 MATERIALS

 21 Having reviewed and considered the Parties' Stipulation for Protective 22 Order Governing Confidential Information Produced During Discovery, good 23 cause showing therein, IT IS SO ORDERED:

24 1. Plaintiffs. Plaintiffs are OSCAR RAMIREZ, Sr. and LETICIA
 25 MORENO, individually and as successors in interest to Oscar Ramirez, Jr.
 26 (hereinafter "Plaintiffs").

27 2. Defendants. Defendants are County of Los Angeles and Deputy 28 Bryan Moreno (hereinafter "Defendant County" and "Deputy Moreno",

1 respectively; collectively referred to hereinafter as “Defendants”) (Plaintiffs and 2 Defendants are collectively referred to hereinafter as “the Parties”).

3 3. Disclosing Party. Disclosing Party shall refer to Defendant County.

4 4. Receiving Party. The Receiving Parties are the Plaintiffs and their 5 agents as set forth in Paragraph Nos. 17 and 18 of this Protective Order.

6 5. Case Summary. This case arises from Plaintiffs’ allegations that 7 Defendants violated their rights based on the October 27, 2014 incident involving 8 Decedent Oscar Ramirez, Jr. (“Decedent”).

9 6. Good Cause Statement and Confidential Materials. Defendants 10 anticipate that during discovery in this action they will exchange documents, 11 items, or materials and other information that contain sensitive and confidential 12 information that derives actual or potential value from not being generally known 13 to the public and are the subject of reasonable efforts to maintain their 14 confidentiality. Defendants believe, in good faith, that these documents and/or 15 writings are protected by the Official Information Privilege, the right to privacy 16 guaranteed in Federal Constitution, First Amendment and California Constitution, 17 Article I, Section I, and various California Government, Penal, and Evidence 18 Code sections, and thus protected from disclosure. This will be accomplished by 19 affixing to such document or writing a legend, such as “CONFIDENTIAL” or 20 “CONFIDENTIAL – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER” or words of similar 21 effect. Documents and writings so designated, hereinafter, collectively, 22 (“Confidential Information”), shall be treated in accordance with the terms of this 23 stipulation/protective order. Documents, writings and things to be designated as 24 such, include the following:

25 a) Any material relating to or regarding the personnel files and/or 26 records of Deputy Moreno of the Los Angeles County Sheriff’s Department 27 (“LASD”);

28 b) Any material relating to incidents involving Plaintiffs or

1 Decedent containing sensitive and private information regarding third parties;

2 7. Interests In Favor Of Protective Order. This Order is necessary to 3 expedite discovery, while maintaining confidential and private information of 4 Defendants and third parties, and it is necessary to protect parties or persons from 5 annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense. Further, 6 disclosure of such information without a protective order may compromise the 7 safety of Defendants and third parties.

8 8. Stipulation. The Parties are entering into this Stipulation for 9 Protective Order to protect against any improper disclosure or risk of 10 circumvention of law that might result from disclosure of sensitive and 11 confidential information as described in this Order. To informally resolve this 12 discovery matter, the Parties have agreed to this Stipulation for Protective Order 13 that carefully limits the use and dissemination of the Confidential Information.

14 9. Confidential Information. This Protective Order shall apply to all 15 Confidential Information, produced by Disclosing Party to the Receiving Party.
16 The Confidential Information may be contained in originals and copies of 17 relevant interrogatory responses obtained from Disclosing Party in this matter; 18 originals and copies of relevant documents responsive to requests for production 19 of documents obtained from the Disclosing Party in this matter; and originals and 20 copies of transcripts, video recordings, and audio recordings of any deposition 21 taken in this matter during which the Confidential Information is used, 22 mentioned, reviewed, discussed, and/or referred to. The Confidential Information 23 shall be subject to this Protective Order as follows:

24 10. Storage Of Confidential Information. Immediately upon production
25 by the Disclosing Party, attorneys for the Receiving Party shall personally secure 26 and maintain the Confidential Information in their possession. The Confidential 27 Information shall not, under any circumstances, be left in an open or unsecured 28 location where unauthorized persons (such as unauthorized employees of counsel, 1 cleaning personnel, etc.) might have access to them.

2 11. Confidential Information Legend. All documents containing 3 Confidential Information shall be stamped "CONFIDENTIAL" or
5 effect. Such stamp shall not obscure the document.

6 12. Limitation Of Use Of Confidential Information. Attorneys for the 7 Receiving Party shall not cause or knowingly permit disclosure of the contents of 8 the Confidential Information, in any manner, including orally, beyond the 9 disclosure permitted under the terms and conditions of this Order. Any such 10 disclosure shall be construed as a violation of this Order, except when used for 11 purposes of this litigation as described in Paragraph Nos. 15 and 16 of this 12 Protective Order.

13 13. Testimony Regarding The Confidential Information. In the case of 14 depositions, any party may designate all or any portion of the deposition 15 testimony given regarding the Confidential Information in this litigation as 16 Confidential Information orally during the deposition. Any questions intended to 17 elicit testimony regarding the contents of the Confidential Information shall be 18 conducted only in the presence of persons authorized to review the Confidential 19 Information as provided in this Order. Any deposition transcript containing such 20 questions and testimony shall be subject to the same protections and precautions 21 applicable to the Confidential Information.

22 14. Inadvertent Disclosure. If the Disclosing Party inadvertently 23 produces any Confidential Information without designating it as such, it may be 24 remedied by (1) promptly notifying the other parties of the error; and (2) 25 providing a substitute copy of the Confidential Information with a proper legend.
26 In that event, the Receiving Parties who have obtained inadvertently produced 27 undesignated Confidential Information will: (1) return the previously produced 28 Confidential Information and destroy all copies thereof; and (2) if the Receiving

1 Party has already disseminated the Confidential Information to any person, the 2 Receiving Party will notify all such persons the information was disseminated to 3 the Confidential Information in writing of the need to return such Confidential 4 Information and not to further disseminate it. This provision applies to any and 5 all Confidential Information produced to the Receiving Party.

6 15. Limitations On The Non-Litigation Use Of Confidential
7 Information. The confidentiality of the Confidential Information received from 8 Defendants during discovery in this action shall be maintained, and all 9 Confidential Information exchanged will be used solely for the litigation of this 10 action entitled. Specifically, the Receiving Party may not use such documents, 11 records, or other information (or the contents thereof) for any other purpose, 12 including use as background material, or for inclusion in books, magazines, 13 newspapers, or other publications. The Receiving Party is prohibited from 14 placing any of the Confidential Information on the Internet.

15 16. Court Filings. If necessary in the judgment of attorneys for 16 Receiving Party, said attorneys may show or reveal the contents of the 17 Confidential Information to the court only pursuant to Local Rule 79-5 or Ninth 18 Circuit Rule 27-13. Good cause must be shown for any under seal filing.
19 Receiving Party will inform the Court and Parties of any Confidential Information 20 it intends to present during trial so appropriate measure may be considered by the 21 Court that may be necessary to protect the Confidential Information. Receiving 22 Party's presentation of Confidential Information during trial will not require 23 compliance with the written consent as set forth in Paragraph No. 18 below.

24 17. Other Persons Authorized To Review Confidential Information. The 25 Receiving Parties' attorneys of record may review copies of the Confidential 26 Information covered by this Order. Also, Defendants, including officers, 27 directors, employees, and experts thereof may be permitted to review the 28 Confidential Information. Additionally, expert witnesses and other individuals

1 and entities that may be employed or retained by the Receiving Party to assist in 2 the preparation and/or the litigation of this action may be permitted to see 3 originals and obtain copies of the Confidential Information covered by this Order, 4 provided such experts and employees have first executed the written statement set 5 forth in Paragraph No. 18 below, and comply with the provisions of that section.
6 Counsel for Receiving Parties shall insure the enforcement of this protective order 7 on their office staff, including, but not limited to, paralegals and secretaries. The 8 Parties' attorneys may review the Confidential Information with the Parties they 9 represent subject to the limitations set forth in Paragraph 19.

10 18. Applicability Of Order To Other Persons. Prior to the disclosure of 11 any Confidential Information to any person described above, ^(excluding the Court and Court personnel) attorneys for the 12 Receiving Party who seeks to use or disclose such Confidential Information shall 13 first provide any such person with a copy of this Order, and shall cause him or her 14 to execute the following acknowledgment:

15 "I, _____, do solemnly swear
16 that I am fully familiar with the terms of the Stipulated 17 Protective Order entered in this action and hereby agree to 18 comply with and be bound by the terms and conditions of the 19 said Order with respect to the handling, use and disclosure of 20 each Confidential Document. I understand that I may be 21 subject to penalties for contempt of Court if I violate this Order 22 and hereby consent to the jurisdiction of said Court for 23 purposes of enforcing this Order.

24 Dated: _____ /s/ _____ "

25 This written requirement applies to, but is not limited to, expert witnesses and 26 other individuals and entities that may be employed or retained by the Receiving 27 Party's counsel to assist in the preparation and/or the litigation of this action. The 28 Receiving Party shall be responsible for maintaining the signed original of each

1 such written statement until the conclusion of these proceedings, including any 2 appeal.

3 19. Plaintiff's Possession of Materials. Plaintiff may not have 4 possession of any Confidential Information, or material derived therefrom.
5 Further, Plaintiff's attorneys or agents may not show, reveal, or communicate to 6 Plaintiff or, in any other way, share with Plaintiff any of the Defendants' personal 7 identification information, including, but not limited to, addresses, phone 8 numbers, and family relations.

9 20. No waiver of objections. Nothing in this Stipulation and Order 10 constitutes any decision by the Court concerning discovery disputes or the 11 admission into evidence of any specific document or testimony or liability for 12 payment of any costs of production or reproduction of documents. This Order 13 also does not constitute a waiver by any party of any right to object to discovery 14 or admission into evidence of any document, record, testimony or other 15 information that is subject to this Order. Nor do Defendants waive any privileges, 16 including, but not limited to, the investigatory files or official information 17 privileges, see, e.g., Weiner v. FBI, 943 F.2d 972, 985 (9th Cir. 1991), or Miller v.

24 and Order and shall not produce the Confidential Information absent a Court 25 Order requiring such production.

26 22. Modification. For good cause, any party may seek a modification of 27 this Order, first by attempting to obtain the consent of the other parties to such 28 modification, and then, absent consent, by application to this Court.

1 23. Challenging Confidential Designation. Receiving Party shall initiate 2 the dispute resolution process by providing written notice of each designation it is 3 challenging and describing the basis for each challenge. The written notice must 4 recite that the challenge to confidentiality is being made in accordance with this 5 paragraph of the Protective Order. The Parties shall attempt to resolve each 6 challenge in good faith and must begin the process by conferring within 14 days 7 of the date of service of notice. In conferring, Receiving Party must explain the 8 basis for its belief that the confidentiality designation was not proper and must 9 give Defendants an opportunity to review the designated material, to reconsider 10 the circumstances, and, if no change in designation is offered, to explain the basis 11 for the chosen designation. Receiving Party may seek judicial intervention only 12 after engaging in this meet and confer process. Local Rule 37 must be followed 13 in presenting a dispute to the Court.

14 24. Return of Confidential Information. No more than thirty (30) 15 calendar days after the conclusion of this case the Receiving Party and every 16 other person and/or entity who received originals or copies of the Confidential

2 conclusion of this case. Additionally, within thirty (30) calendar days after the 3 conclusion of this case, counsel for the Receiving Party shall send a signed 4 declaration stating that such material has been destroyed pursuant to this 5 Protective Order. This case has concluded when (i) a final judgment has been
