Proceedings: (In Chambers) Order to Show Cause Why Order for Judgment Debtor Examination of Alana Anaya Should Not Be Vacated

On April 18, 2016, the court granted plaintiff's application to examine Alana B. Anaya regarding enforcement of the judgment in this case. That application indicated Alana Anaya is a judgment debtor in this case. But as defendant pointed out in an objection filed on April 21, 2016, Alana Anaya is not a judgment debtor. Rather, the judgment is solely against defendant Anaya Law Group. Docket no. 74.

Accordingly, plaintiff is ordered to show cause on or before April 29, 2016 why the order for a judgment debtor examination of Alana Anaya should not be vacated. Absent a satisfactory response by that date, the court will vacate the order.

Plaintiff may also submit an application for an examination of a third person regarding enforcement of the judgment, but any such application must be supported by an affidavit as required by California Code of Civil Procedure §§ 491.110 and 708.120.
