Proceedings: Order re: Failure to File Request to Proceed In Forma Pauperis

Plaintiff Kevin Taylor (“Plaintiff”), an inmate at California State Prison, Wasco, has filed a civil rights complaint under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 (“Complaint”). Plaintiff has neither paid the mandatory $400.00 filing fee, nor filed a request to proceed in forma pauperis, which must include a certified copy of his prison trust-fund statement and an authorization for disbursement of funds.

Accordingly, if Plaintiff wishes to proceed with this lawsuit, within thirty (30) days of the date of this Order he must (1) pay the full $400.00 filing fee; (2) file a request for in forma pauperis status along with the necessary accompanying documents; or (3) show cause in writing why he is unable to do so. The Clerk is directed to mail Plaintiff a blank copy of the district’s form in forma pauperis request (CV-060P). Plaintiff is expressly warned that his failure to timely comply with this Order may result in his lawsuit being dismissed for failure to prosecute.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
