18 2. Scope.

19 (a) The protection of this Stipulated Agreement may be invoked and 20 shall be applied on a narrowly-tailored basis to protect only documents, materials, 21 items, or information that contain, reflect, or incorporate information that is 22 lawfully entitled to confidential treatment under existing California or Federal law 23 (hereinafter "Confidential Information"), including but not limited to trade secrets 24 defined by California Civil Code § 3426.1(d), financial information, personal 25 information, customer information, information submitted to a governmental office 26 but subject to a public policy of confidentiality, or other highly sensitive research, 27 development, production, commercial or business information.

1 (b) Confidential Information produced by any party or nonparty as part of 2 discovery in this litigation may be designated by such party or nonparty as: (a) 3 “Confidential”; or (b) “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” only under the 4 terms of this Stipulated Agreement. Blanket-designation of documents or 5 information as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” en 6 masse and/or without regard to the specific contents of each document or piece of 7 information, is prohibited. Upon request, a producing party or nonparty shall 8 produce, if possible, a redacted, public version of a document that has been 9 designated as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only.”

10 (c) As a general guideline, information or materials designated as 11 “Confidential” shall be any information or materials that the producing party 12 reasonably believes constitute or include proprietary business or financial 13 information, or personal information or information furnished to it in confidence by 14 any third party, which information is not known or freely accessible to the general 15 public, and is entitled to protection as provided herein consistent with applicable 16 law.

17 (d) As a further general guideline, information or materials designated as 18 “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” shall be any information or materials 19 that a producing party reasonably and in good faith believes constitute trade secrets 20 or other highly sensitive research, development, production, commercial, or 21 business information (including but not limited to proprietary information, 22 contracts, bids, partner or end-user information, corporate planning documents, 23 strategic planning documents, documents that reveal market or customer analyses, 24 competitive strategy, pricing, research and development documents, financial 25 statements, and other financial or budgetary documents) that might reasonably be of 26 value to the party requesting the document and might reasonably pose a commercial 27 disadvantage to the producing party if disclosed to the party requesting the 28 document, and that is entitled to protection as provided herein consistent with

1 applicable law. Absent a specific order by the Court, once designated as “Highly 2 Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only,” such designated information shall be used by 3 the Parties solely in connection with this litigation, and not for any business, 4 competitive, or governmental purpose or function, and such information shall not 5 be disclosed to anyone except as provided herein.

6 (e) Any person designating documents, testimony, or other information as 7 “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” asserts that he 8 believes in good faith that such material, including but not limited to any 9 documents, deposition testimony, written responses to discovery, or other 10 information or materials produced or disclosed during discovery or trial in this case, 11 as well as all pleadings, testimony, exhibits or any other materials, including but not 12 limited to copies, summaries or abstracts of such materials, contains or discloses 13 intellectual property, trade secrets, confidential or proprietary technical, financial or 14 business information, or any other commercially sensitive information that should 15 not be disclosed to anyone except the Parties, their counsel in this litigation 16 (including in-house counsel as described below), and their experts.

17 (f) Documents, testimony, or other information that is lawfully obtained 18 or obtainable from publicly available sources may not be designated as 19 “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only”.

20 3. Designation of Documents and Depositions.

21 (a) Documents.

22 (i) Designation of a document or group of documents produced by 23 any party or third party as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ 24 Eyes Only” shall be made by conspicuously stamping “Confidential” or “Highly 25 Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” on the document(s) or group(s) of documents 26 at or before the time of production.

27 (ii) Any third party to this action that produces documents or 28 provides testimony in this action, either voluntarily or by compulsory process, may 1 designate any Confidential Information produced by that third party as 2 “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” pursuant to this 3 Stipulated Agreement to the same extent the Parties may so designate.

4 Furthermore, and notwithstanding the requirements of Paragraph 2(a)(i), all 5 documents produced by a third party shall be treated as “Highly Confidential – 6 Attorneys’ Eyes Only” for a period of thirty (30) days following the date of their 7 production.

8 (iii) At any time during the thirty (30) day period after which a third 9 party has produced documents, any party to the action may designate any of said 10 documents as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” 11 pursuant to the provisions of the Stipulated Agreement. The party designating any 12 third-party document as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes 13 Only” shall provide written notice of the designation to all parties to the action and 14 to the party that produced said document.

15 (b) Deposition testimony.

16 (i) Designation of a deposition or other pretrial testimony, or 17 portions thereof, as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes 18 Only” shall be made by a statement on the record by counsel for the party or any 19 third party making the claim of confidentiality at the time of such testimony. The 20 portions of depositions so designated as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential – 21 Attorneys’ Eyes Only” shall be taken only in the presence of persons qualified to 22 receive such information pursuant to the terms of this Stipulated Agreement: the 23 Parties, the Parties’ experts, the court reporter, the deponent, and the deponent’s 24 attorney. Portions of such deposition transcripts shall be clearly marked as 25 “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” on the cover or on 26 each page, as appropriate.

27 (ii) Any party or third party may designate portions of depositions 28 taken as containing Confidential Information even if not initially marked as

1 “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” by informing 2 counsel for each other party in writing within thirty (30) days of the receipt of the 3 deposition transcript (the “Confidentiality Designation Period”) that it seeks to 4 designate “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only.” Until 5 such time as the Confidentiality Designation Period has elapsed, neither party shall 6 disclose or use such transcripts or the information contained therein, without 7 treating such information as “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only.” 8 Thereafter each such document or transcript shall be treated in accordance with the 9 terms of this Stipulated Agreement. Any person who receives actual notice of any 10 designation of previously produced documents or deposition transcripts as 11 containing Confidential Information shall treat the information as if it had been 12 designated as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” at 13 the time he first received it and shall mark all copies in his possession accordingly.
14

15 (c) Written Discovery Responses.

16 (i) In the case of information produced or incorporated in the form 17 of answers to interrogatories, requests for admission, or other written discovery 18 responses, the appropriate confidentiality designation shall be placed in front of the 19 specific answer or response being designated, or on the caption page and also on 20 each page if all of the answers or responses to a particular set of discovery requests 21 are so designated.

22 4. Limitation on Disclosure of Confidential Information.

23 (a) Information or material designated as “Confidential,” or copies or 24 extracts therefrom and compilations and summaries thereof, may be disclosed, 25 summarized, described, characterized, or otherwise communicated or made 26 available in whole or in part only to the following persons:
27
28

1 (i) Parties' outside counsel in this action and regular and temporary 2 employees of such counsel to whom it is necessary the information or material be 3 shown for the purposes of this litigation;

4 (ii) any person who is listed on the designated document as an 5 author or recipient;

6 (iii) with respect to (a) documents where the author or recipient is an 7 entity and (b) documents that are executed or authorized by an entity, any employee 8 or representative of that entity who was involved in the drafting, negotiation, 9 review, or execution of the document;

10 (iv) outside experts, advisors, and consultants (including their 11 employees and support staff) retained by counsel of record in this litigation, 12 provided that such experts, advisors, or consultants shall not be employees of a 13 party or otherwise working for or on behalf of a party in connection with that 14 party's business. Outside experts, advisors, and consultants must be retained solely 15 for the purpose of advising and assisting outside counsel or giving expert testimony 16 in this action;

17 (v) the Court, its secretaries, clerks, and law clerks;

18 (vi) deposition and court reporters and their support personnel 19 employed in connection with this action;

20 (vii) graphics or design services retained by counsel for a party for 21 purposes of preparing demonstrative or other exhibits for deposition, trial, or other 22 court proceedings in this action;

23 (viii) non-technical jury or trial consulting services retained by 24 counsel for a party; and

25 (ix) any other person only upon order of the Court or upon prior 26 written consent of the party producing the Confidential Information or material; and

27 (x) Parties and employees of the Parties whose assistance is needed 28 by counsel for the purposes of this litigation.

1 (b) Information or material designated as “Highly Confidential – 2 Attorneys’ Eyes Only,” or copies or extracts therefrom and compilations and 3 summaries thereof, may be disclosed, summarized, described, characterized, or 4 otherwise communicated or made available in whole or in part only to the following 5 persons:

6 (i) all of the persons listed in Paragraph 3(a)(i)-(ix); and 7 (ii) in-house attorneys and legal staff of a party who have reason to 8 view designated documents or groups of documents.

9 (c) Before any person described in paragraphs 3(a) (iv), (vii), (viii), (ix) or 10 3(b) (ii) receives or is shown any document or information that has been designated 11 “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only,” such person shall 12 be given a copy of this Stipulated Agreement and agree in writing, in the form of 13 the Acknowledgement and Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit A, to be bound by 14 its terms. The original and each Acknowledgement and Agreement shall be 15 maintained by counsel. Any counsel may require another counsel to provide a copy 16 of the Acknowledgement and Agreement signed by a witness at a deposition before 17 the witness is deposed with regard to any Confidential Information.

18 (d) Nothing in this Stipulated Agreement shall prevent a party or nonparty 19 from using or disclosing its own materials that it has designated “Confidential” or 20 “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only.”

21 5. Filing Under Seal.

22 ~~Any papers sought to be filed with the Court that contain or reveal~~ 23 Confidential Information and designated as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential 24 – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” shall be filed under seal in accordance with the rules of the 25 Court to preserve the Confidential Information therein. If a party wishes to include 26 Confidential Material in any papers to be filed with the Court, such papers shall be 27 accompanied by an application to file the papers—or the confidential portion 28 thereof—under seal. Such application must show good cause for filing under seal,

1 and shall be directed to the judge to whom the papers are directed. Pending the 2 ruling on the application, the papers or portions thereof subject to the sealing 3 application shall be lodged under seal.

4 6. Challenge to Confidentiality Designation.

5 Where any party or third party disagrees with the confidentiality 6 designation of a document or other material, that party has the right to challenge 7 such a designation by written objection. Objections to the confidentiality 8 designation of any document or material shall be served on all Parties, and if the 9 document was produced by a third party, shall be served on the party that produced 10 the document. Any disputes concerning the designation of a document or other 11 material as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” shall 12 be governed by Local Rule 37, and must occur within the discovery period 13 established by the Court. If the parties to a dispute covered by this paragraph wish 14 to file the Joint Stipulation required by Local Rule 37 under seal, the parties may 15 file a stipulation to that effect, or the moving party may file an ex parte application 16 making the appropriate request. The parties must set forth good cause in the 17 stipulation or ex parte application as to why the Joint Stipulation or portions thereof 18 should be filed under seal. The party or third party asserting confidentiality of 19 documents or other information designated as “Confidential” or “Highly 20 Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only” shall ultimately bear the burden of 21 demonstrating the need for the designation. Pending resolution of any dispute, all 22 documents and information designated as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential – 23 Attorneys’ Eyes Only” shall be protected as such under this Stipulated Agreement.

24 7. Survival of Stipulated Agreement – Return of Documents.

25 (a) This Stipulated Agreement shall continue in effect until otherwise 26 ordered by the Court. Where the validity of the Stipulated Agreement is challenged 27 by either party, proper notice and an opportunity to be heard in accordance with the 28 requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure must be afforded to the Parties

1 to this action. The final determination or settlement of this action shall not relieve 2 any person who has received Confidential Information or agreed to be bound by the 3 terms of this Stipulated Agreement of his obligations hereunder. The Court shall 4 retain jurisdiction after such final determination or settlement to enforce this 5 Stipulated Agreement. Subject to Paragraph 5 above, upon completion of the 6 litigation, all Confidential Information as defined in Paragraph 1(b) above, whether 7 originals or copies, shall be destroyed or returned to counsel for the producing 8 party, except that documents on which any person has made notations may be 9 destroyed. Within sixty days of the conclusion of this litigation, the attorneys for 10 the receiving party shall provide the attorneys for the producing party a certificate 11 representing that such return or destruction was made.

12 (b) Except as provided in paragraphs 4 or 6, documents or things 13 containing the other party's or any third party's Confidential Information shall at all 14 times be in the physical possession of those persons qualifying under paragraph 3, 15 or kept by counsel of record at the premises regularly maintained by such counsel 16 of record as and for their respective law offices.

17 8. Use of Documents at Trial.

18 This Stipulated Agreement, except as provided in paragraph 4, shall not 19 apply to information designated or marked "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential 20 – Attorneys' Eyes Only" hereunder that is used during trial in this action. Once this 21 action proceeds to trial, all of the court-filed information that is to be introduced 22 and was previously designated as "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential – 23 Attorneys' Eyes Only" and/or kept and maintained pursuant to the terms of this 24 Stipulated Agreement becomes public and will be presumptively available to all 25 members of the public, including the press, unless compelling reasons supported by 26 specific factual findings to proceed otherwise are made to the district judge in 27 advance of the trial. See, e.g., Hagestad v. Tragesser, 49 F.3d 1430, 1434 (9th Cir.
28 1995); San Jose Mercury News, Inc. v. U.S. District Court - Northern District, 187

1 F.3d 1096, 1102 (9th Cir. 1999); Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447 2 F.3d 1172, 1180-81 (9th Cir. 2006) (distinguishing “good cause” showing for 3 sealing documents produced in discovery and attached to non-dispositive motions 4 from “compelling reasons” standard when merits-related documents are part of the 5 judicial record). The Parties hereby reserve their rights to use, or seek to limit the 6 disclosure of, Confidential Information at trial.

7 9. Use of Own Documents by Producing Party.

8 Nothing in this Stipulated Agreement shall limit the use by any party, person 9 or entity of documents or information produced or authored by him or his 10 employer.

11 10. Disclosure of Confidential Information to Third Parties.

12 Nothing in this Stipulated Agreement shall be construed to confer upon any 13 third party the right to access any Confidential Information produced by either party 14 in this action except to the extent that said Confidential Information may be 15 disclosed pursuant to paragraph 3 hereof.

16 11. Applications to Court.

17 (a) This Stipulated Agreement shall not preclude or limit any party’s right 18 to oppose or object to discovery on any ground that would be otherwise available.
19 This Stipulated Agreement shall not preclude or limit any party’s right to seek in 20 camera review or to seek lesser, further and/or additional protection against or 21 limitation upon production or dissemination of information produced in response to 22 discovery, including documents and their contents.

23 (b) Any person to or by whom disclosure or inspection is made in 24 violation of this Stipulated Agreement, and who has knowledge of this Stipulated 25 Agreement, shall be bound by its terms.

26 (c) If any person violates or threatens to violate this Stipulated Agreement, 27 the Parties agree that the aggrieved party may immediately apply to obtain 28 injunctive relief against any such person. All persons subject to this Stipulated

1 Agreement agree that the Court shall retain jurisdiction over them for the purposes 2 of enforcing this Stipulated Agreement, including, but not limited to issuing an 3 injunction, imposing sanctions, or holding any person in contempt of court.

4 (d) If any deponent required by this Stipulated Agreement to execute the 5 written Acknowledgment and Agreement described in paragraph 3(c) refuses to do 6 so, the Parties may complete the deposition on other matters or adjourn it and move 7 the Court for any appropriate relief, including (without limitation) an order that the 8 deponent shall execute the written agreement described in paragraph 3(c), or an 9 order that deponent shall be bound by the terms of this Stipulated Agreement. Any 10 nonparty whose Confidential Information is the subject of such a motion shall be 11 given notice thereof. Alternatively, if any individual deponent refuses to execute 12 the Stipulated Agreement, the Parties shall not disclose any Confidential 13 Information to that individual.

14 12. Agreement to Cooperate.

15 The Parties and their respective attorneys of record agree that, when a party's 16 attorney requests a deponent to sign the written Acknowledgment and Agreement 17 described in paragraph 3(c), the other party's attorney will join in such request, 18 unless that attorney has a good faith basis for refusing to join in such request; 19 provided, however, that this requirement shall not apply with respect to any 20 deponent who is represented at his deposition by an attorney of record for any party 21 hereto (including any member or associate of their respective law firms). An 22 attorney's request to sign an acknowledgment shall not be construed as legal advice 23 to the deponent or a waiver of any position concerning confidentiality, but shall and 24 may be stated to be a request to facilitate discovery.

25 13. No Admissions.

26 Neither entering into this Stipulated Agreement, nor receiving any documents 27 or other information designated as "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential – 28 Attorneys' Eyes Only" shall be construed as an agreement or admission (1) that any

1 document or information designated as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential – 2 Attorneys’ Eyes Only” merits protection as Confidential Information; (2) as to the 3 correctness or truth of any allegation made or position taken relative to any matter 4 designated as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only”; or 5 (3) as to the authenticity, competency, relevance, materiality, or admissibility of 6 any information or document designated as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential 7 – Attorneys’ Eyes Only.”

8 14. Inadvertent Production.

9 The Parties agree that inadvertent production of documents or information 10 subject to any applicable privilege, including but not limited to the attorney-client 11 privilege or work product doctrine, despite reasonable efforts to screen such 12 documents and information prior to production, does not waive such applicable 13 privilege or protection, provided a request for return of such documents or 14 information is made promptly upon learning of such inadvertent production. Once 15 a request for the return of inadvertently produced documents has been made, the 16 receiving party shall, within ten calendar days, return the inadvertently produced 17 materials, and all copies of those materials that may have been made, and any notes 18 regarding those materials shall be destroyed. If a party, through inadvertence, has 19 produced any Confidential Information without labeling or otherwise designating it 20 as such in accordance with terms of this Stipulated Agreement, the producing party 21 may request that the document or information previously produced without such 22 designation be deemed as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes 23 Only” by giving written notice. The receiving party shall treat the documents or 24 information accordingly upon being notified as such. Any disclosure prior to 25 receipt of such notice to persons not authorized under this Stipulated Agreement 26 shall not be considered a violation of this Stipulated Agreement, provided that the 27 disclosing party promptly retrieves such later-designated Confidential Information 28 and notifies the other party in writing of all the persons to whom such disclosure

1 was made and the scope and extent of such disclosure. For purposes of this 2 Stipulated Agreement, inadvertent production refers to circumstances where the 3 producing party took reasonable precautions, but an error was made in the 4 production of the information without the knowledge of the producing party's 5 attorney.

6 15. No Waiver of Privilege or Other Objections.

7 Nothing in this Stipulated Agreement shall require disclosure of material that 8 counsel for a party contends is protected from disclosure by the attorney-client 9 privilege, the attorney work-product immunity doctrine, or any other legal 10 privilege. Moreover, the Parties hereto specifically reserve the right to object to, or 11 to seek a protective order concerning, the disclosure of any Confidential 12 Information. Nothing in this Stipulated Agreement shall be construed as a waiver 13 of the right of any party to object to the taking or the admissibility of any 14 testimony, documents, or other evidence where such objection is based on grounds 15 other than that the testimony, documents or evidence involves Confidential 16 Information. The Parties hereto specifically reserve the right to raise all appropriate 17 objections, such as relevancy, to any request for testimony, documents or other 18 evidence, or the admissibility thereof.

19 16. Disclosure in Violation of Stipulated Agreement.

20 (a) If any Confidential Information is disclosed to any person other than in 21 the manner authorized by this Stipulated Agreement, the party responsible for the 22 disclosure must immediately inform all other Parties of all facts pertinent to the 23 disclosure, and without prejudice to the rights and remedies of the designating 24 party, make every effort to prevent further unauthorized disclosure on its own part 25 or on the part of the recipient of such Confidential Information.

26 (b) If any party receives a subpoena or document request from a 27 government agency or third party in a judicial or administrative proceeding that 28 calls for the production of documents produced by the other party, the receiving

1 party shall promptly inform the producing party in writing of the subpoena or 2 request. A party receiving a subpoena shall not produce responsive documents 3 unless the subpoenaed party has given notice to, and allowed ample opportunity for 4 the other party to seek appropriate relief, as governed by the rules, law, and other 5 legal authority applicable to the subpoena.
