RE: Pringle v. William Adams, et al.

Dear Tal:

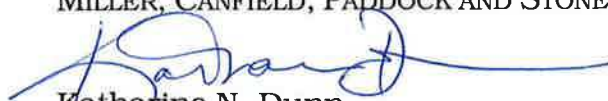

We are in receipt of the documents marked as Riesterer0000001-0000037 and Shapiro0000001-0007497. Please advise whether those documents are a complete document production by Defendants Shapiro, Bernstein & Co., Inc. and Mr. Riesterer. Assuming that those Defendants' document production is complete, we write to request a meet and confer with respect to the Defendants' document production on what we have evaluated as a variety of issues. We further write to request a meet and confer with respect to the lack of production of any documents by Mr. Guetta.

First, we note that many of the documents have been improperly redacted despite both "confidential" and "highly confidential" designations. Second, we believe that many of the documents have been improperly designated in both the "confidential" and "highly confidential" categories and we would like to challenge many of the designations. And, lastly, we note that the document production is woefully deficient in substance, with entire categories of documents (such as emails) withheld based on what we believe to be improper objections by Defendants.

As you know, Mr. Riesterer's deposition is scheduled to proceed on Thursday. Accordingly, given such a short timeframe, we request a meet and confer tomorrow, June 21, 2011, with respect to the Defendants' document production. Please advise as to your availability.

Very truly yours,

MILLER, CANFIELD, PADDOCK AND STONE, P.L.C.
