Proceedings: Order re: Stipulated Protective Order [Dkt. 20]

The parties' proposed Stipulation and Protective Order has been referred by the District Judge to the Magistrate Judge for consideration. The parties are advised that the Court declines to issue the proposed protective order because there are substantial and significant differences between the parties' stipulation and the proposed order lodged with the Court, such that the parties' intent is unclear.

The parties are directed to the Court's sample stipulated protective order located on the Court's website for a sample of the format of an approved stipulated protective order. The parties are strongly encouraged to use the language contained in the approved stipulated protective order.
