Proceedings: (In Chambers) Order to Show Cause Why Complaint Should Not Be Dismissed for Failure to Prosecute

On August 5, 2016, plaintiff O'Shea Davaughn Mann, proceeding pro se, lodged a civil rights complaint pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. His complaint alleged that his civil rights were violated while he was incarcerated at the West Valley Detention Center, and during his parole revocation proceeding in 2016. On June 19, 2017, this court, having completed screening of the complaint, dismissed it with leave to file a First Amended Complaint by July 19, 2017. Over two weeks having passed beyond this deadline, the court has not received a First Amended Complaint or any other communication from plaintiff.

Accordingly, within twenty-one (21) days of the date of this Order, that is, by August 28, 2017, plaintiff is ORDERED TO SHOW CAUSE, in writing, why this action should not be dismissed for failure to prosecute and/or comply with a court order. Plaintiff is cautioned that his failure to timely file a response to this Order to Show Cause will be deemed by the court as consent to the dismissal of this action without prejudice. In the event plaintiff wishes to voluntarily dismiss this action, plaintiff may complete and return the enclosed Notice of Dismissal form by August 28, 2017.

If plaintiff files a First Amended Complaint by August 28, 2017, this Order to Show Cause will be automatically discharged, and plaintiff need not respond to it separately.
