Notification of Expenses Incurred by the United States Marshal RE:
In Forma Pauperis Personal Service on Defendant

To: The Honorable Judge Stevenson

RE: Plaintiff Kevin Cox v. Defendant California Department of Corrections & Rehab, et al.,

Case Number: CV 16-7928 JLS (KS)

The below listed expenses have been incurred directly as the result of the United States Marshal, Central District of California, performing personal service of the summons and complaint in the above titled action upon defendant California Department of Corrections & Rehabilitation and/or upon an individual who is among the class of persons who can accept service in the behalf of the defendant and/or who is legally competent to receive service of process within the usual dwelling place of abode of the defendant. The United States Marshal was ordered by the Court to personally serve this named defendant after a mailed waiver letter of service of process was not returned to the United States Marshal.

The United States Marshal for the Central district of California comes now to the Court concerning the instant In Forma Pauperis matter CV 16-7928 JLS (KS) in a request to have the Court ORDER the Defendant to reimburse the United States Marshal for the time and expense that was expended to personally serve him. The cost associated with this claim is evidenced on the attached form USM-285 in regards to the actual break-down of expenses resulting from Deputy Marshal time and vehicle mileage which is the customary basis for arriving at a monetary amount for this type of service of process activity. The United States Marshal for the Central District of California is now requesting a reimbursement of $74.07 from this Defendant California Department of Corrections & Rehabilitation.
