Proceedings: [In Chambers] Order to Show Cause Regarding Dismissal for Lack of Prosecution

The instant case was removed to the Federal District Court on January 12, 2016. A response to the complaint is due 21 days after receiving a copy of the initial pleading, 21 days after being served with the summons, or 7 days after the notice of removal is filed. See Rule 81 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

It appears a response from defendant Carnival Corporation has not been filed. Accordingly, the court, on its own motion, orders plaintiff(s) to show cause in writing on or before January 29, 2016 why this defendant should not be dismissed for lack of prosecution. Pursuant to Rule 78 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the court finds that this matter is appropriate for submission without oral argument. The Order To Show Cause will stand submitted upon the filing of plaintiff's/defendant's response.

If plaintiff/defendant files

An answer by the following defendant(s):

Carnival Corporation doing business as Carnival Cruise Line

Plaintiff's application for entry of default pursuant to Rule 55a of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure as to the following defendant(s):

on or before the date indicated above, the court will consider this a satisfactory response to the Order To Show Cause.
