CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

JOHN FOGERTY, an individual;

Plaintiff,

vs.

STUART COOK, an individual;
DOUGLAS CLIFFORD, an individual;
and POOR BOY PRODUCTIONS,
INC., a corporation,

Defendants.

Case No. 2:15-cv-06069-FMO-FFM

[Consolidated with Case No. 2:15-cv-06501-FMO-FFM]

PROTECTIVE ORDER

Complaint Filed July 10, 2015
(Removed to federal court on August 11, 2015)

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the following terms and conditions shall govern the handling of discovery materials in the Litigation:

1. Applicability of Order:

- a) This Order will otherwise be applicable to and govern the handling of documents, depositions, deposition exhibits, interrogatory responses, responses to requests for admissions, responses to requests for production of documents, and all other

1 discovery obtained pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil 2 Procedure by or from a party or non-party in connection with the 3 Litigation (this information hereinafter referred to as “Discovery 4 Material”).

5 b) As used herein, “Producing Party” or “Disclosing Party” shall 6 refer to the parties to this action and any non-party that give 7 testimony or produce documents or other information, and 8 “Receiving Party” shall refer to the parties to this action and any 9 non-party that receive such information.

10 c) As used herein, the term “Counsel” shall refer to outside counsel 11 of record and other attorneys, paralegals, secretaries, and other 12 support staff employed in the law firms identified below:

- 13 (1) Barnes & Thornburg LLP;
- 14 (2) Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck, LLP; and
- 15 (3) Steven T. Polikalas, Esq.

16 2. Designation of Material: Any Producing Party may designate 17 Discovery Material that is in its possession, custody or control to be produced to a 18 Receiving Party as “Confidential – Subject to Protective Order” or “Confidential – 19 Subject to Protective Order – COUNSEL’S EYES ONLY” under the terms of this 20 Order if the Producing Party in good faith reasonably believes that such Discovery 21 Material contains non-public, confidential material as defined in paragraph 3 below, 22 (hereinafter “Confidential Material”).

23 3. Confidential Material: For purposes of this Order, Confidential
24 Material is any material that a party believes in good faith to contain “Confidential
25 Information.”

26 4. Designating Confidential Material: The designation of Discovery 27 Material as Confidential Material for purposes of this Order shall be made in the 28 following manner, and subject to the following provisions:

- a) Designation as “Confidential – Subject to Protective Order”:
Any party may designate information as “Confidential – Subject to Protective Order” only if, in the good faith belief of such party and its counsel, the unrestricted disclosure of such information (1) would be prejudicial to the business or operations of such party; or (2) would otherwise violate any protected privacy rights of such party.
- b) Designation as “Confidential – Subject to Protective Order – COUNSEL’S EYES ONLY”:
Any party may designate information as “Confidential – Subject to Protective Order – COUNSEL’S EYES ONLY” only if, in the good faith belief of such party and its counsel, the information is among that considered to be most sensitive by the party, including but not limited to trade secret or other confidential research, development, or financial information, such that it should not be viewed or reviewed by anyone other than as provided in Paragraph 8.
- c) Documents: In the case of documents or other materials (apart from depositions or other pre-trial testimony), designation shall be made by affixing the legend “Confidential – Subject to Protective Order” or “Confidential – Subject to Protective Order – COUNSEL’S EYES ONLY” to each page containing any Confidential Material.
- d) Deposition: In the case of depositions, designation of the portion of the transcript (including exhibits) which contains Confidential Material shall be made (i) by a statement to such effect on the record during the deposition, or (ii) by written notice served on counsel of record in this Litigation within fifteen (15) days after

1 the receipt of the draft transcript of such proceeding. However, 2 before such fifteen (15) day period expires, all testimony, 3 exhibits and transcripts of depositions shall be treated as 4 Confidential Material. All portions of deposition transcripts not 5 designated Confidential Material as provided in this Paragraph 6 4(d) shall be deemed not confidential.

7 e) Non-Paper Materials: Any Confidential Material that is in a 8 format other than paper (e.g., videotape, audio tape, computer 9 disk, etc.) may be designated as such by labeling the outside of 10 such non-written material designated as “Confidential – Subject 11 to Protective Order” or “Confidential – Subject to Protective 12 Order – COUNSEL’S EYES ONLY.” If Confidential
13 Information is contained in an electronic format without a 14 physical container (e.g., an electronic file transmitted by email, 15 or via an FTP site), it may be designated by written or email 16 notice to the recipients at or before the time of production or by 17 placing “CONFIDENTIAL,” “COUNSEL ONLY,” or similar 18 designations in the electronic file names. In the event a 19 Receiving Party generates any “hard copy” transcription or 20 printout from any such designated non-paper materials, the 21 person who generates such “hard copy” transcription shall take 22 reasonable steps to maintain the confidentiality of such 23 materials.

24 5. Inadvertent Disclosure: The inadvertent failure to designate 25 Confidential Material as Confidential does not constitute a waiver of such claim 26 and may be remedied by prompt supplemental written notice upon discovery of the 27 inadvertent disclosure, with the effect that such Confidential Material will be 28 subject to the protections of this Order. The Receiving Party shall exercise good

1 faith efforts to ensure that copies it makes of Confidential Material produced to it, 2 and copies made by others who obtained such Confidential Material directly or 3 indirectly from the Receiving Party, include the appropriate confidentiality legend, 4 to the same extent that the Confidential Material has been marked with the 5 appropriate confidentiality legend by the Producing Party.

6 6. Notice To Non-Parties: Any Party issuing a subpoena to a non-party
7 may enclose a copy of this Protective Order. A non-party responding to discovery 8 in this case may designate Confidential Material in the same manner, and with the 9 same effect, as a party.

10 7. Persons Authorized To Receive Confidential Material Designated as 11 “Confidential – Subject to Protective Order”: Discovery Material designated 12 “Confidential – Subject to Protective Order” may be disclosed, summarized, 13 described, characterized or otherwise communicated or made available in whole or 14 in part only to the following persons:

- 15 a) The Court and any applicable appellate court, their personnel, 16 and their stenographic reporters;
- 17 b) Counsel and law firms of record in this Litigation and 18 supporting personnel employed in the law firms of such counsel 19 of record (e.g., attorneys, paralegals, clerks, secretaries, contract 20 attorneys, clerical personnel) assigned to and reasonably 21 necessary to assist in this Litigation;
- 22 c) Experts or consultants assisting any counsel of record in this 23 Litigation (and their support personnel), provided such experts 24 and consultants have signed the “Agreement Concerning 25 Information Covered by Protective Order” attached hereto as 26 Exhibit A;
- 27 d) Executives, technical personnel, and in-house legal counsel of 28 the Receiving Party who are required in good faith to provide assistance in the conduct of this litigation, including any settlement discussions, and who are identified as such in writing to counsel for the Producing Party in advance of the disclosure and who have signed the “Agreement Concerning Information Covered by Protective Order” attached hereto as Exhibit A;

- e) Court reporters, videographers, translators, and graphics and design services retained by counsel of record in this Litigation for purposes of this Litigation, provided they have signed the “Agreement Concerning Information Covered by Protective Order” attached hereto as Exhibit A. A signature by an authorized representative of company the company who confirms that he or she has appropriately advised the relevant employees of the confidentiality obligations in this order and taken reasonable steps to comply thereto shall be sufficient;
- f) Commercial copy vendors retained by counsel of record in this action for purposes of this Litigation, provided such vendors have signed the “Agreement Concerning Information Covered by Protective Order” attached hereto as Exhibit A. A signature by an authorized representative of company the company who confirms that he or she has appropriately advised the relevant employees of the confidentiality obligations in this order and taken reasonable steps to comply thereto shall be sufficient;
- g) During their depositions, witnesses in the Litigation who agree on the record to maintain the confidentiality of relevant documents or information shown to them or who have signed the “Agreement Concerning Information Covered by Protective Order” attached hereto as Exhibit A;

- 1 h) Any person indicated by a document marked as Confidential
2 Material to be an author, addressee, or copy recipient of the 3 Confidential Material, or as to whom there has been testimony, 4 whether at deposition or trial, or by declaration or affidavit, that 5 the person was the author or recipient of the Confidential 6 Material; and
- 7 i) Any other person, only upon order of the Court or upon 8 stipulation of the Producing Party, which may be conditioned 9 on, without limitation, signing of the “Agreement Concerning 10 Information Covered by Protective Order” attached hereto as 11 Exhibit A.

12 8. Persons Authorized To Receive Confidential Material Designated as 13 “Confidential – Subject to Protective Order – COUNSEL’S EYES ONLY”:

14 Confidential Material designated “Confidential – Subject to Protective Order – 15 COUNSEL’S EYES ONLY” may be disclosed, summarized, described, 16 characterized or otherwise communicated or made available in whole or in part 17 only to the persons identified in Paragraphs 7(a), (b), (e), (f), (h), and (i) above, and 18 to independent experts only under the conditions set forth in this paragraph. The 19 party seeking to provide Confidential Material designated “Confidential – Subject 20 to Protective Order – COUNSEL’S EYES ONLY” to an independent expert or 21 consultant must first provide the producing party with the name and curriculum 22 vitae of the proposed independent expert or consultant, and an executed copy of the 23 “Agreement Concerning Information Covered by Protective Order” (attached 24 hereto as Exhibit A), along with identification of each person or entity from whom 25 the expert or consultant has received compensation for work in his or her area of 26 expertise or to whom the expert or consultant has provided professional services at 27 any time during the preceding four (4) years; and identification (by name, case 28 number, filing date, and location of court)₇ of any litigation in connection with

1 which the expert or consultant has provided any professional services during the 2 preceding four (4) years. However, if disclosure of either the identity of the entity 3 for which the work is being or has been performed or the subject matter of that 4 work, or both, is deemed proprietary, then the fact that certain information is being 5 withheld on the basis that it is proprietary shall be disclosed. The written notice 6 required under this paragraph need not be given to non-parties who have produced 7 Confidential Material subject to this Order. Any objection by the producing party 8 to an independent expert or consultant receiving Confidential Material must be 9 made in writing within ten (10) days following receipt of the identification of the 10 proposed expert or consultant. Such an objection must state with particularity the 11 grounds for the objection and the scope of the Confidential Material that is subject 12 to the objection. Confidential Material may be disclosed to an independent expert 13 or consultant if the ten (10) day period has passed and no objection has been made.
14 The approval of independent experts or consultant must not be unreasonably 15 withheld, and any objection must be based on a party's good-faith belief that 16 disclosure of its Confidential Material to the expert or consultant is likely to result 17 in business or economic harm to that party.

18 9. Use of Confidential Material: Confidential Material shall be used 19 solely for purposes of the Litigation, including any appeal and retrial.

20 10. Agreement Must Be Signed Prior To Disclosure: Each person to whom 21 Confidential Material may be disclosed that is also required to sign the "Agreement 22 Concerning Information Covered by Protective Order" (attached hereto as Exhibit 23 A) pursuant to Paragraphs 7(c)-7(g) and 6 and Paragraph 8 shall do so prior to the 24 time such Material is disclosed to him or her.

25 11. Filing of Confidential Material: Without written permission from the 26 Producing Party or a court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested 27 persons, a party may not file in the public record in this action any Confidential 28 Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any Confidential Material must

1 comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5. Confidential Material may only be filed under 2 seal pursuant to a Court order authorizing the sealing of the specific Confidential
3 Material at issue. Pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5, a sealing order will issue only 4 upon a request establishing that the Confidential Material at issue is privileged, 5 protectable as a trade secret, or otherwise entitled to protection under the law. If a 6 Receiving Party's request to file Confidential Material under seal is denied by the 7 Court, then the Receiving Party may file the Confidential Material in the public 8 record unless otherwise instructed by the Court.

9 12. No Prejudice: Agreeing to be bound by this Protective Order, agreeing 10 to and/or producing or receiving Confidential Material or otherwise complying with 11 the terms of this Order shall not:

- 12 a) Prejudice in any way the rights of the parties to object to the 13 production of documents they consider not subject to discovery, 14 or operate as an admission by any party that the restrictions and 15 procedures set forth herein constitute adequate protection for 16 any particular information deemed by any party to be 17 Confidential Material;
- 18 b) Prejudice in any way the rights of any party to object to the 19 authenticity or admissibility into evidence of any document, 20 testimony or other evidence subject to this Order;
- 21 c) Prejudice in any way the rights of a party to seek a 22 determination by the Court whether any Confidential Material 23 should be subject to the terms of this Order; or
- 24 d) Prejudice in any way the rights of a party to petition the Court 25 for a protective order relating to any purportedly confidential
26 information.

27 13. No Waiver of Privilege: Disclosure (including production) of 28 information that a Party or non-party later claims should not have been disclosed

1 because of a privilege, including, but not limited to, the attorney-client privilege or 2 work product doctrine (“Privileged Information”), shall not constitute a waiver of, 3 or estoppel as to, any claim of attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product, or 4 other ground for withholding production as to which the Producing Party would be 5 entitled in the litigation or any other federal or state proceeding.

6 14. Additional Parties or Attorneys: In the event additional parties join or 7 intervene in this action, the newly joined party shall not have access to Confidential 8 Material until its counsel has executed and, at the request of any party, filed with 9 the Court its agreement to be fully bound by this Order.

10 15. No Prejudice For Further Relief: This Protective Order is without 11 prejudice to the right of any party to seek other or further relief from the Court.

12 16. Conclusion of Litigation: Within ninety (90) days after receiving 13 notice of the entry of an order, judgment or decree finally disposing of this 14 Litigation, all persons having received Confidential Material shall either return such 15 material and all copies thereof to counsel for the Producing Party, or destroy all 16 such Confidential Material, and, in either case, certify that fact to counsel for the 17 Producing Party. Counsel of record shall make arrangements for the return of 18 Confidential Material that counsel of record provided to any persons or entities in 19 paragraph 7, except the Court, court personnel, and court reporters. Outside 20 counsel of record for the parties shall be entitled to retain court papers, depositions, 21 trial transcripts and attorney work product, provided that such outside counsel of 22 record shall not disclose Confidential Material to any person except pursuant to a 23 court order or agreement with the party that produced the Confidential Material.
24 All material returned to the parties or their counsel by the Court shall likewise be 25 disposed of in accordance with this paragraph.

26 17. Redaction Allowed: Any Producing Party may redact from the 27 documents and things it produced matter that the Producing Party claims is subject 28 to attorney-client privilege or work product immunity. The Producing Party shall

1 mark each thing where matter has been redacted with a legend stating 2 “REDACTED,” as appropriate, or a comparable notice. Where a document 3 consists of more than one page, at least each page on which information has been 4 redacted shall be so marked. The Producing Party shall preserve an unredacted 5 version of each such document.

6 18. Challenges to Confidentiality Designations

- 7 a) The parties will use reasonable care when designating any 8 documents, materials, items, or information as “Confidential –
9 Subject to Protective Order” or “Confidential – Subject to 10 Protective Order – COUNSEL’S EYES ONLY.” Nothing in 11 this Order shall prevent a Receiving Party from contending that 12 documents, material, or information designated as “Confidential
13 – Subject to Protective Order” or “Confidential – Subject to 14 Protective Order – COUNSEL’S EYES ONLY” have been 15 improperly designated. A Receiving Party may at any time 16 request that the Producing Party cancel or modify the 17 confidentiality designation with respect to any such document, 18 material, item, or the information contained therein.
- 19 b) A Receiving Party shall not be obligated to challenge the 20 propriety of a “Confidential – Subject to Protective Order” or 21 “Confidential – Subject to Protective Order – COUNSEL’S 22 EYES ONLY” designation at the time made, and a failure to do 23 so shall not preclude a subsequent challenge thereto. Such a 24 challenge shall be written and served on counsel for the 25 Producing Party, and shall particularly identify the documents, 26 materials, items, or information that the Receiving Party
27 contends should be differently designated. The Receiving Party 28 and Producing Party shall use their best efforts to resolve

1 promptly and informally such disputes. If agreement cannot be 2 reached, the Receiving Party may file a motion requesting that 3 the Court cancel or modify a “Confidential – Subject to 4 Protective Order” or “Confidential – Subject to Protective Order 5 – COUNSEL’S EYES ONLY” designation. Any such 6 application shall comply with Local Rule 37. Upon any such 7 application to the Court, the burden shall be on the Producing 8 Party to show that the challenged designation is proper.

9 19. Prosecution Bar: No attorney who, as a result of representing a 10 Receiving Party, obtains, receives, has access to, or otherwise learns Confidential 11 Information of another party that is designated “Confidential – Subject to Protective 12 Order” or “Confidential – Subject to Protective Order – COUNSEL’S EYES 13 ONLY” shall prepare, prosecute, supervise, or assist in the preparation or 14 prosecution of any patent application, reexamination procedures, or reissue 15 procedures for the Receiving Party, or for any direct or indirect parent or subsidiary 16 company or affiliated or related entity or person, pertaining to software during the 17 pendency of this action and for two years after the conclusion of this action, 18 including any appeals.

19 20. Subpoena from Third Party: If any person subject to this Order who 20 has custody of any Confidential Materials receives a subpoena or other process
21 (“Subpoena”) from any government or other person or entity demanding production 22 of Confidential Materials, the recipient of the Subpoena shall promptly give notice 23 of the same by electronic mail transmission, followed by either express mail or 24 overnight delivery to counsel of record for the Designating Party, and shall furnish 25 such counsel with a copy of the Subpoena. Upon receipt of this notice, the 26 Designating Party may, in its sole discretion and at its own cost, move to quash or 27 limit the Subpoena, otherwise oppose production of the Confidential Materials, 28 and/or seek to obtain confidential treatment of such Confidential Materials from the

1 subpoenaing person or entity to the fullest extent available under law. Absent
2 agreement of the Designating Party, the recipient of the Subpoena may not produce 3 any Confidential Materials prior to the date specified for production on the 4 Subpoena.

5 21. Legal Advice: Nothing in this Order shall be interpreted to restrict an 6 attorney permitted to receive Confidential Material from rendering legal advice to 7 or discussing with her or his client the merits of any issue in this action as long as 8 the specific substance or content of the Confidential Material is not revealed to a 9 person who is not qualified to receive such information under the terms of this 10 Order.

11 22. This Order shall govern as of the filing date of this lawsuit until 12 modified or superseded by a further Order of this Court and is without prejudice to 13 any Party moving to amend this Order at a later time. The restrictions and 14 mandates of this Order may be altered by written agreement of the parties or, as 15 applicable, the parties and any non-party.

16 23. This Order shall remain in full force and effect after the termination of 17 this action, or until canceled or otherwise modified by Order of this Court.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF RECEIPT OF PROTECTIVE ORDER REGARDING CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION AND AGREEMENT TO BE BOUND THEREBY

I acknowledge receipt of a copy of the Protective Order, dated _____, 20__ (the "Order"), and I agree that I will be bound by its terms and provisions; and that I will not reveal the contents of any materials I obtain including titles in connection with this litigation to anyone, except the parties or Court personnel in this action. I agree that, if I receive any document marked "CONFIDENTIAL – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER," CONFIDENTIAL – SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER – COUNSEL’S EYES ONLY," or otherwise designated as confidential within the terms of the Order, I will not make any copies thereof without the written consent of the person furnishing such document to me.

I agree that I will maintain a log, by Bates number, of all documents received pursuant to this Order, and, if asked, shall produce that log to counsel for any requesting party.

I agree that, within thirty (30) days after I receive notification that this lawsuit has been concluded, I shall return to counsel for the producing party in a manner that can be tracked (such as FedEx or UPS), all copies of confidential documents that I have received pursuant to the terms of the Order.

I hereby consent to the personal jurisdiction of the United States District Court for the Central District of California with regard to any matter related to or arising out of the Order, and I acknowledge that I have read the Order and understand its terms. I further acknowledge that I may be subject to sanctions by the Court if I fail to comply with the terms and conditions of this Order.

SIGNED this _____ day of _____, 20__.
