Proceedings: (IN CHAMBERS) Order to Show Cause

On April 29, 2019, this Court ordered Plaintiff to file a First Amended Complaint by May 27, 2019. See Dkt. 95. On June 5, 2019, the Court received Plaintiff's service copy of its April 29 order after it was returned as undeliverable. See Dkt. 96. From the Bureau of Prisons website, it appears that Plaintiff is in a residential reentry center or "halfway house" as he nears his projected release date of August 13, 2019.

Local Rule 41-6 requires a pro se plaintiff to keep the Court apprised of his current address. Failure to maintain a current address creates the risk that a party will not receive the Court's orders or documents filed by opposing parties. As a result, the Court requires a party—even one proceeding in forma pauperis like Plaintiff—to maintain a current address.

Plaintiff's case has already been delayed due to a prior failure of Plaintiff's to keep the Court informed of his current address. See Dkt. 59. The Court's ability to determine this matter in a manner that is "just, speedy, and inexpensive" is impeded by Plaintiff's inability to comply with his obligations under the Local Rules.

The Court accordingly ORDERS Plaintiff to provide a current address to the Court within fourteen (14) days of this order. Notice to the Court of a current address shall be deemed a sufficient response to this order. Plaintiff is expressly warned that failure to notify the Court of a current address may result in a recommendation to the District Judge that this case be dismissed with or without prejudice for lack of prosecution.
