LINCOLN TRANSPORTATION SERVICES, INC

Counterdefendant.

Case No.: 2:15-cv-09234-DDP(RAOx)

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. A. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 12.3, below, that

CASE NO. 2:15-CV-09234-DDP(RAOx)

1 this Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file confidential information under seal; 2 Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be 3 applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal.

4 B. GOOD CAUSE STATEMENT

5 This action is likely involve trade secrets, customer and pricing lists, third-party contracts 6 and other commercial, financial, technical and proprietary information for which special protection 7 from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecution of this action is 8 warranted. Such confidential and proprietary materials and information consists of, among other 9 things, confidential business and financial information, information regarding confidential business 10 practices, or other commercial information (including information implicating privacy rights of third 11 parties), information generally unavailable to the public, or which may be privileged or otherwise 12 protected from disclosure under state and federal statutes, court rules, case decisions, or common 13 law. Accordingly, to expedite the flow of information, to facilitate the prompt resolution of disputes 14 over confidentiality of discovery materials, to adequately protect information the parties are entitled 15 to keep confidential, to ensure that the parties are permitted reasonable necessary uses of such 16 material in preparation for and in the conduct of trial, to address their handling at the end of 17 litigation, and serve the ends of justice, a protective order for such information is justified in this 18 matter. It is the intent of the parties that information will not be designated as confidential for 19 tactical reasons and that nothing be so designated without a good faith belief that it has been 20 maintained in a confidential, non-public manner, and there is good cause why it should not be part of 21 the public record in this case.

22 2. DEFINITIONS

23 2.1 Action: this pending federal lawsuit.

24 2.2 Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation of 25 information or items under this Order.

26 2.3 “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items: information (regardless of how it is 27

1 generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection under Federal Rule of 2 Civil Procedure 26(c), and as specified above in the Good Cause Statement.

3 2.4 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” Information or 4 Items: extremely sensitive “CONFIDENTIAL” information, the disclosure of which to another 5 Party or Non-Party would create a substantial risk of serious harm that could not be avoided by less 6 restrictive means.

7 2.5 Counsel: Outside Counsel and House Counsel (as well as their support staff).

8 2.6 Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or items that it 9 produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY 10 CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

11 2.7 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of the medium 12 or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, testimony, 13 transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or generated in disclosures or responses to 14 discovery in this matter.

15 2.8 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent to 16 the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an expert witness or as a 17 consultant in this action.

18 2.9 House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a Party to this action. House 19 Counsel does not include Outside Counsel or any other outside counsel.

20 2.10 Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal 21 entity not named as a Party to this action.

22 2.11 Outside Counsel: attorneys who are not employees of a party to this Action but are 23 retained to represent or advise a party to this Action, and includes support staff.

24 2.12 Party: any party to this Action, including all of its officers, directors, employees, 25 consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel (and their support staffs).

26 2.3 Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or Discovery 27

1 Material in this action.

2 2.14 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support services 3 (e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or demonstrations, and organizing, 4 storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) and their employees and subcontractors.

5 2.15 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated as 6 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” Protected 7 Material is “CONFIDENTIAL” if it is information that is non-public, proprietary, commercially 8 sensitive, and/or subject to third party privacy or confidentiality restrictions. Protected Material is 9 “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” if it is information that qualifies as 10 “CONFIDENTIAL” and is extremely sensitive, the disclosure of which to another party would 11 create risk of competitive injury.

12 2.16 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material from a 13 Producing Party.

14 3. SCOPE

15 The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected Material (as 16 defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from Protected Material; (2) all 17 copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected Material; and (3) any testimony, 18 conversations, or presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material. Any 19 use of Protected Material at trial shall be governed by the orders of the trial judge. This Order does 20 not govern the use of Protected Material at trial. Sufficiently prior to trial the Parties will meet and 21 confer to address the treatment of any Protected Material at trial.

22 4. DURATION

23 Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations imposed by this 24 Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing or a court order 25 otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be deemed to be the later of (1) dismissal of all claims and 26 defenses in this action, with or without prejudice; and (2) final judgment herein after the completion

1 and exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of this action, including the 2 time limits for filing any motions or applications for extension of time pursuant to applicable law.

3 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

4 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each Party or 5 Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under this Order must take care to 6 limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. The 7 Designating Party must designate for protection only those parts of material, documents, items, or 8 oral or written communications that qualify – so that other portions of the material, documents, 9 items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably within 10 the ambit of this Order.

11 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are shown 12 to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily 13 encumber or retard the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on 14 other parties) expose the Designating Party to sanctions.

15 If it comes to a Designating Party’s attention that information or items that it designated for 16 protection do not qualify for protection, that Designating Party must promptly notify all other Parties 17 that it is withdrawing the inapplicable designation.

18 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this Order 19 (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, 20 Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies for protection under this Order must be clearly so 21 designated before the material is disclosed or produced.

22 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

23 (a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic documents, but 24 excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the Producing Party 25 affix at a minimum the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – 26 ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” to each page that contains protected material. If only a portion or

1 portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly 2 identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

3 A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents or materials available for inspection 4 need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated which material it 5 would like copied and produced. During the inspection and before the designation, all of the material 6 made available for inspection shall be deemed “CONFIDENTIAL.” After the inspecting Party has 7 identified the documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine which 8 documents, or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order. Then, before producing the 9 specified documents, the Producing Party must affix the “CONFIDENTIAL,” or “HIGHLY 10 CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” legend to each page that contains Protected 11 Material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the 12 Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate 13 markings in the margins).

14 (b) for testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial or trial proceedings, that the 15 Designating Party identify on the record, before the close of the deposition, hearing, or other 16 proceeding, all protected testimony. Alternatively, within thirty (30) days of receipt of the final 17 certified transcript of any deposition, any Party or Non-Party may request that the original and all 18 copies of the deposition transcript, in whole or in part, be marked “CONFIDENTIAL” or 19 “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” Until thirty (30) days after the final certified 20 transcript of any deposition, the transcript of that deposition will be subject to the protections granted 21 to “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” material. In the event a deposition is 22 videotaped, the original and all copies of the videotape are subject to this Order, substantially along 23 the lines of “This videotape contains confidential testimony used in this Action and is not to be 24 viewed or the contents thereof to be displayed or revealed except pursuant to the terms of the 25 operative Protective Order in this Action or pursuant to written stipulation of the Parties.”

26 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary and for any other

1 tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or 2 containers in which the information or item is stored the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY 3 CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” If only a portion or portions of the information 4 or item warrant protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected 5 portion(s).

6 (d) for electronic information produced in native format or another format that does not 7 permit designation of pages, that the Producing Party include the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” or 8 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” in the associated metadata, if 9 possible, and on the placeholder page. If only a portion or portions of the information warrants 10 protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

11 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. Inadvertent failure to timely designate material as 12 “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” shall not constitute a 13 waiver of the Producing Party’s ability to designate material as CONFIDENTIAL Information at a 14 later time. Any party that inadvertently or unintentionally produces CONFIDENTIAL Information 15 without designating it as Protective Material may request destruction of that Protected Material by 16 notifying the recipient(s), as soon as reasonably possible after the Producing Party becomes aware of 17 the inadvertent or unintentional disclosure, and providing replacement Protected Material that is 18 properly designated. The recipient(s) shall then destroy all copies of the inadvertently or 19 unintentionally produced Protected Material and any documents, information or material derived 20 from or based thereon. Upon correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable 21 efforts to assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of the Order. Upon 22 correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts to assure that the 23 material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

24 5.4 A party may upward designate (i.e., change any documents without a designation to a 25 designation of “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”) any 26 Disclosure or Discovery Material produced by any other Party or Non-Party, provided that said

1 Disclosure or Discovery Material contains the upward designating party's own Protected Material, 2 or otherwise is entitled to protective treatment under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c). Upward designation shall 3 be accomplished by providing written notice to all parties identifying (by Bates number or other 4 individually identifiable information) the Disclosure or Discovery Information to be re-designated.
5 Any party may object to the upward designation of Disclosure or Discovery Material pursuant to the 6 procedure set forth herein regarding challenging designations.

7 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

8 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a designation of 9 confidentiality at any time that is consistent with the Court's operative Scheduling Order.

10 6.2 Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute resolution process 11 under Local Rule 37.1 et seq.

12 6.3 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the 13 Designating Party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or 14 impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the Challenging Party to 15 sanctions. Unless the Designating Party has waived the confidentiality designation, all parties shall 16 continue to afford the material in question the level of protection to which it is entitled under the 17 Producing Party's designation until the court rules on the challenge.

18 7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

19 7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is disclosed or 20 produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this case only for prosecuting, 21 defending, or attempting to settle this Action. Such Protected Material may be disclosed only to the 22 categories of persons and under the conditions described in this Order. When the Action has been 23 terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of section 13 below (FINAL 24 DISPOSITION).

25 Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location and in a 26 secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Order.

1 and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A); and

2 (j) any other persons as to whom all the Parties in writing agree, provided that such 3 persons have first been given a copy of this Order and have executed the “Acknowledgment and 4 Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A).

5 7.3 Disclosure of “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” 6 Information and Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the 7 Designating Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated “HIGHLY 8 CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” only to:

9 (a) the Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel (as defined above) and their immediate 10 paralegals and staff, and any copying or clerical litigation support services working at the direction 11 of such counsel, paralegals, and staff;

12 (b) Experts (as defined in the Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is 13 reasonably necessary for this Action and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement 14 to Be Bound” (Exhibit A) provided that such Experts are not presently employed by the Parties 15 hereto for purposes other than this Action;

16 (c) the specifically designated employees of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is 17 necessary in this Action provided that:

18 (1) the Party seeking to disclose such information shall provide the Producing Party with 19 written notice that includes the name and present title of the employee of the Receiving Party 20 designated to review the Protected Material. Within five (5) business days of receipt of the 21 designation notice, the Producing Party or Parties may object in writing to the designation for good 22 cause. For purposes of this section, “good cause” shall include an objectively reasonable concern 23 that the employee will, advertently or inadvertently, use or disclose the Protected Material in a way 24 or ways that are inconsistent with the provisions contained in this Order and/or that the designation 25 of the employee is inconsistent with a prior agreement between the Parties regarding particular 26 designation of employees. In the absence of an objection at the end of the five (5) business day

1 period, the employee shall be deemed approved under this Protective Order.

2 The Producing Party may object to and notify the Receiving Party in writing that it objects to 3 disclosure of Protected Material to the designated employee. The Parties agree to promptly confer
4 and use good faith to resolve any such objection. If the Parties are unable to resolve any objection, 5 the objecting Party may file a motion with the Court within ten (10) days of the notice, or within 6 such other time as the Parties may agree, seeking a protective order with respect to the proposed 7 disclosure. No disclosure shall occur until all such objections are resolved by agreement or Court 8 order.

9 The Parties have already agreed that Lincoln Transportation Services, Inc.'s personnel Joey 10 Villareal and Jose Cardenas will be so designated and there is no objection.

11 (2) prior to disclosure, the approved personnel of the Receiving Party shall be made aware of 12 the provisions of this Order and have manifested their assent to be bound by signing the 13 "Acknowledgement and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A); 14 (3) the review of the Protected Material by the approved personnel shall takes place at the 15 office of the Receiving Party's Outside Counsel that have appeared on behalf of that party in this 16 Action;

17 (4) the Protected Material shall not to be removed by approved personnel from the office of 18 the Receiving Party's Outside Counsel that have appeared in this Action; and 19 (5) no hard copies, electronic copies or document imaging of the Protected Material shall be 20 created by the approved personnel.

21 7.4 The original of the executed the "Acknowledgement and Agreement to Be Bound" 22 (Exhibit A) shall be retained by the counsel disclosing Protected Material pursuant to Sections 7.2
23 and 7.3 for a period of one year following the final resolution of this Action.

24 7.5 This Court shall retain specific jurisdiction over all issues attendant to disclosure of 25 Protected Material even after final resolution of this action.

26 8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN

1 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to produce a Non-2 Party's confidential information in its possession, and the Party is subject to an agreement with the 3 Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party's confidential information, then the Party shall:

4 (1) within 7 days from the date of the Stipulated Order notify in writing the Non-5 Party that some or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement with a 6 Non-Party;

7 (2) within 7 days from the date of the Stipulated Order provide the Non-Party with a 8 copy of the Stipulated Protective Order in this litigation, the relevant discovery request(s), and a 9 reasonably specific description of the information requested, and make the information requested 10 available for inspection by the Non-Party.

11 (c) If the Non-Party fails to object or seek a protective order from this court within 7 12 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving Party may produce the 13 Non-Party's confidential information responsive to the discovery request. If the Non-Party timely 14 seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party shall not produce any information in its possession or 15 control that is subject to the confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by 16 the court. Absent a court order to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the burden and expense of 17 seeking protection in this court of its Protected Material.

18 10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

19 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed Protected 20 Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulated Protective Order, 21 the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized 22 disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) 23 inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this 24 Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to 25 Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

26 11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED

1 court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, a Party may not file in the 2 public record in this Action any Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any 3 Protected Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5. Consistent with this Local Civil Rule, 4 before filing with the Court any transcript, exhibit, pleading, brief, or other document containing 5 information designated as Protected Material, the Parties will seek approval of the Court for filing 6 such Protected Material under seal or, if the material has been designated by the another Party, 7 provide the Producing Party with a minimum of three (3) business days' notice prior to filing, in 8 order to allow the Producing Party an opportunity to seek approval of the Court to file such 9 Protected Material under seal. Protected Material may only be filed under seal pursuant to a court 10 order authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected Material at issue. If a Party's request to file 11 Protected Material under seal pursuant to Civil Local Rule 79-5(d) is denied by the Court, then the 12 Receiving Party may file the information in the public record unless otherwise instructed by the 13 Court.

14 13. FINAL DISPOSITION

15 After the final disposition of this Action, as defined in paragraph 4, within 60 days of a 16 written request by the Designating Party, each Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to 17 the Producing Party or destroy such material. As used in this subdivision, "all Protected Material" 18 includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries, and any other format reproducing or 19 capturing any of the Protected Material. Whether the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the 20 Receiving Party must submit a written certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same 21 person or entity, to the Designating Party) by the 60 day deadline that (1) identifies (by category, 22 where appropriate) all the Protected Material that was returned or destroyed and (2) affirms that the 23 Receiving Party has not retained any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other format 24 reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are 25 entitled to retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing 26 transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney

1 work product, and consultant and expert work product, even if such materials contain Protected 2 Material. Any such archival copies that contain or constitute Protected Material remain subject to 3 this Protective Order as set forth in Section 4 (DURATION).

4
5 14. VIOLATION

6 Any violation of this Order may be punished by any and all appropriate measures 7 including, without limitation, contempt proceedings and/or monetary sanctions. In the event 8 motion practice is required to enforce the terms of this Order, and a party is found by the Court to 9 have willfully violated the terms of this Order, the prevailing party on such a motion shall be 10 awarded costs, expenses, and fees, including attorney or other professional fees, incurred in 11 connection with the discovery of the violation and the preparation, filing, and arguing of the 12 motion or any other proceedings resulting from the violation.

13 IT IS SO STIPULATED, THROUGH COUNSEL OF RECORD.
