3. Designation of Information

B Documents and things produced or furnished during the course of this action
9 shall be designated as containing Confidential Information, including Confidential
10 Health Information, by placing on each page, each document (whether in paper or 11 electronic form), or each thing a legend substantially as follows:

CONFIDENTIAL

A party may designate information disclosed at a deposition as Confidential Information by requesting the reporter to so designate the transcript at the time of the deposition.

A producing party shall designate its discovery responses, responses to requests for admission, briefs, memoranda and all other papers sent to the court or to opposing counsel as containing Confidential Information when such papers are served or sent.

A party shall designate information disclosed at a hearing or trial as Confidential Information by requesting the court, at the time the information is proffered or adduced, to receive the information only in the presence of those persons designated to receive such information and court personnel, and to designate the transcript appropriately.

The parties will use reasonable care to avoid designating any documents or information as Confidential Information that is not entitled to such designation or which is generally available to the public. The parties shall designate only that part

7. Inadvertent Failure to Designate

5 In the event that a producing party inadvertently fails to designate any of its 6 information pursuant to paragraph 3, it may later designate by notifying the 7 receiving parties in writing. The receiving parties shall take reasonable steps to see 8 that the information is thereafter treated in accordance with the designation.

9 It shall be understood however, that no person or party shall incur any liability hereunder with respect to disclosure that occurred prior to receipt of 10 written notice of a belated designation. 11

8. Inadvertent Disclosure

13 In the event of an inadvertent disclosure of another party's Confidential Information to a non-Qualified Recipient, the party making the inadvertent 14 15 disclosure shall promptly upon learning of the disclosure: (i) notify the person to 16 whom the disclosure was made that it contains Confidential Information subject to 17 this Order; (ii) make all reasonable efforts to preclude dissemination or use of the 18 Confidential Information by the person to whom disclosure was inadvertently 19 made including, but not limited to, obtaining all copies of such materials from the 20 non-Qualified Recipient; and (iii) notify the producing party of the identity of the 21 person to whom the disclosure was made, the circumstances surrounding the 22 disclosure, and the steps taken to ensure against the dissemination or use of the consistent with the scheduling order 23 information.

1 agree as to whether the confidential designation of discovery material is 2 appropriate, the party receiving the Confidential Information shall certify to the 3 Court that the parties cannot reach an agreement as to the confidential nature of all 4 or a portion of the Confidential Information. Thereafter, the party disclosing or 5 producing the Confidential Information shall have ten days from the date of certification to file a motion for protective order with regard to any Confidential 6 7 Information in dispute. The party producing the Confidential Information shall 8 have the burden of establishing that the disputed Confidential Information is 9 entitled to confidential treatment. If the party producing the Confidential 10 Information does not timely file a motion for protective order, the Confidential 11 Information in dispute shall no longer be subject to confidential treatment as 12 provided in this Order. All Confidential Information is entitled to confidential 13 treatment pursuant to the terms of this Order until and unless the parties formally 14 agree in writing to the contrary, a party fails to timely move for a protective order, 15 or a contrary determination is made by the Court as to whether all or a portion of 16 designated Confidential Information is entitled to confidential treatment.

10. Conclusion of Action

At the conclusion of this action, including through all appeals, each party or other person subject to the terms hereof shall be under an obligation to destroy or return to the producing party all materials and documents containing Confidential Information and to certify to the producing party such destruction or return. Such return or destruction shall not relieve said parties or persons from any of the continuing obligations imposed upon them by this Order.

The provisions of this paragraph shall not be binding on the United States, any insurance company, or any other party to the extent that such provisions conflict with applicable Federal or State law. The Department of Justice, any insurance company, or any other party shall notify the producing party in writing of any such conflict it identifies in connection with a particular matter so that such matter can be resolved either by the parties or by the Court.

11. Jurisdiction to Enforce Protective Order

After the termination of this action, the Court will continue to have jurisdiction to enforce this Order.

12. Modification of Protective Order

7 This Order is without prejudice to the right of any person or entity to seek a
8 modification of this Order at any time either through stipulation or Order of the 9 Court.

13. Confidentiality of Party's Own Documents

11 Nothing herein shall affect the right of the designating party to disclose to its 12 officers, directors, employees, attorneys, consultants or experts, or to any other 13 person, its own information. Such disclosure shall not waive the protections of this 14 Protective Order and shall not entitle other parties or their attorneys to disclose 15 such information in violation of it, unless by such disclosure of the designating 16 party the information becomes public knowledge. Similarly, the Protective Order 17 shall not preclude a party from showing its own information, including its own 18 information that is filed under seal by a party, to its officers, directors, employees, 19 attorneys, consultants or experts, or to any other person.
