CASE NO. 2:22-cv-04302 SVW(JEMx)
DISCOVERY MATTER

Hon. John E. McDermott, Courtroom 640

~~PROPOSED~~ STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

[Assigned to Hon. Stephen V. Wilson
Courtroom "10A"]

24 I. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

25 As the parties have represented that discovery in this action is likely to 26 involve production of confidential or private information for which special 27 protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than 28 prosecuting this litigation may be warranted, this Court enters the following

1 Protective Order. This Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures
2 or responses to discovery. The protection it affords from public disclosure and use 3 extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential 4 treatment under the applicable legal principles. Further, as set forth in Section 13.3, 5 below, this Protective Order does not entitle the parties to file confidential 6 information under seal. Rather, when the parties seek permission from the court to 7 file material under seal, the parties must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5 and 8 with any pertinent orders of District Judge Stephen V. Wilson. and Magistrate Judge 9 John E. McDermott.

10 If any material disclosed or obtained in the course of the instant litigation is 11 intended to be used for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation, the party 12 seeking public disclosure or dissemination of such materials must first seek approval 13 from the Court.

14 II. GOOD CAUSE STATEMENT

15 This action is likely to involve confidential information pertaining to 16 personnel records and other materials subject to privacy protections for which 17 special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than 18 prosecution of this action is warranted. Limiting disclosure of these documents to 19 the context of this litigation as provided herein will, accordingly, further important 20 law enforcement objections and interests, including the safety of personnel and the 21 public, as well as individual privacy rights of plaintiffs, the individual defendants, 22 and third parties. Such confidential materials and information consist of, among 23 other things, materials entitled to privileges and/or protections under the following:
24 United States Constitution, First Amendment; the California Constitution, Article I, 25 Section 1; California Penal Code §§ 832.5, 832.7 and 832.8; California Evidence
26 Code §§ 1040 and 1043 et. seq; the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. § 552; Health 27 Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPPA); the right to privacy; 28 decisional law relating to such provisions; and information otherwise generally

1 unavailable to the public, or which may be privileged or otherwise protected from 2 disclosure under state or federal statutes, court rules, case decisions, or common 3 law. Defendants also contend that such confidential materials and information 4 consist of materials entitled to the Official Information Privilege.

5 Confidential information with respect to the Defendants may include, but is 6 not limited to: personnel files; internal investigative files and documents; email and 7 written correspondence records; and policies and procedures that are kept from the 8 public in the ordinary course of business, as well as other information that is not 9 generally available to the public and is subject to the Official Information Privilege 10 and other privileges. Confidential information with financial records; email and 11 written correspondence records; video footage and/or photographs of the incident; 12 and psychological and medical notes, evaluations, reports, and treatment plans.

13 Testimony taken at a deposition may be designated as Confidential by making 14 a statement to that effect on the record at the deposition. Arrangements shall be 15 made with the court reporter transcribing the deposition to separately bind such 16 portions of the transcript containing information designated as Confidential, and to 17 label such portions appropriately. Confidential photographs, video or audio footage 18 obtained through the course of discovery or otherwise may not be used for any 19 purpose other than litigating this lawsuit. The parties agree to refrain from directly 20 or indirectly disclosing or publicly disseminating confidential deposition testimony,
21 and/or photographs, video or audio footage obtained through the course of discovery 22 or otherwise, specifically including, but not limited to, dissemination via billboard 23 advertisements, print and online media organizations, or any other internet posting 24 or social media. If any party intends to use such confidential materials for any 25 purpose other than litigating this lawsuit, the party seeking public disclosure must 26 first seek approval from the Court.

27 In light of the nature of the claims and allegations in this case and the parties' 28 representations that discovery in this case will involve the production of confidential

1 records, and in order to expedite the flow of information, to facilitate the prompt 2 resolution of disputes over confidentiality of discovery materials, to adequately 3 protect information the parties are entitled to keep confidential, to ensure that the 4 parties are permitted reasonable necessary uses of such material in connection with 5 this action, to address their handling of such material at the end of the litigation, and 6 to serve the ends of justice, a protective order for such information is justified in this 7 matter. The parties shall not designate any information/documents as confidential 8 without a good faith belief that such information/documents have been maintained 9 in a confidential, non-public manner, and that there is good cause or a compelling 10 reason why it should not be part of the public record of this case.

26 ///

27 ///

28 IV. SCOPE

1 The protections conferred by this Order cover not only Protected Material (as 2 defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from Protected 3 Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected Material; 4 and (3) any deposition testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties or their 5 Counsel that reveal Protected Material, other than during a court hearing or at trial.

6 Any use of Protected Material during a court hearing or at trial shall be 7 governed by the orders of the presiding judge. This Order does not govern the use 8 of Protected Material during a court hearing or at trial.

9 V. DURATION

10 Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations 11 imposed by this Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees 12 otherwise in writing or a court order otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be 13 deemed to be the later of (1) dismissal of all claims and defenses in this Action, with 14 or without prejudice; and (2) final judgment herein after the completion and 15 exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of this Action, 16 including the time limits for filing any motions or applications for extension of time 17 pursuant to applicable law.

18 VI. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

19 6.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection.

20 Each Party or Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under 21 this Order must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that 22 qualifies under the appropriate standards. The Designating Party must designate for 23 protection only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written 24 communications that qualify so that other portions of the material, documents, 25 items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept 26 unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

27 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations 28 that are shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper

1 purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber the case development process or to impose 2 unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the Designating 3 Party to sanctions.

4 If it comes to a Designating Party's attention that information or items that it 5 designated for protection do not qualify for protection, that Designating Party must 6 promptly notify all other Parties that it is withdrawing the inapplicable designation.

7 6.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in 8 this Order (see, e.g., second paragraph of Section 6.2(a) below), or as otherwise 9 stipulated or ordered, Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies for protection 10 under this Order must be clearly so designated before the material is disclosed or 11 produced.

12 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

13 (a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic documents, 14 but excluding transcripts of depositions), that the Producing Party affix at a 15 minimum, the legend "CONFIDENTIAL" (hereinafter "CONFIDENTIAL legend"), 16 to each page that contains protected material. If only a portion or portions of the 17 material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly 18 identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the 19 margins).

20 A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents available for inspection 21 need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated 22 which documents it would like copied and produced. During the inspection and 23 before the designation, all of the material made available for inspection shall be 24 deemed "CONFIDENTIAL." After the inspecting Party has identified the 25 documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine which 26 documents, or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order. Then, before 27 producing the specified documents, the Producing Party must affix the 28 "CONFIDENTIAL legend" to each page that contains Protected Material. If only a

1 portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing 2 Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate 3 markings in the margins).

4 (b) for testimony given in depositions that the Designating Party identifies on 5 the record, before the close of the deposition as protected testimony. Confidential 6 photographs, video or audio footage taken at a deposition may not be used for any 7 purpose other than litigating this lawsuit. The parties agree to refrain from directly 8 or indirectly disclosing or publicly disseminating confidential deposition testimony,
9 and/or photographs, video or audio footage obtained through the course of discovery 10 or otherwise, specifically including, but not limited to, print and online media 11 organizations, or any other internet posting or social media. If any party intends to 12 use such materials for any purpose other than litigating this lawsuit, the party 13 seeking public disclosure must first seek approval from the Court.

14 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary and for 15 any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the 16 exterior of the container or containers in which the information is stored the legend 17 “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information warrants 18 protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected 19 portion(s).

20 (d) The legend “CONFIDENTIAL” shall be affixed to documents and 21 other tangible items in a manner that does not obscure the information contained 22 thereon.

23 6.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent 24 failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive 25 the Designating Party’s right to secure protection under this Order for such material.
26 Upon timely correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable 27 efforts to assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this 28 Order.

1 VII. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

2 7.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a 3 designation of confidentiality at any time that is consistent with the Court’s 4 Scheduling Order.

5 7.2 Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute 6 resolution process under Local Rule 37-1 et seq.

7 7.3 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on 8 the Designating Party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper 9 purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other 10 parties) may expose the Challenging Party to sanctions. Unless the Designating 11 Party has waived or withdrawn the confidentiality designation, all parties shall 12 continue to afford the material in question the level of protection to which it is 13 entitled under the Producing Party’s designation until the Court rules on the 14 challenge.

15 VIII. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

16 8.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is 17 disclosed or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this 18 Action only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this Action. Such 19 Protected Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the 20 conditions described in this Order. When the Action has been terminated, a 21 Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of Section 14 below.

22 Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a 23 location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons 24 authorized under this Order.

25 8.2 Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless 26 otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a 27 Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated 28 “CONFIDENTIAL” only to:

1 (a) the Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel of Record in this Action, as well
2 as employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary
3 to disclose the information for this Action;

4 (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of the 5 Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action;

6 (c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom 7 disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action and who have signed the 8 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

9 (d) the court and its personnel;

10 (e) court reporters and their staff;

11 (f) professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and Professional 12 Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action and who have 13 signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

14 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a 15 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information;

16 (h) during their depositions, witnesses, and attorneys for witnesses, in the 17 Action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary provided: (1) the deposing party 18 requests that the witness sign the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” 19 form attached as Exhibit A hereto; and (2) they will not be permitted to keep any 20 confidential information unless they sign the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to 21 Be Bound” attached as Exhibit A, unless otherwise agreed by the Designating Party 22 or ordered by the court. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to 23 depositions that reveal Protected Material may be separately bound by the court 24 reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted under this 25 Protective Order; and 26 (i) any mediator or settlement officer, and their supporting personnel, 27 mutually agreed upon by any of the parties engaged in settlement discussions.

28 IX. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED

1 PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION

2 If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation 3 that compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this Action as 4 “CONFIDENTIAL,” that Party must:

5 (a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall 6 include a copy of the subpoena or court order unless prohibited by law;

7 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to 8 issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena 9 or order is subject to this Protective Order. Such notification shall include a copy of 10 this Protective Order; and 11 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued 12 by the Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

13 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with 14 the subpoena or court order shall not produce any information designated in this 15 action as “CONFIDENTIAL” before a determination by the court from which the 16 subpoena or order issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party’s 17 permission, or unless otherwise required by the law or court order. The Designating 18 Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in that court of its 19 confidential material and nothing in these provisions should be construed as 20 authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this Action to disobey a lawful 21 directive from another court.

22 X. A NON-PARTY'S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE 23 PRODUCED IN THIS LITIGATION

24 (a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a Non-25 Party in this Action and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.” Such information 26 produced by Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the 27 remedies and relief provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be 28 construed as prohibiting a Non-Party from seeking additional protections.

1 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to 2 produce a Non-Party's confidential information in its possession, and the Party is 3 subject to an agreement with the Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party's 4 confidential information, then the Party shall:

5 (1) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party that 6 some or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement 7 with a Non-Party;

8 (2) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Protective Order in 9 this Action, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably specific description 10 of the information requested; and 11 (3) make the information requested available for inspection by the Non-12 Party, if requested.

13 (c) If a Non-Party represented by counsel fails to commence the process 14 called for by Local Rules 45-1 and 37-1, et seq. within 14 days of receiving the 15 notice and accompanying information or fails contemporaneously to notify the 16 Receiving Party that it has done so, the Receiving Party may produce the Non-17 Party's confidential information responsive to the discovery request. If an 18 unrepresented Non-Party fails to seek a protective order from this court within 14
19 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving Party 20 may produce the Non-Party's confidential information responsive to the discovery 21 request. If the Non-Party timely seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party shall 22 not produce any information in its possession or control that is subject to the 23 confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by the court 24 unless otherwise required by the law or court order. Absent a court order to the 25 contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in 26 this court of its Protected Material.

27 ///

28 XI. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

1 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed 2 Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this 3 Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the 4 Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve 5 all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person or persons to 6 whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, and (d) 7 request such person or persons to execute the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to 8 Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

9 XII. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE
10 PROTECTED MATERIAL

11 When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain 12 inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, 13 the obligations of the Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil 14 Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure 15 may be established in an e-discovery order that provides for production without 16 prior privilege review. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) and (e), insofar 17 as the parties reach an agreement on the effect of disclosure of a communication or 18 information covered by the attorney-client privilege or work product protection, the 19 parties may incorporate their agreement into this Protective Order.

20 XIII. MISCELLANEOUS

21 13.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any 22 person to seek its modification by the Court in the future.

23 13.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. No Party waives any right it 24 otherwise would have to object to disclosing or producing any information or item 25 on any ground not addressed in this Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives 26 any right to object on any ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered 27 by this Protective Order.

28 13.3 Filing Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any

1 Protected Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5 and with any pertinent 2 orders of the assigned District Judge and Magistrate Judge. If a Party's request to 3 file Protected Material under seal is denied by the court, then the Receiving Party 4 may file the information in the public record unless otherwise instructed by the 5 court.

6 XIV. FINAL DISPOSITION

7 After the final disposition of this Action, as defined in Section 5, within 60 8 days of a written request by the Designating Party, each Receiving Party must return 9 all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy such material. As used in 10 this subdivision, "all Protected Material" includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, 11 summaries, and any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected 12 Material. Whether the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving 13 Party must submit a written certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same 14 person or entity, to the Designating Party) by the 60 day deadline that (1) identifies 15 (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material that was returned or 16 destroyed and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies, 17 abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other format reproducing or capturing any 18 of the Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to 19 retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing 20 transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert 21 reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work product, even if such 22 materials contain Protected Material. Any such archival copies that contain or 23 constitute Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in 24 Section 5.
