Case No. EDCV 14-2257 JGB
 (SPx)

PROTECTIVE ORDER
 REGARDING DISCLOSURE
 OF CONFIDENTIAL
 INFORMATION

[NOTE CHANGES MADE BY
 THE COURT IN ¶¶ 4, 6, 9]

26 Pursuant to the stipulation executed by Plaintiff and Defendants, the Court issues
 27 the following protective order:

28 A. ITEMS COVERED BY THIS PROTECTIVE ORDER

1. The protective order applies only to the following:

- a. The Los Angeles Police Department's Internal Affairs Investigation which relates to Plaintiff Donovan Rolston's complaint regarding the incident underlying the complaint in this case.

1 2. Should any party wish to stamp any of the above records as
2 “CONFIDENTIAL” that party may not stamp the records in such a way as to cover any
3 written portion of the records. The documents must remain completely legible.

4 3. Birth dates and social security numbers may be redacted from the records
5 produced, which are NOT covered by this protective order.

6 B. USE OF RECORDS

7 1. Absent further order of the Court, the items covered by this protective order
8 may be used in this case only, including any appeals, and not for any other purpose
9 whatsoever.

10 2. Items covered by this protective order, including any related copies,
11 summaries, extracts, notes, photographs, memos, audiotapes and transcripts, shall not 12 be disclosed, except to the following persons:

13 a. The attorneys of record, including legal assistants, paralegals,
14 investigators and clerical employees working under counsel’s supervision,
15 as well as outside copying, graphic, computer services, and court reporters
16 performing services in connection with this action;

17 b. Experts, consultants, investigators and their employees, retained 18 and/or consulted by the attorneys of record to assist in the preparation of 19 this action;

20 c. The parties, including their officers, agents and employees who 21 are directly assisting counsel with the conduct or resolution of this action;

22 d. Witnesses while being examined by counsel at a deposition or 23 trial. However, if the item is attached as an exhibit to a deposition
24 transcript, the copy attached as an exhibit shall be redacted to omit names,
25 birth dates, social security numbers, and addresses.

26 3. Before any disclosure of the items covered by this protective order, they will 27 inform any person identified in Paragraph 2 above, of the terms of the protective order.

28 4. If any party wishes to disclose items covered by this protective order to any

1 person other than those listed in Paragraph 2 above, that party shall give written notice
2 to the non-disclosing party so that the non-disclosing party can make a motion to prevent
3 the disclosure. Any such motion must be made in compliance with Local Rule 37. The 4 party wishing to disclose the information will not do so unless and until agreement
5 with the other party is reached, or the other party's motion is ruled on by the court. If,
6 however, the other party does not file its motion within two weeks of the notice, the 7 party wishing to disclose the information may deem the issue to have been abandoned.

8 5. Upon final determination of this action, whether by judgment, settlement or 9 otherwise, including all appeals, and upon the producing party's request, Plaintiff shall 10 return those items, along with all copies, to the producing party. Any messenger or 11 postage fees shall be paid by the requesting party. In the alternative, the producing party
12 may request the items be destroyed. This provision does not obligate the Court to act in 13 a certain matter in relation to the confidential documents.

14 6. If any party who receives Confidential Information receives a subpoena or 15 other request seeking Confidential Information, he, she or it shall immediately give 16 written notice to the Defendants' counsel, identifying the Confidential Information
17 sought and the time in which production or other disclosure is required, and shall object 18 to the request or subpoena on the grounds of this stipulation so as to afford the 19 Defendants an opportunity to obtain an order barring production or other disclosure, or 20 to otherwise respond to the subpoena or other request for production or disclosure of 21 Confidential Material. Other than objecting on the grounds of this stipulation, no party
22 shall be obligated to seek an order barring production of Confidential Information, which 23 obligation shall be borne by the Defendants. However, in no event should production or 24 disclosure be made without written approval by the Defendants' counsel unless required
25 by court order arising from a motion to compel production or disclosure of Confidential
26 Information. Nothing in this order should be construed as authorizing or encouraging 27 a party to disobey a lawful directive from another court.

28 7. Any pleadings, motions, briefs, declarations, stipulations, exhibits or other

1 written submissions to the Court in this litigation which contains or discloses
2 confidential information shall be filed and maintained under Local Rule 79-5, which 3 governs the filing of documents under seal. If confidential material is included in any
4 papers to be filed in Court, such papers shall be accompanied by an application to file
5 the papers – or the confidential portion thereof – under seal; the application must 6 demonstrate good cause for the under seal filing. The application shall be directed to the 7 judge to whom the papers are directed. Pending the ruling on the application, the papers
8 or portions thereof subject to the sealing application shall be lodged under seal.

9 8. At the commencement of trial, unless good cause is shown, the terms of the 10 protective order are dissolved, except for the return of the confidential documents to the 11 party providing them at the completion of the case.

12 9. Any use of Confidential Information at trial, or in open court during pretrial
13 proceedings, shall be governed by the orders of the presiding judge. This order does not 14 govern the use of Confidential Information at trial.

15 10. Nothing herein shall prejudice any party's rights to object to the introduction
16 of any Confidential Information into evidence, on grounds including but not limited to 17 relevance and privilege.

18 11. This Stipulation may be signed in parts and may be transmitted by facsimile
19 as if it were the original document.

20 C. OTHER

21 1. The execution of this protective order shall not preclude any party from 22 moving the court for other or further protective orders during this action.
