28	Re: Protective Order filed by the parties in this matter on

March 4, 2016, and good cause appearing, the Court FINDS and ORDERS as follows:

- 1. On September 10, 2015, the government filed a complaint for forfeiture. On December 9, 2015, claimant filed a claim to the defendant $175,121.75 in Wells Fargo Bank Funds.
- 2. The discovery that the government intends to produce to claimant in this matter includes personal identification information for others, including but not limited to names, addresses, telephone numbers, e-mail addresses, social security numbers, driver's license numbers, phone numbers, dates of birth, bank account numbers and other similar information (collectively "profile information").
- 3. Only claimant's counsel and claimant's counsel's employees and retained experts may review the un-redacted discovery, including profile information, in preparation for trial and they may not use the un-redacted profile information or any portion thereof except for the specific purpose of preparing or presenting a defense in this matter. Un-redacted profile information produced to the claimant's counsel shall be stored in a secure manner.
- 4. Claimant may review un-redacted profile information in claimant's counsel's office or at the courthouse, and only in the presence of claimant's counsel and/or claimant's counsel's agents. Claimant may not possess or in any way make a copy of any un-redacted profile information at any time. Claimant may not take or remove from claimant's counsel's office or the courthouse un-redacted profile information.

No one other than claimants' counsel, claimant's 5. counsel's employees or retained experts, may review or possess a copy of any un-redacted profile information at any time. If claimant's counsel deems it appropriate or necessary for claimant to receive some or all of the profile information in this case, claimant's counsel may, without further Order of the Court, provide only redacted portions of the profile information, where an Assistant United States Attorney or the Court approves the redactions. A willful violation of this Protective Order by claimant, its counsel, or others may result in contempt of court proceedings or other civil or criminal sanctions. /// /// ///

6. Within 60 days of the conclusion of this matter and the exhaustion of all appeals, claimant's counsel, claimant's counsel's employees, and any retained expert, must either: (1) return all documents containing profile information to the government, as well as all copies, and all notes, memoranda or other documents containing profile information obtained from documents produced in discovery, or (2) destroy the documents containing profile information and certify in writing to counsel for the government that the documents have been destroyed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
