Disclosure and discovery activity in this action are likely to involve production of trade secrets or other confidential research, development, commercial, proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than this litigation is warranted. The parties believe that good cause exists for the entry of this Stipulated Protective Order pursuant to Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure because Protected Information (as defined below) constitutes trade secret or other confidential or proprietary information, the disclosure of which is likely to have the effect of harming the competitive position of the Designating Party (as defined below) or violating an obligation of confidentiality owed to a third party.

Protected Information designated under the terms of this Order shall be used by a Receiving Party (as defined below) solely for this litigation and shall not be used directly or indirectly for any other purpose whatsoever, and its disclosure is prohibited except as expressly provided in this Order.

The parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery. Designations of confidentiality shall be made with care and shall not be made absent a good faith belief that the Protected Information satisfies the criteria set forth below for each category.

1 this litigation, and shall not directly or indirectly use such Protected Information for 2 any business, financial, promotional, or any other purpose.

3 E. Execution Of Non-Disclosure Agreement Prior To Disclosure Of 4 Protected Information To Experts

5 Documents designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” and/or “HIGHLY 6 CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” may be shown to any Non-Party 7 expert or consultant, together with his or her secretarial, technical and clerical staff 8 who are actively assisting in the preparation of this litigation. Before disclosure to any 11 The attorney of record making the disclosure shall maintain the record of such 12 executed Agreement until sixty (60) days following the final disposition of this 13 matter. The foregoing notwithstanding, any such Non-Party expert or consultant who 14 is an employee of a competitor of any of the Parties (other than one of the Parties) 15 shall not be shown or otherwise given access to documents or information designated

16 “CONFIDENTIAL” and/or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS’ EYES
17 ONLY.” Any expert or consultant who is an employee of any of the Parties shall not 18 be shown or otherwise give access to documents or information designated “HIGHLY 19 CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

20 F. Requests For Additional Disclosure

21 If any counsel of record desires to disclose any information designated as 22 “CONFIDENTIAL” and/or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS’ EYES 23 ONLY” to any Person other than those specifically permitted by the terms of this 24 Order to have access to such information, that counsel shall, at least five (5) court 25 days before the date of the proposed disclosure, first request the written consent of the 26 Designating Party through such Party’s counsel of record. Such request shall 27 specifically identify the Protected Information, including Bates label if applicable, 28 sought to be disclosed, and the name, title and function of the Person to whom

Glaser Weil

1 disclosure is desired to be made. The Designating Party shall thereafter respond to the 2 request in writing within five (5) court days after receipt of same. A failure to respond 3 to the request in writing within such time shall constitute consent to the request. If, 4 where consent has been withheld, the Parties are subsequently unable to agree on the 5 terms and conditions of disclosure, the matter may be submitted to the Court for 6 resolution by the Party seeking disclosure. Disclosure shall be postponed until a 7 ruling has been obtained from the Court.

8 G. Challenges To The Propriety Of A “CONFIDENTIAL” Or 9 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”
10 Designation

11 A Party shall not be obligated to challenge or object to a confidentiality 12 designation, either with respect to a “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY 13 CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” designation, at the time made and 14 a failure to do so shall not preclude or act as a waiver of the right to assert a 15 subsequent challenge or objection. Any Party may at any time challenge the 16 designation of any Protected Information under this Order pursuant to this Paragraph 17 by serving (which may be by email) a written request upon counsel for the 18 Designating Party and by providing telephonic notice of such request on the same 19 date as the written request. Such request shall specifically identify the Protected 20 Information whose confidentiality designation is being challenged, including Bates 21 label if applicable. The Designating Party shall thereafter respond to the request in 22 writing within five (5) court days after receipt of same. A failure to respond within 23 such time shall constitute consent to the request. If, where consent has been withheld, 24 the Designating Party and challenging Party are subsequently unable to agree on the 25 terms and conditions of the designation of materials, the matter may be submitted to 26 the Court for resolution by the Challenging Party. Disclosure shall be postponed until 27 a ruling has been obtained from the Court. Any discovery disputes concerning the 28 designation of materials or disclosure of documents or information under this Order

Glaser Weil

1 shall be brought in compliance with Local Rule 37.

2 H. Modification Of Protective Order And Burden Of Proof

3 The Parties by written stipulation may provide for exceptions to this Order and 4 any Party may seek an order of this Court modifying this Order. In the event that a 5 dispute arises between the Parties regarding modification this Order, the Parties shall 6 try first to resolve such dispute in good faith on an informal basis. If such dispute 7 cannot be resolved informally, the Party seeking to modify the Order may seek 8 appropriate relief from this Court. Any dispute concerning modification of this Order 9 shall be brought in compliance with Local Rule 37. The Party asserting that such 10 modification is necessary shall have the burden of establishing the same.

11 I. Manner Of Designating Documents And Other Material

12 1. Paper Media. Paper documents produced by a Party may be designated 13 as Protected Information by marking every page with either: "CONFIDENTIAL"
14 and/or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY."

15 2. Non-Paper Media. Where Protected Information is produced in a non-16 paper media (e.g. video tape, audio tape, computer disks), the appropriate 17 confidentiality designation as described in Section II.I.1. above should be placed on 18 the media, if possible, and its container, if any, so as to clearly give notice of the 19 designation. To the extent that any Receiving Party prints any of the Protected 20 Information contained in the non-paper media, such printouts will be marked as 21 described in Section II.I.1. above by the Receiving Party.

22 3. Physical Exhibits. The confidentiality designation of a physical exhibit 23 shall be indicated by placing a label on said physical exhibit with the appropriate 24 confidentiality designation as described in Section II.I.1. above.

25 4. Original Files. In the case of original files and records produced for 26 inspection, the Designating Party in advance of inspection need make no marking. For 27 the purposes of inspection, all documents produced shall be considered as marked 28 "CONFIDENTIAL." Thereafter, upon selection of specified documents for copying

Glaser Weil

1 by the inspecting Party, the Designating Party shall, at the time the copies are 2 produced to the inspecting Party, mark as “CONFIDENTIAL” and/or “HIGHLY 3 CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” the copies of such documents that 4 contain Protected Information.

5 5. Written Discovery Responses. In the case of Protected Information 6 incorporated into answers to interrogatories or responses to requests for admission or 7 production of documents, the appropriate confidentiality designation described in 8 Section II.I.1. above shall be placed on the first page of the document and on each 9 answer or response that contains Protected Information.

10 J. Use Of Protected Information At Depositions

11 1. Those portions of depositions taken by any Party at which any 12 “CONFIDENTIAL” designated material is used or inquired into may not be 13 conducted in the presence of any Person(s) other than (a) the deposition witness; (b) 14 his or her counsel; and (c) Persons authorized under Section II.B. of this Order to 15 view such “CONFIDENTIAL” material. During those portions of depositions at 16 which “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” designated 17 material is used or discussed, only those persons authorized under Section II.C. of this 18 Order may be present.

19 2. Counsel for any deponent may designate testimony or exhibits as 20 Protected Information by indicating on the record at the deposition that the testimony 21 of the deponent or any exhibits to his or her testimony are to be treated as 22 “CONFIDENTIAL” and/or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS’ EYES
23 ONLY.” Counsel for any Party may designate exhibits in which that Party has a 24 cognizable interest as Protected Information by indicating on the record at the 25 deposition that such exhibit(s) are to be treated as “CONFIDENTIAL” and/or 26 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” Failure of counsel to 27 designate testimony or exhibits as Protected Information at the deposition, however, 28 shall not constitute a waiver of the protected status of the testimony or exhibits.

Glaser Weil

1 Within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of the transcript of the deposition, counsel
2 shall be entitled to designate specific testimony or exhibits as "CONFIDENTIAL" 3 and/or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY." If counsel for 4 the deponent or Party fails to designate the transcript or exhibits as 5 "CONFIDENTIAL" and/or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS' EYES
6 ONLY" within the above-described thirty (30) day period, any other Party shall be 7 entitled to treat the transcript or exhibits as non-confidential material.

8 3. When Material disclosed during a deposition is designated
9 "CONFIDENTIAL" and/or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS' EYES 10 ONLY" at the time testimony is given, the reporter shall separately transcribe those 11 portions of the testimony so designated, shall mark the face of the transcript in 12 accordance with Section II.I.1. above, and shall maintain that portion of the transcript 13 or exhibits in separate files marked to designate the confidentiality of their contents.
14 The reporter shall not file or lodge with the Court any Protected Information without 15 obtaining written consent from the Designating Party. For convenience, if a 16 deposition transcript or exhibit contains repeated references to Protected Information 17 which cannot conveniently be segregated from non-confidential material, any Party 18 may request that the entire transcript or exhibit be maintained by the reporter as 19 Protected Information.

20 K. Inadvertent Production Of Privileged Information

21 The inadvertent production of documents or information to the Receiving Party 22 shall not constitute a waiver of the attorney-client privilege or work product immunity 23 with respect to any document or information so furnished, if within ten (10) days after 24 discovering the inadvertent disclosure, the Designating Party designates any such 25 document or information as within either the attorney-client privilege or work product 26 immunity and requests return of any such document or information to the Designating 27 Party. Upon request by the Designating Party for return of any such document or 28 information designated as within either the attorney-client privilege or work product

1 immunity, the Receiving Party shall immediately return to the Designating Party or 2 confirm destruction to the Designating Party of all copies of such documents and all 3 documents containing or referring to such information. Nothing herein shall prevent 4 the Receiving Party from challenging the propriety of the attorney-client privilege or 5 work product immunity designation by filing an appropriate motion with the Court. If 6 such a motion is filed, the Designating Party shall make the documents and/or 7 information available for in-camera inspection by the court. The moving Party shall 8 not assert that such inadvertent production is a basis for finding a waiver of attorney-9 client privilege or work product immunity.

10 L. Filing Documents With The Court

11 Except for trial, all information designated as Protected Information sought to 12 be filed or lodged with the Court, including the Magistrate Judge in a discovery-13 related proceeding, or any pleading or memorandum purporting to reproduce or 14 paraphrase such Protected Information, shall be filed or lodged in accordance with 15 Local Rule 79-5.1 and the orders and procedures of the Judge and Magistrate Judge 16 on this case, along with an application to the Court or, where applicable, a stipulation, 17 requesting such Protected Information be filed under seal. Such Protected Information 18 shall be labeled as follows: "This Document is Subject to a Protective Order Issued by 19 the Court and May Not Be Examined or Copied Except in Compliance with that 20 Order." In the event that the Court denies an application or stipulation to file under 21 seal on the merits thereof because the Court has determined that the subject 22 information, in whole or in part, is not entitled to confidential treatment, the subject 23 information, as re-designated in whole or in part, shall no longer be entitled to any 24 confidential treatment and need not be filed under seal but may be filed and used in 25 like manner as any document that is not subject to a confidential designation.

26 M. No Effect On Party's Own Use

27 Nothing contained in this Order shall affect the right of a Party to disclose to its 28 officers, directors, employees, partners, or consultants or to use as it desires any

Glaser Weil

1 Protected Information designated and produced by it as “CONFIDENTIAL” and/or 2 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

3 N. No Effect On Rendering Legal Advice

4 Nothing in this Order shall bar or otherwise prevent any attorney herein from 5 rendering advice to his or her client with respect to this litigation, and in the course 6 thereof, from relying upon his or her examination or knowledge of Protected 7 Information; provided, however, that in rendering such advice and in otherwise 8 communicating with his or her client, such attorney shall not disclose the contents of 9 any Protected Information produced by another Party herein to any Person who is not 10 authorized to receive such information under the provisions of this Order.

11 O. No Effect On Disclosure To Author Or Addressees

12 Nothing contained in this Order shall affect the right of a party to disclose any 13 Protected Information designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” and/or “HIGHLY 14 CONFIDENTIAL - ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” to the author or addressees of the 15 document.

16 P. Final Disposition Of Action

17 Within sixty (60) calendar days after the final settlement or disposition of this 18 action and exhaustion of all appellate rights by all Parties, each counsel of record for a 19 Receiving Party shall promptly return or destroy (at the expense of the Receiving 20 Party) all Protected Information which has been provided by a Designating Party and 21 all copies made thereof, except to the extent that any of the foregoing includes or 22 reflects Receiving Party’s work product, and except to the extent that such Protected 23 Information has been filed with the Court in which proceedings related to this action 24 are being conducted. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each counsel of record shall be 25 permitted to retain one copy of all pleadings submitted to the Court, deposition 26 transcripts and exhibits thereto, and attorney notes, irrespective of whether they 27 contain Protected Information, but such attorney shall not disclose such material 28 without further Order of this Court.

Q. Effect On Discovery

This Order shall not preclude or limit the right of any Party to oppose discovery on any ground which would otherwise be available.

R. Survival Of Terms

Absent written modification of this Order by the Parties or further order of the Court, the provisions of this Order that restrict the disclosure and use of Protected Information shall survive the final disposition of this action and continue to be binding on all persons subject to the terms of this Order.

S. Other Scope Of This Order

1. Except for the provisions regarding post-trial or post-settlement return and destruction of Protected Information, or segregation of work product which embodies Protected Information, this Order is strictly a pretrial order; it does not govern the trial in this action.
2. Not later than seven (7) days before trial in the action, counsel agree to meet and confer concerning the use at trial of Protected Information.
3. Nothing in this Protective Order shall be deemed to limit, prejudice, or waive any right of any Party or Person (a) to resist or compel discovery with respect to, or to seek to obtain additional or different protection for, Protected Information claimed to be protected work product or privileged under California or federal law, Protected Information as to which the Designating Party claims a legal obligation not to disclose, or Protected Information not required to be provided pursuant to California law; (b) to seek to modify or obtain relief from any aspect of this Order; (c) to object to the use, relevance, or admissibility at trial or otherwise of any Protected Information, whether or not designated in whole or in part as Protected Information governed by this Order; or (d) otherwise to require that discovery be conducted according to governing laws and rules.
4. Designation of material as Protected Information on the face of such material shall have no effect on the authenticity or admissibility of such material at

1 trial.

2 5. This Order shall not affect any contractual, statutory, or other legal 3 obligation or the rights of any Party or Person with respect to Protected Information 4 designated by that Party.

5 6. If at any time any material protected by this Order is subpoenaed from a 6 Receiving Party by any Court, administrative or legislative body, or is requested by 7 any other Person or entity purporting to have authority to require the production of 8 such material, the Party to whom the subpoena or other request is directed shall 9 immediately give written notice thereof to the Designating Party with respect to the 10 Protected Information sought and shall afford the Designating Party reasonable 11 opportunity to pursue formal objections to such disclosures. If the Designating Party 12 does not prevail on its objections to such disclosure, the Receiving Party may produce 13 the Protected Information without violating this Order.

14 7. A Non-Party producing information voluntarily or pursuant to a 15 subpoena or a court order may designate such information as Protected Information 16 pursuant to the terms of this Order. A Non-Party's use of this Order to protect its 17 Protected Information does not entitle that Non-Party access to the Protected 18 Information produced by any Party in this case. Any Party may designate documents 19 or information produced by a Non-Party as Protected Information pursuant to the 20 terms of this Order.
