On October 6, 2014, the Court ordered Defendant to deliver unredacted copies of the documents in this case for in camera review. On October 17, 2014, Defendant submitted the documents to the Court. The Court has reviewed the documents and has found good cause to order the release of some, but not all, of the redacted information. The Court has therefore marked up the documents to indicate the portions to be released as follows:

- Pro Formas: The "Pro Forma" spreadsheet documents were properly withheld in their entirety and do not need to be released.

1 • Modified Scope Plans: Where the Court has highlighted text in 2 green, the Court agrees with the Army's redactions, and the 3 redaction stands. Large paragraphs, tables, and charts may be 4 crossed through with a green "X"—this indicates that the 5 redaction is correct in its entirety and no change need be 6 made.

7 • Any previously redacted text which is not highlighted in green
8 must be released.

9 Defendant shall pick up the documents from Judge Pregerson's 10 judicial assistant on Wednesday, November 12, 2014, between the 11 hours of 9:30 a.m. and 3:30 pm. No later than December 12, 2014,
12 Defendant shall create new redacted versions of the Modified Scope 13 Plan documents in conformity with the Court's instructions and 14 release them to Plaintiff. Defendant shall also provide two copies 15 of the newly redacted versions to the Court.
