CLASS ACTION

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

1     1.     A. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

2             Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, 3 proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public 4 disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may 5 be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the Court to 6 enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this 7 Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to 8 discovery and that the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends 9 only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment 10 under the applicable legal principles. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth 11 in Section 12.3, below, that this Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them 12 to file confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the 13 procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a 14 party seeks permission from the Court to file material under seal.

15             B. GOOD CAUSE STATEMENT

16             This action is likely to involve development, commercial, financial, 17 technical and/or proprietary information for which special protection from public 18 disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecution of this action is 19 warranted. Such confidential and proprietary materials and information consist of, 20 among other things, confidential business or financial information, information 21 regarding confidential business practices, or other confidential research, 22 development, or commercial information (including information implicating 23 privacy rights of third parties), information otherwise generally unavailable to the 24 public, or which may be privileged or otherwise protected from disclosure under 25 state or federal statutes, court rules, case decisions, or common law. Accordingly, 26 to expedite the flow of information, to facilitate the prompt resolution of disputes 27 over confidentiality of discovery materials, to adequately protect information the 28 parties are entitled to keep confidential, to ensure that the parties are permitted

1 reasonable necessary uses of such material in preparation for and in the conduct of 2 this litigation, to address their handling at the end of the litigation, and to serve the 3 ends of justice, a protective order for such information is justified in this matter. It 4 is the intent of the parties that information will not be designated as confidential 5 for tactical reasons and that nothing be so designated without a good faith belief 6 that it has been maintained in a confidential, non-public manner, and there is good 7 cause why it should not be part of the public record of this case.

8 2. DEFINITIONS

9 2.1 Action: this pending federal law suit, case No. 2:16-CV-01947-MWF-10 JEM, including all actions consolidated therein.

11 2.2 Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the 12 designation of information or items under this Order.

13 2.3 “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items: information (regardless of 14 how it is generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for 15 protection under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c) or as specified above in the 16 Good Cause Statement.

17 2.4 Counsel: Outside Counsel of Record and House Counsel (as well as 18 their support staff).

19 2.5 Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or 20 items that it produces in this Action as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “CONFIDENTIAL 21 – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

22 2.6 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless 23 of the medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, 24 among other things, testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced 25 or generated voluntarily or in disclosures or responses to discovery in this Action.

26 2.7 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter 27 pertinent to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve 28

1 as an expert witness or as a consultant in this Action, together with such person's 2 support firm (if any).

3 2.8 House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a party to this Action.
4 House Counsel does not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other outside 5 counsel.

6 2.9 Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or 7 other legal entity not named as a Party to this action.

8 2.10 Outside Counsel of Record: attorneys who are not employees of a 9 party to this Action but are retained to represent or advise a party to this Action
10 and have appeared in this Action on behalf of that party or are affiliated with a law 11 firm which has appeared on behalf of that party, and includes support staff.

12 2.11 Party: any party to this Action, including all of its officers, directors, 13 employees, consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record (and their 14 support staffs).

15 2.12 Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or 16 Discovery Material in this Action.

17 2.13 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation 18 support services (e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or 19 demonstrations, and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) 20 and their employees and subcontractors.

21 2.14 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is 22 designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES 23 ONLY."

24 2.15 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery 25 Material from a Producing Party.

26 3. SCOPE

27 The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only 28 Protected Material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or

1 extracted from Protected Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or 2 compilations of Protected Material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or 3 presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material.

4 Any use of Protected Material at trial shall be governed by the orders of the 5 trial judge. This Order does not govern the use of Protected Material at trial.

6 4. DURATION

7 Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations 8 imposed by this Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees 9 otherwise in writing or a court order otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be 10 deemed to be the later of (1) dismissal of all claims and defenses in this Action, 11 with or without prejudice; and (2) final judgment herein after the completion and 12 exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of this Action, 13 including the time limits for filing any motions or applications for extension of 14 time pursuant to applicable law.

15 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

16 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection.

17 Each Party or Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under 18 this Order must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that 19 qualifies under the appropriate standards. The Designating Party must designate for 20 protection only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written 21 communications that qualify so that other portions of the material, documents, 22 items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept 23 unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

24 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations 25 that are shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper 26 purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber the case development process or to 27 impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the 28 Designating Party to sanctions.

1 If it comes to a Designating Party's attention that information or items that it 2 designated for protection do not qualify for protection, that Designating Party must 3 promptly notify all other Parties that it is withdrawing the inapplicable designation.

4 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in 5 this Order (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise 6 stipulated or ordered, Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies for protection 7 under this Order must be clearly so designated before the material is disclosed or 8 produced.

9 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

10 (a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic 11 documents, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial 12 proceedings), that the Producing Party affix at a minimum, the legend 13 "CONFIDENTIAL" (hereinafter "CONFIDENTIAL legend"), to each page that 14 contains protected material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page 15 qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the 16 protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

17 A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents available for inspection 18 need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated 19 which documents it would like copied and produced. During the inspection and 20 before the designation, all of the material made available for inspection shall be 21 deemed "CONFIDENTIAL." After the inspecting Party has identified the 22 documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine 23 which documents, or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order.
24 Then, before producing the specified documents, the Producing Party must affix, at 25 a minimum, the "CONFIDENTIAL legend" to each page that contains Protected 26 Material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for 27 protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) 28 (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

1 (b) for testimony given in depositions or other proceedings, that the 2 Designating Party, within 21 days after receiving the final transcript, specify in 3 writing to all Parties the portions of the transcript that contain CONFIDENTIAL 4 Information or Items. The entirety of the deposition or other testimony shall 5 constitute Protected Material prior to the expiration of such 21-day period; 6 thereafter, only the portions so specified shall constitute Protected Material. In 7 addition to or in lieu of the foregoing procedure, the Designating Party may 8 designate on the record of the deposition or other proceeding the portions that 9 contain CONFIDENTIAL Information or Items.

10 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary 11 and for any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix, at a minimum, in a 12 prominent place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the 13 information is stored, the legend “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions 14 of the information warrants protection, the Producing Party, to the extent 15 practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).<sup>1</sup>

16 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. An inadvertent failure to designate, 17 or failure to properly designate, information or items does not waive the 18 Designating Party’s right to do so. Upon correction of a designation, the Receiving 19

20 <sup>1</sup> A Party or Non-Party that believes in good faith that CONFIDENTIAL 21 Information or Items contain its highly confidential and competitively sensitive 22 business information, and that such information could cause competitive harm if 23 viewed by an individual Receiving Party, or the officers, directors, or employees 24 (including House Counsel) of a Receiving Party that is an entity, may designate 25 such information or items “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” in 26 the same manner as it could designate such information or items 27 “CONFIDENTIAL.” Such information or items shall be treated the same as other 28 Protected Material under this Stipulated Protective Order, except that they shall not be disclosed to an individual Receiving Party, or to the officers, directors, or employees (including House Counsel) of a Receiving Party that is an entity. The Parties hereto recognize that such a designation impedes the ability of counsel to communicate with their clients, and shall be used only sparingly to avoid competitive injury.

1 Party must make reasonable efforts to assure that the material is treated in 2 accordance with the provisions of this Order.

3 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

4 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a 5 designation of confidentiality at any time that is consistent with the Court's 6 Scheduling Order.

7 6.2 Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute 8 resolution process under Local Rule 37.1 et seq.

9 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the 10 Designating Party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper purpose 11 (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may 12 expose the Challenging Party to sanctions. Unless the Designating Party has 13 waived or withdrawn the confidentiality designation, all parties shall continue to 14 afford the material in question the level of protection to which it is entitled under 15 the Producing Party's designation until the Court rules on the challenge.

16 7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

17 7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is 18 disclosed or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this 19 Action only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this Action. Such 20 Protected Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under 21 the conditions described in this Order. When the Action has been terminated, a 22 Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of section 13 below (FINAL 23 DISPOSITION).

24 Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a 25 location and in a manner that reasonably ensures that access is limited to the 26 persons authorized under this Order.

27
28

1           7.2 Disclosure of Protected Material. Unless otherwise ordered by the 2 Court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may 3 disclose Protected Material only to:

4           (a) the Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel of Record in this Action, as 5 well as employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably 6 necessary to disclose the information for this Action;

7           (b) the Receiving Party, if an individual, or the officers, directors, and 8 employees (including House Counsel) of the Receiving Party, if an entity, to whom 9 disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action (except that information or items 10 designated “CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” shall not be 11 disclosed to such persons);

12           (c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom 13 disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action and who have signed the 14 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

15           (d) the Court and its personnel;

16           (e) court reporters and their staff;

17           (f) professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and Professional 18 Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action and who have 19 signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A) (although 20 in the case of mock jurors, it shall be sufficient if they sign an undertaking to 21 maintain in confidence the information disclosed to them in the course of serving 22 as mock jurors);

23           (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or 24 a custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information;

25           (h) during their deposition or other testimony in the Action and in 26 preparation therefor, witnesses, and attorneys for witnesses, in the Action to whom 27 disclosure is reasonably necessary provided that: (1) the Party imparting the 28 Protected Material to the witness requests that the witness sign the 1 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A hereto); and (2) the 2 witness will not be permitted to keep copies of any Protected Material unless he or 3 she signs the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A), unless 4 otherwise agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by the Court; and 5 (i) any mediator or settlement officer, and their supporting personnel, 6 mutually agreed upon by any of the Parties engaged in settlement discussions.

7 8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED
8 IN OTHER LITIGATION

9 If a Party is served with a subpoena, court order, discovery request, or other 10 process in another litigation or proceeding that seeks or purports to compel 11 disclosure of any Protected Material (collectively, a “Disclosure Request”), that 12 Party must:

13 (a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification 14 shall include a copy of the Disclosure Request;

15 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the Disclosure 16 Request to issue that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order 17 is subject to this Protective Order. Such notification shall include a copy of this 18 Protective Order; and 19 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be 20 pursued by the Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

21 The Party that received the Disclosure Request shall not produce any 22 Protected Material in response to the Disclosure Request unless and until (1) the 23 time for the affected Designating Party to seek a protective order from the court or 24 other tribunal from which the Disclosure Request issued has expired without the 25 Designating Party having sought such an order; or (2) the request for a protective 26 order has been finally denied by that court or tribunal, with no further opportunity 27 for appeal or review of such denial. The Designating Party shall bear the burden 28 and expense of seeking protection for its confidential material in the other court or

1 tribunal. Nothing in these provisions should be construed as authorizing or 2 encouraging a Receiving Party in this Action to disobey a lawful directive from 3 another court.

4 9. A NON-PARTY'S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE 5 PRODUCED IN THIS LITIGATION

6 (a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by 7 a Non-Party in this Action and designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" or 8 "CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY." Such information produced 9 by Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the remedies and 10 relief provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be construed as 11 prohibiting a Non-Party from seeking additional protections.

12 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request in 13 this Action, to produce a Non-Party's confidential information in its possession, 14 custody, or control, and the Party is subject to an agreement with the Non-Party not 15 to produce the Non-Party's confidential information, then the Party shall:

16 (1) promptly notify in writing the requesting party and the Non-17 Party that some or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality 18 agreement with a Non-Party;

19 (2) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated 20 Protective Order in this Action, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably 21 specific description of the information requested; and 22 (3) make the information requested available for inspection by the 23 Non-Party, if requested.

24 (c) If the Non-Party fails to seek a protective order from this Court 25 within 14 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Party 26 that received the discovery request may produce the Non-Party's confidential 27 information responsive to the discovery request. If the Non-Party timely seeks a 28 protective order, the Receiving Party shall not produce such information before a

1 determination by the Court. Absent a Court order to the contrary, the Non-Party 2 shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in this Court of its 3 Protected Material.

4 10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

5 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has 6 disclosed Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized 7 under this Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately 8 (a) notify in writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use 9 its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, 10 (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of 11 all the terms of this Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the 12 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as 13 Exhibit A.

14 11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE
15 PROTECTED MATERIAL

16 Nothing in this Order shall require production of information that a Party 17 contends is protected from disclosure by the attorney-client privilege, the work 18 product immunity, or other privilege, doctrine, right, or immunity. When a 19 Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain inadvertently 20 produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the 21 obligations of the Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil 22 Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to modify whatever 23 procedure may be established in an e-discovery order that provides for production 24 without prior privilege review. Pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 502(d), where the three 25 requirements described in Fed. R. Civ. P. 502(b) are satisfied such that inadvertent 26 production of a privileged or protected document is not a waiver of privilege or 27 protection from discovery in this case, it shall not operate as a waiver in any other 28 federal or state proceeding.

1 12. MISCELLANEOUS

2 12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of 3 any person to seek its modification by the Court in the future.

4 12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this 5 Protective Order, no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to 6 disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in 7 this Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on 8 any ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Stipulated 9 Protective Order.

10 12.3 Filing Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any 11 Protected Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5. Protected Material 12 may only be filed under seal pursuant to a Court order authorizing the sealing of 13 the specific Protected Material at issue. If a Party's request to file Protected 14 Material under seal is denied by the Court, then the Receiving Party may file the 15 information in the public record unless otherwise instructed by the Court.

16 12.3 Nothing in this Stipulated Protective Order shall in any way limit a 17 Designating Party's ability to use or disclose its own CONFIDENTIAL 18 Information or Items.

19 13. FINAL DISPOSITION

20 Within 60 days after final disposition of this Action, as defined in paragraph 21 4, each Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party 22 or destroy such material. As used in this subdivision, "all Protected Material" 23 includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries, and any other format 24 reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Whether the Protected 25 Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a written 26 certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the 27 Designating Party) by the 60-day deadline that (1) summarizes the Protected 28 Material that was returned or destroyed and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party

1 has not retained any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other format 2 reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Notwithstanding this 3 provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion 4 papers, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, legal memoranda, 5 correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work 6 product, and consultant and expert work product, even if such materials contain 7 Protected Material. Any such archival copies that contain or constitute Protected 8 Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in Section 4 9 (DURATION).

10 14. Any violation of this Order may be punished by any and all appropriate 11 measures including, without limitation, contempt proceedings and/or monetary 12 sanctions.
