On February 22, 2016 the application of Plaintiff Wilshire Commercial Capital, LLC for an order to show case as to why a contempt citation should not issue against defaulted defendant Instant Financing Inc., came on for hearing

1 before this court. The application was granted. Instant Financing Inc. did not 2 appear at the hearing, has not appeared at any other hearings, and has not filed any 3 papers with this court including with relationship to the present application. Based 4 on the materials presented by Wilshire Commercial Capital, it appears that Instant
5 Financing, Inc. is in contempt of court. Therefore, Instant Financing Inc. is 6 ordered to show cause, in writing, why it should not be sanctioned for its contempt.
7
8 The written response is due no later than March 11, 2016. An inadequate response
9 or a failure to respond will result in a sanction of $300 per day until Instant 10 Financing, Inc. complies with the outstanding subpoena. A stipulation by the 11 parties that Instant Financing, Inc. has complied with the subpoena will constitute 12 an acceptable response to this order to show cause.
