 PROTECTIVE ORDER REGARDING
 CONTACTING PUTATIVE CLASS
 MEMBERS

District Judge:

Hon. Fernando M. Olguin, Ctrm. 6D

Magistrate Judge:

Jean P. Rosenbluth, Ctrm. 690

21
 22
 23 Having reviewed the Amended Stipulation and Protective Order re Contacting
 24 Putative Class Members, and good cause shown, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

25 (1) That Defendant Jackson Nurse Professionals, LLC (“JNP”) produce the 26 available last-known contact information (i.e., home address and phone numbers) of 27 its current and former employees who are or were employed by JNP in California at 28 any time between September 6, 2013 and the present;

1 (2) That, should Plaintiff's counsel seek to use this contact information in
2 this action for discovery purposes and/or to advise class members of this action,
3 Plaintiff's counsel shall inform each potential class member during the initial
4 communication, whether in writing or verbally:

5 (a) that he or she has a right not to talk to counsel and that, if he or
6 she elects not to talk to counsel, Plaintiff's counsel will terminate
7 the contact and not contact them again;

8 (b) that JNP was compelled by court order to disclose the contact
9 information;

10 (c) that the communication is highly confidential;

11 (d) that Plaintiff's counsel will not use his or her contact information
12 for any purpose outside of this action; and

13 (e) the identity and contact information of JNP's counsel of record in 14 this action, accompanied by a warning that JNP's counsel does
15 not represent the prospective class members.

16 (3) That Plaintiff's counsel will not use this contact information of the 17 prospective class members for any purpose outside of this action.
