PROTECTIVE ORDER

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED by and between Plaintiffs, MALVIS CRISTAL SANCHEZ (Plaintiff(s)), and Defendant(s) NUTRIBULLET, LLC, CAPITAL BRANDS, LLC, HOMELAND HOUSEWARES, LLC, CALL TO ACTION, LLC AND NUTRILIVING (“Defendants”) (collectively the Plaintiffs and

1 Defendant(s) are referred to as the “Parties” and each individually as a “Party”), 2 through their counsel, that this Stipulated Protective Order shall govern the handling of 3 any information produced or disclosed by any Party or non-Party in the above captioned 4 matter (“Action”), including documents, depositions, deposition exhibits, interrogatory 5 responses, responses to requests for admission, and other pretrial proceedings.

6 GOOD CAUSE STATEMENT:

7 This action is likely to involve trade secrets and other valuable research, 8 development, commercial, financial, technical and/or proprietary information for which 9 special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than 10 prosecution of this action is warranted. Such confidential and proprietary materials and 11 information consist of, among other things, confidential business or financial 12 information, information regarding confidential business practices, or other confidential 13 research, development, or commercial information (including information implicating 14 privacy rights of third parties), information otherwise generally unavailable to the 15 public, or which may be privileged or otherwise protected from disclosure under state 16 or federal statutes, court rules, case decisions, or common law. Accordingly, to expedite 17 the flow of information, to facilitate the prompt resolution of disputes over 18 confidentiality of discovery materials, to adequately protect information the parties are 19 entitled to keep confidential, to ensure that the parties are permitted reasonable 20 necessary uses of such material in preparation for and in the conduct of trial, to address 21 their handling at the end of the litigation, and serve the ends of justice, a protective 22 order for such information is justified in this matter. It is the intent of the parties that 23 information will not be designated as confidential for tactical reasons and that nothing 24 be so designated without a good faith belief that it has been maintained in a 25 confidential, non-public manner, and there is good cause why it should not be part of 26 the public record of this case.

27 1. Any Party or non-Party may designate as confidential any documents, 28 materials, or information which the designating Party considers in good faith to contain

1 non-public, confidential or trade secret (information and which is disclosed through 2 formal or informal discovery in this Action (hereinafter “Confidential Material”) 3 including, but not limited to, any written response to interrogatories and requests for 4 admission, documents produced in response to requests for production of documents or 5 subpoenas, deposition transcripts including exhibits, and all information contained in 6 those materials (collectively “Discovery Materials”). The Parties reserve their rights to 7 jointly amend this Stipulation and to supplement the above list as additional categories 8 of Confidential Materials arise through the course of discovery.

9         2. Documents produced or written responses served in this Action in response to 10 a request for production, or otherwise, relating to matters that the designating Party 11 deems to be Confidential Material shall be designated as such at the time of production 12 or service of the response(s). Each document or page of a written response so 13 designated shall be marked with the word “Confidential.”

14         3. Any Party may designate certain Discovery Materials as “Confidential – 15 Attorneys’ Eyes Only” (hereinafter, “Attorneys’ Eyes Only Material”). This 16 designation shall be limited to such Discovery Materials that the designating Party 17 believes, in good faith, contain highly sensitive information, the disclosure of which is 18 likely to cause harm to the competitive position of the designating Party or the broader 19 disclosure of which would violate any Party or third parties’ constitutional right to 20 financial privacy. All Attorneys’ Eyes Only Materials are included within the meaning 21 of “Confidential” information as used in this Protective Order and, except with respect 22 to the classes of individuals who may view Attorneys’ Eyes Only Materials, all the 23 provisions set forth in the Protective Order that apply to Confidential Materials also 24 apply to Attorneys’ Eyes Only Materials. Documents produced or written responses 25 served in this Action in response to a request for production, or otherwise, relating to 26 matters that the designating Party deems to be Attorneys’ Eyes Only Material shall be 27 designated as such. Each document or page of a written response so designated shall be 28 marked with the words “Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only.”

1           4. The production of any document, evidence or testimony not marked as 2 Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only shall not constitute a waiver of any 3 claim of confidentiality that may attach to the document and such materials.

4           5. If any Party or non-Party inadvertently fails to designate any document(s) or 5 written response(s) to a discovery request as Confidential or Attorneys’ Eyes Only 6 Material at the time of production or service of the response, it may correct its error by 7 notifying opposing counsel in writing and providing opposing counsel substitute copies 8 of any document(s) or response(s) appropriately marked as Confidential or Confidential 9 – Attorneys’ Eyes Only. Within ten (10) days of receipt of the substitute copies, the 10 receiving Party shall return the previously unmarked items and all copies thereof.
11 Similarly, if any Party inadvertently designates any document(s) or written response(s) 12 as Confidential or Attorneys’ Eyes Only Material, it may correct its error by notifying 13 opposing counsel in writing and providing opposing counsel with substitute copies of 14 the document(s) or response(s) without the Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys’ 15 Eyes Only designation. Within ten (10) days of receipt of the substitute copies, the 16 receiving Party shall return the previously marked items and all copies thereof.

17           6. The receipt of any document, transcript, thing, or information designated 18 Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys’ Eyes Only shall not be construed as an 19 agreement by the receiving Party that any such document, transcript, thing, or 20 information is in fact Confidential or Attorneys’ Eyes Only Material, and shall not 21 operate as a waiver of the receiving Party’s right to challenge any such designation as 22 provided herein.

23           7. A Party may designate as Confidential or Attorneys’ Eyes Only Material, the 24 whole or a portion of any deposition testimony, regardless by whom given, which 25 contains or discloses Confidential or Attorneys’ Eyes Only Material. The Party 26 designating any portion of a deposition as Confidential or Attorneys’ Eyes Only 27 Material may do so on the record at the deposition or shall serve a written statement on 28 the Parties and court reporter specifying the portions of the deposition which are to be

1 designated as Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material within thirty (30) days 2 after receipt of the deposition transcript. Except as otherwise designated on the record, 3 the entire transcript shall be deemed Confidential prior to the expiration of the thirty-4 day period. If a document designated as Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material 5 is used as an exhibit at a deposition, that document and the deposition testimony 6 concerning it shall be deemed Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material regardless 7 of whether a Party makes any formal designation thereof.

8         8. A Party shall have the right to have the following persons excluded from a 9 deposition before the taking of testimony designated as Confidential Material or before 10 the introduction of documents or exhibits designated as Confidential Material: all 11 persons except the court reporter, counsel of record, the Parties' experts, the deponent 12 and the Parties (or their representatives who are involved in the handling, prosecution or 13 defense of this Action). Additionally, a Party shall have the right to exclude the Parties 14 (or their representatives) before the taking of testimony designated as Attorneys' Eyes 15 Only or before introducing exhibits designated as Attorneys' Eyes Only.

16         9. Confidential Material may be disclosed, given, shown, made available, or 17 communicated only to the following individuals and entities (and then only for purposes 18 of mediation or the prosecution or defense of this Action):

- 19         (a) the Court and court personnel;
- 20         (b) mediators, referees, or other neutral designees of the Court or the Parties 21             for the purpose of dispute resolution;
- 22         (c) court reporters who record depositions or other testimony in this action;
- 23         (d) outside counsel of record for the Parties, as well as their paralegals, 24             secretarial and clerical assistants, and employees of such counsel who are 25             actively working on this matter, including independent contractors 26             providing copy services or litigation support for the Parties;
- 27         (e) the Parties and their employees and insurers who are actively involved in 28             the prosecution or defense of this Action;

- 1 (f) independent experts that have been retained by the Parties in connection
2 with this Action;
- 3 (g) any individual or entity expressly named in the particular Confidential
4 Material as having authored or received the information contained in that 5 Confidential Material; and
- 6 (h) any other person or Party upon the written agreement of the Party or non-7 party that designated the Confidential Material (which agreement may be 8 recorded in a deposition or other transcript), or pursuant to court order after 9 regularly-noticed motion.

10 10. Attorneys' Eyes Only Material may be disclosed only to the following 11 persons:

- 12 (a) the Court and court personnel in accordance with paragraph 19 herein 13 below;
- 14 (b) mediators, referees, or other neutral designees of the Court or the Parties 15 for the purpose of dispute resolution;
- 16 (c) court reporters who record depositions or other testimony in this action;
- 17 (d) outside counsel of record for the Parties, as well as their paralegals, 18 secretarial and clerical assistants, and employees of such counsel who are 19 actively working on this matter,
- 20 (e) independent experts that have been retained by the Parties in connection 21 with this Action;
- 22 (f) any individual or entity expressly named in the particular Confidential
23 Material as having authored or received the information contained in that 24 Confidential Material; and
- 25 (g) any other person or Party upon the written agreement of the Party or non-26 Party that designated the Attorneys' Eyes Only Material (which agreement 27 may be recorded in a deposition or other transcript), or pursuant to court 28 order after regularly-noticed motion.

1           11.       In the event of a disclosure of Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only 2 Materials to a person not authorized to have had such disclosure made to him or her 3 under the provisions of this Stipulation and Protective Order, and in the event the Party 4 responsible for having made or allowed such disclosure becomes aware of such 5 disclosure, that Party shall immediately (a) notify in writing, counsel for the Party 6 whose Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material has thus been disclosed of all 7 relevant information concerning the nature and circumstances of such disclosure (b) use 8 its best efforts to retrieve all Confidential or Attorneys Eyes Only Materials (c) inform 9 the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of 10 this Order and (d) request such person or persons to execute "Exhibit A" that is attached 11 hereto. The responsible Party shall also take all reasonable measures promptly to 12 ensure that no further or greater unauthorized disclosure of Confidential or Attorneys' 13 Eyes Only Material is made by anyone.

14           12.       Before Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material may be disclosed 15 to third-party consultants and independent experts that are being used or will be used in 16 connection with this Action, such persons must execute a written Confidentiality 17 Agreement, in the form set forth in Exhibit A attached hereto ("Confidentiality 18 Agreement"), acknowledging and agreeing not to discuss or otherwise disclose any 19 material designated Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only with or to any 20 person except person permitted to receive such Discovery Materials pursuant hereto, 21 who if appropriate, has executed a Confidentiality Agreement. In the event that the 22 person executes the written agreement, the counsel disclosing the Confidential or 23 Attorneys' Eyes Only Materials shall maintain the executed written agreement.

24           13.       All Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material provided in discovery 25 or otherwise in connection with the above-captioned Action shall be used for the 26 prosecution or defense of this Action, and for no other purpose. Confidential or 27 Attorneys' Eyes Only Material shall not be used or disclosed for any business, 28 commercial or competitive purpose.

1           14.       Nothing herein shall prevent any of the Parties from using Confidential 2 or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material in any trial in this Action or from seeking further 3 protection with respect to the use of any Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material 4 in any trial in this Action. Means to preserve the confidentiality of Confidential or 5 Attorneys' Eyes Only Material presented at any trial shall be considered and, to the 6 extent reasonably possible, implemented in advance of such trial.

7           15.       A Party shall not be obligated to challenge the designation of any 8 documents or information as Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material at the time 9 the designation is made, and a failure to do so shall not preclude a subsequent challenge 10 to the designation. In the event of a dispute with respect to the designation of any 11 discovery material as Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material, counsel shall 12 attempt to resolve the dispute on an informal basis before presenting the matter to the 13 Court for resolution. If a resolution cannot be reached, the Party challenging the 14 Confidential or Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only designation shall send a written 15 notice to the designating Party identifying the challenged Confidential or Attorneys' 16 Eyes Only Material, stating the reasons that the Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only 17 Material is being challenged, and giving notice that the Party will move the Court to 18 remove the designation of such information as "Confidential" or "Confidential – 19 Attorneys' Eyes Only." Until such time as the challenge is resolved, such Confidential 20 or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material shall be maintained in accordance with this Stipulated 21 Protective Order.

22           16.       Nothing in this Stipulation and Protective Order shall be deemed in any 23 way to restrict the use of documents or information that are lawfully obtained or 24 publicly available to a Party independently from discovery in this action, whether or not 25 the same material has been obtained during the course of discovery in the action and 26 whether or not such documents or information have been designated as Confidential or 27 Confidential – Attorneys' Eyes Only.

28           17.       This Stipulated Protective Order may be modified at any time for good

1 cause shown, and shall not preclude any application to the Court seeking greater or 2 lesser protection for specific documents or seeking termination of the protection 3 provided hereunder for specific material or information.

4 18. Nothing in this Stipulated Protective Order shall limit or affect the right 5 of a Party to disclose or to authorize disclosure of Discovery Materials produced by that 6 Party.

7 19. All documents, transcripts, pleadings, motions, and other Discovery
8 Materials filed or lodged with the Court comprising, containing, or reflecting Attorneys' 9 Eyes Only Material shall be filed or lodged under seal pursuant to the Federal Rules of 10 Civil Procedure and or Local Rules, and shall designate the particular aspects of such 11 filings or lodging that contain Attorneys' Eyes Only Material.

12 20. The Parties shall meet and confer regarding the procedures for use of 13 any Confidential Materials or Attorney's Eyes Only Materials at trial and shall move 14 the Court for entry of an appropriate order.

15 21. No later than thirty (30) days from the unappealed or unappealable final 16 resolution or settlement of this action, all Confidential and Attorneys' Eyes Only 17 Material, including copies, extracts, or summaries of such materials, within the 18 possession, custody or control of counsel for a Party shall be delivered to counsel for 19 the Party who produced the Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material, or in lieu 20 thereof, shall certify in writing that all Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material 21 has been destroyed. Notwithstanding the above, counsel of record may retain a set of 22 pleadings, exhibits, and their own attorney and consultant work product for archival 23 purposes, including portions of any such papers that contain or disclose Confidential or 24 Attorneys' Eyes Only Material. Any such archival copies that contain or constitute 25 Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material remain subject to this Stipulated 26 Protective Order.

27 22. Nothing in this Stipulated and Protective Order shall be deemed to limit, 28 prejudice, or waive any right of the Parties: (a) to resist discovery with respect to, or to 1 seek to obtain additional or different protection for, material claimed to be protected 2 work product or privileged under federal or California law, material as to which a Party 3 claims a legal obligation not to disclose, or Material not required to be provided 4 pursuant to federal or California law; (b) to seek to modify or obtain relief from any 5 aspect of this Protective Order; (c) to object to the use, relevance or admissibility at trial 6 or otherwise of any material, whether or not designated in whole or in part as 7 Confidential Material governed by this Protective Order; or (d) otherwise to require that 8 discovery be conducted according to governing laws and rules.

9 23. This Stipulated Protective Order shall survive the final conclusion of this 10 Action and continue in full force and effect, and the Court shall retain jurisdiction to 11 enforce this Stipulated Protective Order.

12 By executing a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order, each of the attorneys 13 named below and the Parties they represent undertake to abide by and be bound by its 14 provisions.

15 24. The Defendants shall file a fully executed copy this Stipulated Protective 16 Order with the Court within five (5) court days of receipt of the executed Stipulated 17 Protective Order from Plaintiffs.
