving Party then seeks relief.

19 16. Inadvertent or unintentional production of documents or things 20 containing Confidential Material, but which are not properly designated as such at 21 the time of production, shall not be deemed a waiver in whole or in part of a claim 22 for confidential treatment. Any Producing Party who inadvertently produces 23 Confidential Material without designating it as such in accordance with this 24 Protective Order shall immediately notify the Receiving Party after discovery of 25 such inadvertent production. The material so designated shall thereafter be treated 26 as Confidential Material under this Protective Order, unless the designation is 27 changed pursuant to Paragraph 15 of this Protective Order. The Producing Party 28

1 will also provide replacement pages bearing the appropriate confidentiality legend 2 or legends upon discovery of the error.

3 17. If information subject to a claim of attorney-client privilege, work 4 product doctrine, or other privilege, doctrine, right, or immunity is nevertheless 5 inadvertently or unintentionally produced, such production shall in no way 6 prejudice or otherwise constitute a waiver or estoppel as to any such privilege, 7 doctrine, right or immunity. Any Producing Party who produces material without 8 intending to waive a claim of privilege or protection of trial preparation materials 9 with respect thereto shall immediately on discovery of the error identify the 10 material or information produced and state the privilege or other protection 11 asserted. After the Producing Party makes that identification, the Receiving Party 12 must promptly return, sequester or destroy the specified material or information and 13 any copies thereof and otherwise follow the procedures set forth in Federal Rule of 14 Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). The Receiving Party may thereafter seek a ruling 15 from the Court as to the merits of the claim of privilege or protection of trial 16 preparation materials; the Producing Party must preserve the information until the 17 claim is resolved.

18 18. All Confidential Material shall be retained by the Receiving Party or 19 its counsel of record during the pendency of these proceedings, except that experts 20 and consultants retained or consulted by a Receiving Party, and other persons noted 21 herein or permitted by other agreement, may have custody of one copy of any 22 Confidential Material during the pendency of this proceeding.

23 19. Neither the taking of any action in accordance with the provisions of 24 this Protective Order, nor the failure to object thereto, shall be construed as a 25 waiver of any claim or defense in this action. Moreover, the failure to designate 26 information in accordance with this Protective Order and the failure to object to a 27 designation at a given time shall not preclude the filing of a motion at a later date 28 seeking to impose such designation or challenging the propriety thereof as of or

1 after any such later date. The entry of this Protective Order shall not be construed 2 as a waiver of any right to object to the disclosure of information in response to 3 discovery and, except as expressly provided, shall not relieve any party of the 4 obligation of producing information in the course of discovery.

5 20. A nonparty producing information or material voluntarily or pursuant 6 to a subpoena or a court order may designate such material or information as 7 CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY, pursuant to the terms of this 8 Protective Order. Any party seeking to challenge the designation of non-party 9 information as CONFIDENTIAL or ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY or who is 10 seeking to use such information in proceedings where it may become a part of the 11 public record, shall follow the procedures set forth above and provide notice to the 12 non-party in sufficient time to allow the non-party to appear and seek continued 13 protection of its information as designated.

14 20. Upon termination or settlement of these proceedings, including all 15 appeals, each party shall either: (a) return to the Producing Party all 16 "CONFIDENTIAL" and "ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" materials produced in 17 discovery, including all copies, summaries, or abstracts not containing attorney 18 work product or information covered by the attorney-client privilege; or (b) destroy, 19 and certify such destruction in writing to the other party or to third parties, as the 20 case may be, all "CONFIDENTIAL" and "ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" materials 21 produced in discovery, including all copies, summaries, or abstracts not containing 22 attorney work product or information covered by the attorney-client privilege; 23 provided, however, that each party's counsel may keep one paper archival copy and 24 one electronic archival copy of all pleadings, discovery responses, and produced
