1 I. INTRODUCTION

2 Plaintiff U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the “EEOC” or 3 “Commission”) and Defendant VXI Global Solutions, LLC previously VXI Global Solutions, 4 Inc. (hereinafter “Defendant”) hereby stipulate and agree to entry of this Consent Decree to 5 resolve the Commission’s Complaint, filed under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as 6 amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq. (“Title VII”). The EEOC alleges Defendant engaged in 7 unlawful employment practices by subjecting Charging Parties and other similarly situated 8 individuals to a sexually hostile work environment and/or retaliation in violation of §§703(a) and 9 704(a) of Title VII, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-2(a), 2000e-3(a).

10 II. PURPOSES AND SCOPE OF THE CONSENT DECREE

11 A. In the interest of resolving this matter, the Commission and Defendant 12 (hereinafter “the Parties”) have agreed that this action should be finally settled by entry of this 13 Consent Decree (“Decree”). This Decree shall be binding on and enforceable against Defendant 14 and its officers, directors, agents, successors and assigns. The scope of this Decree is company-15 wide unless otherwise noted. The Parties have entered into this Decree for the following 16 purposes:

- 17 1. To provide appropriate monetary and injunctive relief;
 - 18 2. To ensure that Defendant’s employment practices comply with Title VII;
 - 19 3. To ensure a work environment free from sex harassment and retaliation;
 - 20 4. To ensure training for Defendant’s managers, supervisors, human resource and 21 other employees with respect to their obligations and rights under Title VII;
 - 22 5. To review and update Defendant’s procedures for handling harassment and 23 retaliation complaints;
 - 24 6. To provide an appropriate and effective mechanism for receiving and handling 25 discrimination, harassment and retaliation complaints in the workplace; and
 - 26 7. To avoid the time, expense, and uncertainty of further litigation.
- 27

1 C. This Decree conforms to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Title VII and 2 does not derogate the rights or privileges of any person.

3 D. Entry of this Decree will further the objectives of Title VII and will be in the best 4 interest of the Parties.

5 E. The Court shall retain jurisdiction over this Action for the duration of the Decree 6 for the purposes of entering all orders, judgments and decrees that may be necessary to fully 7 implement the relief provided herein.

8 V. EFFECTIVE DATE AND DURATION OF DECREE

9 A. The provisions and agreements contained herein are effective immediately on the 10 date which this Decree is entered by the Court (“Effective Date”).

11 B. Except as otherwise provided herein, this Decree shall remain in effect for four 12 (4) years after the Effective Date.

13 C. The Decree will otherwise expire on its own terms four years after the Effective 14 Date, unless the EEOC motions the Court for an extension as provided in Section VI below and 15 the Court grants the extension.

16 VI. COMPLIANCE AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

17 A. If the Commission has reason to believe that Defendant has in any way failed to 18 comply with any provision of this Decree, the Commission may bring a motion before this Court 19 to enforce the Decree. Before filing such a motion, however, the Commission shall notify 20 Defendant and its legal counsel of record, in writing, of the nature of the dispute. This notice 21 shall specify the particular provision(s) with which the Commission believes Defendant has 22 failed to comply and identify how it has failed to comply. Absent a showing that the delay will 23 cause irreparable harm, Defendant shall have thirty (30) days from the date of notice (“Dispute 24 Resolution Period”) to attempt to resolve or cure the alleged breach.

25 B. The Parties agree to cooperate with each other and use their best efforts to resolve 26 any dispute raised by the EEOC and to identify and address appropriate remedies, including 27 meetings or discussions between the EEOC, Defendant, and the Equal Employment Opportunity 28

1 Consultant, if necessary.

2 C. After the Dispute Resolution Period has passed with no resolution or agreement to 3 extend the time further, the Commission may petition the Court for resolution of the dispute 4 seeking all available relief, including an extension of the duration of the Decree.

5 VII. MODIFICATION AND SEVERABILITY

6 A. This Decree constitutes the complete understanding of the Parties with respect to 7 the matters expressly contained herein. No waiver, modification or amendment of any provision 8 of this Decree will be effective unless made in writing and signed by an authorized 9 representative of each Party and approved by the Court.

10 B. If one or more provisions of this Decree are rendered unlawful or unenforceable, 11 the Parties shall make good faith efforts to agree upon the appropriate amendments to this 12 Decree necessary to effectuate its purposes. If the Parties are unable to reach agreement, the 13 Court shall order the appropriate alternative provisions necessary in the interests of justice and 14 fairness to effectuate the purposes of the Decree. Should one or more provisions of this Decree 15 be deemed unlawful, all other provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

16 VIII. MONETARY RELIEF

17 A. In settlement of this lawsuit, Defendant shall pay a total of $600,000.00 in 18 monetary relief established in a Settlement Fund to which the EEOC shall have sole discretion as 19 to the distribution. Defendant shall pay $600,000.00 to the Settlement Fund within ten (10) days 20 after the Effective Date, or by July 31, 2015, which ever date occurs later.

21 B. Following Court approval of this Consent Decree, the monies in the Settlement 22 Fund shall be distributed, at the sole discretion of the EEOC, amongst the nine (9) Charging 23 Parties and the Claimants in this Action. The EEOC shall provide Defendant with a Distribution 24 List identifying each Charging Party and the Claimant's portion and amount of monetary relief, 25 and the name and address to which each Charging Party and the Claimants' portion and amount 26 of monetary relief shall be delivered. Defendant shall send a check, via certified mail, to each 27 Charging Party and Claimant in the amount specified within five (5) business days of the 28

1 Distribution List.

2 C. If any of the checks are returned to Defendant as undeliverable, Defendant shall 3 immediately notify the EEOC and cooperate with the EEOC to make sure the checks are reissued 4 to the Charging Parties and/or the Claimants as soon as possible.

5 D. The EEOC has designated the monies to be paid to the nine (9) Charging Parties 6 and the Claimants as non-wage compensation under Title VII and no tax withholding shall be 7 made. Defendant shall prepare and distribute 1099 tax reporting forms to each Charging Party 8 and Claimant and shall make appropriate reports to the Internal Revenue Service and other tax 9 authorities. Defendant shall be solely responsible for any costs associated with the issuance and 10 distribution of a 1099 tax reporting form to the Charging Parties and Claimants. The Charging 11 Parties and the Claimants shall be solely responsible for taxes payable, if any, on their respective 12 portion of the settlement proceeds. Neither the EEOC nor Defendants make any representation 13 to the Charging Parties and the Claimants, or assume any responsibility for any tax liability, 14 assessments, interest, penalties, and/or costs that the Charging Parties and the Claimants may 15 incur on such payments under local, state and/or federal law.

16 E. Within five (5) business days of the issuance of each settlement check and any 17 1099 form, Defendant shall provide a copy of each check and related correspondence to the 18 Regional Attorney, Anna Y. Park, U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, 255 East 19 Temple Street, 4th Floor, Los Angeles, CA 90012.

20 F. To the extent for any reason any portion of the Settlement Fund cannot be 21 distributed, then any undistributed portion of the Settlement Fund may be retained by Defendant 22 for the purposes of providing additional training or used for additional efforts towards 23 compliance of this Decree.

24 IX. CLAIMANT SPECIFIC INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

25 Within thirty (30) days of the Effective Date of this Decree, Defendant shall:

26 A. remove from the personnel files of each Charging Party and/or Claimant any 27 references to the charges of harassment or discrimination filed against Defendant or the Charging 28

1 Party and/or Claimant's participation in this Action;

2 B. to the extent that Defendant maintains records of the charges of harassment or 3 discrimination, or any Charging Party or Claimant's involvement in the Action, such records 4 must be maintained separately from the Charging Party and/or Claimants' personnel files;

5 C. provide a neutral employment reference, which is limited to verifying whether the 6 Charging Party or Claimant was employed by Defendant, the last position in which the Charging 7 Party or Claimant was employed, the duration of employment with Defendant, and confirmation 8 of salary or wages if requested; and 9 D. to the extent that a Charging Party and/or Claimant continues to work for 10 Defendant, take reasonable steps to ensure that the Charging Party and/or the Claimant does not 11 suffer discrimination, harassment, or retaliation.

12 X. GENERAL INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

13 A. Non-Discrimination and Non-Retaliation

14 1. Non-Discrimination (Harassment)

15 Defendant, its directors, officers, agents, management (including all supervisory 16 employees), successors, assigns, and all those acting in concert or participation with them, or any 17 of them, shall be enjoined during the duration of the Decree from:

18 (a) discriminating against any employee in violation of Title VII on the basis of sex, 19 including sexual harassment;

20 (b) engaging in or being a party to any action, policy or practice that is intended or is 21 known to them to have the effect of discriminating against any employee in 22 violation of Title VII on the basis of sex, including sexual harassment; or 23 (c) creating, facilitating, or permitting a hostile work environment in violation of 24 Title VII on the basis of sex.

25 2. Non-Retaliation

26 Defendant, its directors, officers, agents, management (including all supervisory 27 employees), successors, assigns, and all those acting in concert or participation with them, or any 28

1 of them, shall be enjoined from engaging in, implementing, or permitting any action, policy or 2 practice that constitutes retaliation in violation of Title VII against any current or former 3 employee or applicant because he or she has in the past or during the term of this Decree:

- 4 (1) opposed any practice that he or she believed to be discriminatory, harassing or 5 retaliatory in violation of Title VII;
- 6 (2) filed a charge with the EEOC alleging such a practice;
- 7 (3) testified or participated in any manner in any investigation (including any internal 8 investigation undertaken by Defendant), any proceeding in connection with this 9 Action, and/or relating to any claim of a Title VII violation;
- 10 (4) was identified as a possible witness or claimant in this Action;
- 11 (5) asserted any rights under this Decree; or
- 12 (6) sought and/or received any relief in accordance with this Decree.

13 B. Posting

14 Within ten (10) business days after the Effective Date and throughout the term of this 15 Decree, Defendant shall post a notice (attached as “Exhibit A”) of the terms of this Decree in a 16 clearly visible location frequented by its employees at Defendant’s Los Angeles facility. The 17 postings shall remain posted for the duration of this Decree.

18 C. Equal Employment Opportunity Consultant

19 Within thirty (30) days after the Effective Date, Defendant shall retain an Equal 20 Employment Opportunity Consultant (“Consultant”) mutually acceptable to the Parties to 21 monitor Defendant’s compliance with Title VII and this Decree. The Consultant shall have 22 demonstrated experience in the area of employment discrimination and sexual harassment issues.
23 Defendant is to choose a Consultant from the list of suggested Consultant candidates acceptable 24 to the EEOC as previously provided to Defendant by the Commission. If the parties cannot 25 agree to a Consultant, the parties will be required to file a motion for the magistrate judge to 26 select the Consultant. Defendant shall bear all costs associated with the selection and retention 27 of the Consultant and the performance of the Consultant’s duties. For the term of the Decree, the 28

1 Consultant's responsibilities shall include:

2 1. Ensuring that Defendant's policies and procedures, including its complaint 3 procedures relating to harassment, discrimination and retaliation, fully comply with Title VII and 4 all requirements set forth in this Decree;

5 2. Ensuring that all employees, including management, supervisory, and human 6 resources employees, are trained regarding their rights and responsibilities under Title VII and 7 this Decree, including the responsibility to provide a workplace free of sexual harassment and 8 retaliation;

9 3. Ensuring that all employees, including management, supervisory, and human 10 resources employees, are trained on Defendant's applicable policies and procedures relating to 11 sexual harassment and retaliation, including Defendant's internal complaint procedures;

12 4. Ensuring all applicable human resource employees have the skill level to 13 effectuate the requirements of Title VII and of the Decree.

14 5. Monitoring investigations of any complaint of sexual harassment or retaliation 15 made to Defendant during the term of this Decree to ensure compliance with Title VII and this 16 Decree, and ensuring that Defendant properly communicates with complainants as required by 17 this Decree;

18 6. Ensuring that Defendant creates a centralized system of tracking sexual 19 harassment and retaliation complaints, as required by this Decree;

20 7. Review complaints of sexual harassment or retaliation made to Defendant's toll-21 free complaint hotline to ensure that Defendant is acting appropriately in following through with 22 complaints of sexual harassment and/or retaliation.

23 8. Ensuring that Defendant's performance and discipline policies hold employees 24 and managers accountable for, as applicable, failing to take appropriate action regarding 25 complaints of discrimination, harassment or retaliation, or for engaging in conduct prohibited 26 under Title VII or this Decree;

27 9. Conducting surveys as described below in Section X.D.;

1 10. Ensuring that Defendant accurately compiles and timely submits all reports 2 required by this Decree;

3 11. Monitoring the Charging Parties and/or the Claimants who participated in this 4 lawsuit and who continue to be employed by Defendant to ensure that they have not been 5 subjected to any retaliation and/or harassment. The Consultant shall contact these individuals 6 every six (6) months;

7 12. Ensuring that Defendant's Human Resources has an open door policy, and is 8 easily accessible to the employees; and 9 13. Ensuring Defendant's full compliance with the spirit and terms of this Decree.

10 D. EEO Compliance Surveys

11 1. The Consultant shall prepare a survey to be distributed to a random sampling of 12 employees located at Defendant's Texas and Ohio locations (approximately 10%) and 13 California/Los Angeles location (approximately 5%) or as otherwise determined necessary by 14 the Consultant. The survey shall be distributed after the final policies and complaint procedures 15 (as described below) are distributed to the employees and after the initial training at those 16 locations to ensure that the policies and procedures have been received by the employees and to 17 ensure compliance with the anti-harassment and anti-retaliation policies and procedures unless 18 the Consultant deems appropriate another time frame. The survey shall instruct the employees to 19 return their responses directly to the Consultant in a pre-addressed stamped envelope to be 20 provided with the survey. The Consultant will work with Defendant's legal counsel to help 21 develop and prepare the survey.

22 2. Any survey responses that identify recent sexual harassment or retaliation issues 23 shall be promptly investigated by Defendant upon notification by the Consultant, and will require 24 prompt and effective remedial action.

25 3. To the extent the survey identifies any particular area or location where there are 26 multiple problems of sexual harassment and/or retaliation reported, the Consultant may identify 27 that Defendant provide additional training and/or determine to issue additional surveys at that 28

1 location.

2 4. The results of the survey shall be evaluated by the Consultant and a summary of 3 the results shall be submitted to the EEOC by the Consultant as part of the report as set forth 4 below.

5 E. Policies Concerning Discrimination, Harassment and Retaliation

6 1. Within sixty (60) days after the Effective Date, Defendant shall review and as 7 necessary revise its policies and procedures on discrimination, harassment and retaliation (“final 8 policy”) as described below.

9 2. The final policy shall include:

10 (a) a clear explanation of prohibited conduct in violation of Title VII, 11 including on the basis of sex, including examples;

12 (b) a complete copy of the final internal complaint procedure described below 13 in sub-section F.

14 3. The final policy shall also include assurance that Defendant shall:

15 (a) hold all employees, including management, supervisory, lead and human 16 resources employees, accountable for engaging in conduct prohibited under Title VII or this 17 Decree; and

18 (b) hold all management, supervisory, and human resources employees 19 accountable for failing to take appropriate corrective action to prevent discrimination, 20 harassment, or retaliation under Title VII or this Decree.

21 F. Complaint Procedure

22 1. Within sixty (60) days after the Effective Date, Defendant shall review and as 23 necessary revise its complaint procedure as described below.

24 2. The internal complaint procedure shall clearly state that:

25 (a) any employee who believes that he or she has suffered discrimination, 26 harassment or retaliation may file an internal complaint using Defendant’s internal complaint 27 procedure, or may file an external complaint to any appropriate agency, or both;

1 (b) employees may initiate an internal complaint verbally or in writing to any 2 appropriate person, and that no special form is required to initiate the complaint;

3 (c) Defendant shall not tolerate retaliation against any employee for use of the 4 internal complaint procedure or any external complaint procedure, for assisting in the 5 investigation of a complaint or for otherwise assisting in a complaint;

6 (d) the internal complaint procedure does not replace the right of any 7 employee to file a charge or complaint of discrimination, harassment or retaliation under any 8 available municipal, state, or federal law, and will provide contact information for EEOC and 9 applicable state Fair Employment Practice (FEP) agencies; and 10 (e) if an allegation of discrimination, harassment or retaliation against any 11 employee is substantiated, then such conduct will result in appropriate discipline, up to and 12 including discharge.

13 3. The internal complaint procedure shall ensure that Defendant will:

14 (a) maintain the confidentiality of the complaint, complainant and the 15 investigation to the extent reasonably practicable and consistent with Defendant's obligation to 16 investigate the complaint;

17 (b) take reasonable steps to promptly resolve complaints;

18 (c) promptly commence a thorough investigation that shall be conducted by a 19 person trained to conduct such investigations who is not accused of misconduct in the complaint;

20 (d) interview the relevant witnesses, including the complainant, and review all 21 relevant documents (the investigation may include a request that the relevant witnesses, 22 including the complainant, either provide a written statement to the investigator or review and 23 acknowledge a written statement prepared by the investigator;

24 (e) communicate with the complainant in writing regarding the results of the 25 investigation and any remedial action taken; and 26 (f) track investigations and maintain written records of the findings or 27 conclusions of the investigation and any remedial actions taken;

1 4. The internal complaint procedure shall also provide an appeal procedure to an 2 appropriate Defendant representative, should the complainant be dissatisfied with the results of 3 an internal investigation.

- 4 5. The internal complaint procedure shall NOT require that the complainant:
- 5 (a) confront his or her harasser;
 - 6 (b) file an internal complaint instead of an external complaint; or
 - 7 (c) initiate the complaint process only by submitting a written complaint.

8 6. Defendant shall confidentially follow-up with every complainant after the 9 investigation as reasonable under the circumstances to inquire whether the complainant believes 10 that he or she has been further harassed and/or retaliated against, and, if necessary, Defendant 11 shall investigate any allegations of retaliation. Defendant shall track the information obtained 12 during the follow-up inquiries pursuant to the Record-keeping and Reporting requirements in this 13 Decree.

14 7. Defendant shall establish and/or maintain a toll-free complaint hotline (“Hotline”) 15 and disseminate the information regarding the Hotline to all of Defendant’s employees.
16 Defendant shall inform all employees that a complaint can be lodged at any time with the toll-17 free complaint Hotline. All complaints of sexual harassment or retaliation to the Hotline shall be 18 tracked by Defendant during the term of the Decree, and the Consultant shall have access to all 19 such tracking records or call logs. Defendant shall also publicize the EEOC’s general toll-free 20 number of (800) 669-4000. The Consultant shall review complaints of sexual harassment or 21 retaliation made to Defendant’s toll-free complaint hotline to ensure that Defendant is acting 22 appropriately in following through with complaints of sexual harassment and/or retaliation.

23 8. Defendant’s Human Resources shall have an open door policy, and shall be easily 24 accessible to the employees. Human Resources’ representatives shall be available to receive 25 complaints from the employees during normal business working hours with or without 26 appointments.

27 9. Defendant shall provide the Consultant with the tracking records of all complaints 28

1 of sexual harassment and retaliation filed under the revised internal complaint procedures and the 2 Consultant will retain records regarding such investigations and resolution of all such 3 complaints, including but not limited to those complaints made through the Hotline. The 4 Consultant shall also ensure that Defendant publicizes the revised internal complaint procedures, 5 including the Hotline, and shall monitor Defendant's investigation and resolution of any 6 complaints of sexual harassment and retaliation made to Defendant.

7 G. Finalizing and Distribution of Final Policy and Complaint Procedure

8 1. Within seventy-five (75) days after the Effective Date, Defendant shall provide 9 the Commission with a copy of the above described final policies, including the revised internal 10 complaint procedure described above in sub-section F.

11 5. Upon receipt, the EEOC shall have thirty (30) days to review and/or comment on 12 the the revised policies, including the revised internal complaint procedures described above in 13 sub-section F.

14 6. If the EEOC does not provide comment within thirty (30) days of receiving the 15 revised policies, Defendant shall distribute the final policies, including the revised internal 16 complaint procedure described above in sub-section F, companywide to all employees, including 17 management, supervisory, and human resources employees. Defendant shall have each 18 employee who receives a copy of the final policies sign a form acknowledging receipt, which 19 may include receipt via electronic acknowledgment.

20 7. Throughout the term of this Decree, Defendant shall post the final policies, 21 including the revised internal complaint procedures described above in sub-section F, 22 companywide in a clearly visible location frequented by employees.

23 H. Training

24 1. All non-management employees shall be required to attend a live training 25 program, which may include a live video conference with an interactive component, regarding 26 discrimination, harassment, and retaliation. The training under this section shall include review 27 of every employee's rights and responsibilities under Title VII, especially with respect to sexual 28

1 harassment, and Defendant's final policies and procedures for reporting and handling complaints
2 of harassment, discrimination, and retaliation. Examples shall be given of the prohibited conduct 3 to ensure understanding by the employees. All trainings shall be designed for an appropriate 4 duration to effectively teach adult learners and shall include time for questions and answers.

5 2. The non-management employees training stated in subsection H.1. shall be 6 companywide in California/Los Angeles, Ohio, and Texas, and shall be mandatory and shall occur 7 once every eighteen (18) months for the term of this Decree for non-management employees.
8 The first training session in California/Los Angeles shall be conducted with the assistance of the 9 Consultant and shall occur within ten (10) business days after EEOC's comments on the training 10 curriculum, as described in sub-section 10 below, or after ninety (90) days from the Effective 11 Date, whichever is later, and shall be scheduled as reasonably practicable to complete the 12 required training for all employees. Any employee who fails to attend a scheduled training 13 session shall be trained within (30) days of the live training set forth above, by showing the 14 employee a videotape of the training session or attending a different training session. The 15 Consultant shall monitor at least one of the training sessions in Ohio and monitor at least one of 16 the training sessions in Texas via video conference in order to ensure compliance with the 17 training. If additional monitoring is needed, the Consultant shall inform the Defendant.

18 3. Every managerial and supervisory employee shall be required to attend a 19 Management Training consisting of a live training program, which may include a live video 20 conference with an interactive component, regarding discrimination, harassment, and retaliation.
21 The Management Trainings shall be mandatory, and of at least two hours duration once every 22 two (2) years for the term of this Decree. The Management Trainings shall be conducted 23 companywide in California/Los Angeles, Ohio, and Texas. The first Management Training 24 session in California/Los Angeles shall be conducted with the assistance of the Consultant and 25 shall occur within ten (10) business days after EEOC's comments on the training curriculum, as 26 described in sub-section 10 below, or after ninety (90) days from the Effective Date, whichever 27 is later, and shall be scheduled as reasonably practicable to complete the required Management 28

1 Training for all such employees. Any management employee who fails to attend any scheduled 2 Management Training shall be trained within (30) days of the live Management Training set 3 forth above. The Consultant shall monitor at least one of the training sessions in Ohio 4 and monitor at least one of the training sessions in Texas via video conference in order to ensure 5 compliance with the training. If additional monitoring is needed, the Consultant shall inform the 6 Defendant.

7 4. The Management Training stated in subsection H.3. shall include training on how 8 to properly handle and investigate complaints of discrimination, harassment and retaliation in a 9 fair and neutral manner; how to take preventive and corrective measures against discrimination, 10 harassment, and retaliation; and how to recognize and stop discrimination, harassment, and 11 retaliation.

12 5. All Human Resources employees shall receive advanced Human Resources 13 training (“HR Training”) on investigating complaints of discrimination, harassment, and 14 retaliation; how to take preventative and corrective measures against discrimination, harassment, 15 and retaliation; and how to recognize and stop harassment, discrimination, and retaliation. This 16 HR Training shall be companywide in California/Los Angeles, Ohio, and Texas and shall be 17 provided by the Consultant and/or through an outside provider approved by the EEOC. This HR 18 training shall occur once every year for the term of this Decree and may be conducted live and/or 19 via video conference with an interactive component.

20 6. Within five (5) days of the date of hire, for the remainder of the term of this 21 Decree, every new employee, including non-managerial, managerial, supervisory, lead, and 22 human resources employees, shall receive the Defendant’s policies and procedures on 23 discrimination, harassment and retaliation, including the internal complaint procedures, which 24 shall be explained to the new hire employee by a Human Resources employee.

25 7. Within six (6) months of the date of promotion, for the remainder of the term of 26 this Decree, every employee promoted from a staff position to a managerial, supervisory or 27 human resources position shall receive the above described Management or HR Training.
28

1 XII. REPORTING

2 In addition to the notice and reporting requirements above, Defendant shall provide, the 3 following reports to the EEOC in writing, by mail or e-mail:

4 A. Within ninety (90) days after the Effective Date, Defendant shall submit to EEOC 5 an initial report containing:

6 1. a copy of the final anti-discrimination, anti-harassment and anti-retaliation 7 policies, including the final complaint procedures;

8 2. a summary of the procedures and record-keeping methods developed with 9 the Consultant for centralized tracking of discrimination, harassment and retaliation complaints 10 and the monitoring of such complaints;

11 3. a statement confirming that the required Notice pertaining to this Decree 12 and the final revised anti-discrimination, anti-harassment and anti-retaliation policy have been 13 posted;

14 4. a statement confirming that Defendant has complied with Section IX.
15 “Claimant Specific Injunctive Relief;” and 16 5. confirmation from the Consultant that Defendant is in compliance with the 17 Decree based on Consultant’s knowledge from the work performed by Consultant as of the time 18 of the report, including a report on the summary of results from the survey(s).

19 B. Defendant shall also provide the following reports semi-annually throughout the 20 term of this Decree:

21 1. a statement confirming the specific training completed to date;

22 2. an attendance list for all training sessions required under this Decree that
