SUMMARY OF THE CASE

Plaintiff/Counterdefendant Entrepreneur Media, Inc. ("EMI") filed this action against Defendants EYGN Limited ("EYGN"), Ernst & Young LLP ("E&Y") and Ernst & Young Advisory, Inc. ("Advisory") (collectively, the "E&Y California Defendants"), seeking, inter alia, (1) declaratory relief to allow EMI to continue to use the designation "Entrepreneur® Magazine's 2008 Entrepreneur® of the Year" in connection with a contest and awards program it launched this year, and (2) cancellation of EYGN's federal registrations for the marks ENTREPRENEUR OF THE YEAR and WORLD ENTREPRENEUR OF THE YEAR.

EYGN owns an incontestable federal registration for the mark ENTREPRENEUR OF THE YEAR, and its licensee, E&Y, has held a contest under that mark for many years. On June 2, 2008, after EYGN objected to the designation used for EMI's 2008 contest and awards program, EMI filed this action in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California (the "California EMI, which owns a number of incontestable federal registrations for Action"). the mark ENTREPRENEUR, contends that the ENTREPRENEUR OF THE YEAR trademark is generic and is otherwise unenforceable, and that EYGN is improperly seeking to prevent EMI from holding the "Entrepreneur® Magazine's 2008 Entrepreneur® of the Year" contest and awards program. EMI has pleaded that, alternatively, EYGN's ENTREPRENEUR OF THE YEAR mark is, at most, a highly descriptive and thus weak mark such that EMI's use of "Entrepreneur® Magazine's 2008 Entrepreneur® of the Year" is not likely to cause confusion and, hence, not an infringement of EYGN's mark.

On July 28, 2008, EYGN and E&Y filed a lawsuit in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York against EMI styled EYGN Ltd. and Ernst & Young LLP v. Entrepreneur Media, Inc., Case No. 08 CV 6734 (the "New York Action"), seeking, inter alia, (1) an injunction prohibiting EMI from using the ENTREPRENEUR OF THE YEAR trademark, (2) monetary relief, and (3) cancellation of various U.S. trademark/service mark registrations owned by EMI for ENTREPRENEUR-inclusive marks. EYGN (subject to an assertion that it is not amenable to jurisdiction in California) and E&Y also filed counterclaims in the California Action on this date, alleging the same causes as in the New York Action.

EMI has filed a motion with this Court to enjoin prosecution of the New York Action. (EMI has also filed a motion in the New York Action to stay and/or transfer that action pending determination of the motion filed in this Court; that motion is not yet scheduled for hearing.) The E&Y California Defendants intend to file cross motions for dismissal and/or transfer of the California Action. Although the EMI motion is currently on calendar for November 10, 2008, the parties will be submitting a stipulation and proposed order setting a schedule that will allow both parties' motions to be heard at the same time. The parties have not conducted discovery in either action, and have been engaged in extensive and ongoing settlement negotiations.

CLAIMS AND DEFENSES

EMI

EMI has asserted that (1) the claimed ENTREPRENEUR OF THE YEAR mark of EYGN is invalid, unenforceable and should be canceled, and (2) EMI's use of the designation "Entrepreneur® Magazine's 2008 Entrepreneur® of the Year" for its contest and awards program is non-infringing and/or otherwise allowed even if the claimed ENTREPRENEUR OF THE YEAR mark is not wholly invalid or unenforceable.

EMI seeks declaratory relief that the claimed mark is invalid and unenforceable and should be canceled, that EYGN's alleged rights in the phrase

"ENTREPRENEUR OF THE YEAR" are non-existent, invalid and unenforceable, and/or that use of the designations "Entrepreneur Magazine's 2008 Entrepreneur® OF THE YEAR" and "Entrepreneur Magazine's 2008 Emerging Entrepreneur® OF THE YEAR" are, under federal law and state common law, (a) fair use, (b) nominative use, (c) non-infringing, and/or (d) an otherwise allowed use of the registered (and purported common law) ENTREPRENEUR OF THE YEAR mark.

E&Y California Defendants

The E&Y California Defendants assert that this Court lacks authority to hear the claims against EYGN (owner of the ENTREPRENEUR OF THE YEAR marks) and Advisors due to lack of personal and/or subject matter jurisdiction, and that this venue is inappropriate because, inter alia, EMI's complaint was an anticipatory filing. The E&Y California Defendants also assert that there is no merit to EMI's genericness claim and claim that EYGN's ENTREPRENEUR OF THE YEAR mark is weak, particularly in view of the two decades of use and EYGN's ownership of incontestable rights in the mark. The E&Y California Defendants have also asserted as defenses that the Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted; improper service; waiver, acquiescence, estoppel and/or laches; and unclean hands.

EYGN (subject to an assertion that it is not amenable to jurisdiction in California) and E&Y have asserted counterclaims for infringement of EYGN's federally registered trademark under 15 U.S.C. § 1114(1); federal unfair competition under 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a); unfair competition under New York common law; violation of the New York Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act; and Cancellation of EMI registrations for various ENTREPRENEUR-inclusive marks on the grounds that they are, when used on or in connection with EMI's goods or services, generic and/or merely descriptive and lacking secondary meaning.
