

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

INTAMIN, LTD,

Plaintiff,

vs.

MAGNETAR TECHNOLOGIES
CORP.,

Defendant.

CASE NO.: CV 04-511 GAF

PARTIAL JUDGMENT

[FED. R. CIV. P. 54(b)]

Defendant Magnetar Technologies Corporation (“Magnetar”), having moved for summary judgment on Plaintiff Intamin Ltd.’s (“Intamin”) claim that a magnetic braking system manufactured by Magnetar infringed United States Patent Number 6,062,350 (“the ‘350 patent”), and the Court having granted the motion on multiple grounds stated in its “MEMORANDUM AND ORDER REGARDING DEFENDANTS’ MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT,” and the parties having requested entry of judgment on the patent infringement claims to permit appeal while the parties litigate Magnetar’s counterclaims,

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that:

1. Intamin take nothing by virtue of its claim that Magnetar infringed the patent infringement claims;

2. The issues of attorney's fees and costs to be resolved in proceedings in the district court and to be included in the final judgment entered at the conclusion of all proceedings in this case.

Dated: August 26, 2009

UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE