Proceedings:	(IN CHAMBERS) Order to Show Cause Re: Current Address

On September 25, 2024, the Court issued a judgment dismissing Plaintiff's claims against John Doe without prejudice for failure to prosecute. See Dkt. 35. The judgment, as well as the Court's order reopening the case after it was previously closed in error, were returned as undeliverable. See Dkts. 37, 38.

Local Rule 41-6 requires a party proceeding pro se to "keep the Court and all other parties informed of the party's current address as well as any telephone number and email address." The Rule allows for dismissal for failure to comply: "If a Court order or other mail served on a pro se plaintiff at his address of record is returned by the Postal Service as undeliverable and the pro se party has not filed a notice of change of address within 14 days of the service date of the order or other Court document, the Court may dismiss the action with or without prejudice for failure to prosecute."

Accordingly, Plaintiff is ordered to provide a current address to the Court within fourteen (14) days of this order. Failure to do so may result in the case being dismissed with prejudice for failure to prosecute. Once Plaintiff has done so, the Court will order service on the remaining defendants in this case.
