CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

Consumer Financial Protection Bureau,

Plaintiff,

v.

Vincent Howard, Lawrence
Williamson, Howard Law, P.C., The Williamson Law Firm, LLC, and Williamson & Howard, LLP,

Defendants.

Case No. 8:17-CV-00161 (JLS) (JEMx)

[PROPOSED] STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

HON. JOSEPHINE L. STATON
Courtroom 10-A (Santa Ana)

1 This matter having come before the Court, pursuant to Rule 26(c) of the Federal 2 Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff, the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau
3 (“Bureau”), and Defendants, Vincent Howard, Lawrence W. Williamson, Howard Law, 4 P.C., The Williamson Law Firm, LLC, and Williamson & Howard, LLP (collectively 5 with the Bureau, “Parties”), having stipulated to the process set forth herein, it is hereby 6 ORDERED:

7 1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

8 Discovery in this Action may involve production of confidential, personally 9 identifiable information requiring special protection from public disclosure. Accordingly, 10 the Parties stipulate to and petition the Court to enter this Stipulated Protective Order.
11 The Parties acknowledge that this Order does not confer blanket protections on all 12 disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection it affords from public 13 disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to 14 confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles. This Order does not 15 automatically authorize the filing under seal of material designated under this Order.
16 Instead, the Parties must comply with Local Rule 79-5 if they seek to file anything under 17 seal. This Order does not govern the use at trial of material designated under this Order.

18 2. DEFINITIONS

19 2.1 Action: This case, Consumer Financial Protection Bureau v. Vincent Howard, 20 Lawrence W. Williamson, Howard Law, P.C., The Williamson Law Firm, LLC, and 21 Williamson & Howard, LLP, Case No. 8:17-CV-00161, pending in the United States 22 District Court for the Central District of California.

23 2.2 Challenging Party: A Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation of 24 information or items under this Order.

25 2.3 CONFIDENTIAL Information or Items: Information (regardless of how it is 26 generated, stored, or maintained) or tangible things containing Personally Identifiable 27 Information.

28 2.4 Counsel: Outside Counsel of Record and House Counsel (as well as their support 1 staff).

2 2.5 Designating Party: A Party or Non-Party that designates information or items that 3 it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as CONFIDENTIAL.

4 2.6 Disclosure or Discovery Material: All items or information, regardless of the 5 medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, among 6 other things, testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or 7 generated in disclosures or responses to discovery in this matter.

8 2.7 Expert: A person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent 9 to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an expert 10 witness or as a consultant in this Action, unless and until such person is excluded by 11 order of the Court.

12 2.8 House Counsel: Attorneys who are employees of a Party to this Action. House 13 Counsel does not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other outside counsel.

14 2.9 Law Enforcement Personnel: Employees of a United States federal or state entity 15 charged with enforcing criminal or civil laws.

16 2.10 Non-Party: Any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or other 17 legal entity not named as a Party to this Action.

18 2.11 Outside Counsel of Record: Attorneys who are not employees of a Party to this 19 Action but are retained to represent or advise a Party to this Action and have appeared 20 in this Action on behalf of that Party or are affiliated with a law firm that has appeared 21 on behalf of that Party, including support staff.

22 2.12 Party: Any party to this Action, including all of its officers, directors, employees, 23 consultants, contractors, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record.

24 2.13 Personally Identifiable Information: information which can be used to distinguish 25 or trace an individual's identity, such as their name, address, social security number, 26 biometric records, financial account number, driver's license number, etc., alone or 27 when combined with other personal or identifying information which is inked or 28 linkable to a specific individual, such as date and place of birth, mother's maiden

1 name, etc."

2 2.14 Producing Party: A Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or Discovery
3 Material in this Action.

4 2.15 Professional Vendors: Persons or entities that provide litigation-support services 5 (e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or demonstrations, 6 and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) and their 7 employees and subcontractors.

8 2.16 Protected Material: Any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated as 9 CONFIDENTIAL.

10 2.17 Receiving Party: A Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material from a 11 Producing Party.

12 3. SCOPE

13 The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected 14 Material (as defined above), but also: (1) any information copied or extracted from 15 Protected Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected 16 Material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties or their 17 Counsel that might reveal Protected Material.

18 Any use of Protected Material at trial shall be governed by the orders of the trial 19 judge. This Order does not govern the use of Protected Material at trial, except as stated 20 explicitly herein.

21 4. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

22 4.1 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this Order 23 or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies 24 for protection under this Order must be clearly so designated before the material is 25 disclosed or produced.

26 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

27 (a) For information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic documents, but 28 excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the

1 Producing Party affix at a minimum, the legend CONFIDENTIAL, to the media on 2 which such information is produced, and if practicable on each page that contains 3 protected material. If only a portion of the material on a page qualifies for protection, 4 and if practicable, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected 5 portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins). For information in 6 non-static documentary form (e.g., spreadsheets) for which the application of the 7 legend CONFIDENTIAL is impracticable, a slip or cover sheet with the legend
8 CONFIDENTIAL shall be provided.

9 A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents available for inspection need 10 not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated which 11 documents it would like copied and produced. During the inspection and before the 12 designation, all of the material made available for inspection shall be deemed 13 CONFIDENTIAL. After the inspecting Party has identified the documents it wants 14 copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine which documents, or 15 portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order. Then, before producing the 16 specified documents, the Producing Party must affix the CONFIDENTIAL legend to 17 each page that contains Protected Material. If only a portion of the material on a page 18 qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected 19 portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

20 (b) For testimony given in depositions, the protected testimony the Designating 21 Party identifies: (i) on the record before the close of the deposition; or (ii) up to 14 22 days after receipt of the deposition transcript if on the record during the deposition or 23 in writing before the end of the next business day after the deposition, the Designating 24 Party indicates an intent to so identify protected testimony. Before the expiration of 25 the 14-day period for designation, a transcript shall be treated during that period as if 26 it had been designated CONFIDENTIAL unless otherwise agreed.

27 (c) For information produced in some form other than documentary and for any 28 other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the 1 exterior of the container or containers in which the information is stored the 2 CONFIDENTIAL legend. If only a portion or portions of the information warrants

3 protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected 4 portion(s).

5 4.2 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to 6 designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the 7 Designating Party's right to secure protection under this Order for such material.
8 Upon timely correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable 9 efforts to assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this 10 Order.

11 5. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

12 5.1 Timing of Challenges. A party objecting to the designation of any document as 13 CONFIDENTIAL may challenge such designation at any time or request the party 14 making such designation identify what information it contends is CONFIDENTIAL.
15 Unless a prompt challenge to a confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid 16 foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic burdens or significant 17 disruption or delay of the litigation, a party does not waive its right to challenge a 18 confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the 19 original designation is disclosed.

20 5.2 Treatment of Challenged Material. In the event a party challenges any designation
21 of information as CONFIDENTIAL, such information shall be deemed confidential 22 under this Order until the challenge is resolved pursuant to the terms of this Order.

23 5.3 Process for Challenge. A party that challenges a CONFIDENTIAL designation 24 must do so in writing to the designating party. The Challenging Party must identify 25 the challenged material and must give the Designating Party an opportunity to review 26 the designated material, to reconsider the circumstances, and, if no change in 27 designation is offered, to explain the basis for the asserted designation. Following 28 written notice to the Designating Party of a challenge, the parties shall have fourteen

1 (14) days to attempt an informal resolution of the dispute. If attempts at an informal 2 resolution prove unsuccessful, or the Designating Party is unwilling to participate in 3 the meet and confer process, the Challenging Party may notify the Designating Party 4 in writing that it is invoking the final stage of the challenge process.

5 5.4 Court Review. After the Challenging Party notifies the Designating Party in 6 writing that it is invoking the final stage of the challenge process, the Designating 7 Party if it seeks to maintain the CONFIDENTIAL designation shall, within 21 days of 8 such notification, file a motion with the Court pursuant to Local Rule 37-2.2-4.

9 Pursuant to Local Rule 37-1 the Designating Party shall certify to the Court that the 10 parties have made sincere, good faith efforts to resolve the dispute. Failure by the 11 designating party to file a motion pursuant to Local Rule 37-2.2-4 within 21 days shall 12 automatically waive the confidentiality designation for each challenged designation.

13 The designating party shall have the burden to establish that the information has been 14 appropriately designated as CONFIDENTIAL under the terms of this Order and 15 applicable law. Frivolous challenges and designations, and those made for an 16 improper purpose (e.g., to harass or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on 17 other parties) may expose the challenging or designating party to sanctions.

18 6. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

19 6.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is disclosed 20 or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this Action only 21 for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this Action unless another use is 22 authorized by this Order or permitted by federal statute or regulation applicable to the 23 Bureau. Such Protected Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons 24 and under the conditions described in this Order and as permitted by federal statute or 25 regulation applicable to the Bureau. When the Action has been terminated, a 26 Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of section 10 below (FINAL 27 DISPOSITION). Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving 28 Party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the 1 persons authorized under this Order.

2 6.2 Disclosure of CONFIDENTIAL Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered 3 by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a Receiving Party may 4 disclose any information or item designated CONFIDENTIAL only to:

5 (a) The Receiving Party's Outside Counsel of Record in this Action, as well as 6 employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary to 7 disclose the information for this Action;

8 (b) The officers, directors, employees (including House Counsel) and contractors
9 of the Receiving Party;

10 (c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is 11 reasonably necessary for this Action and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and 12 Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);

13 (d) The court and its personnel;

14 (e) Court reporters and their staff;

15 (f) Professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and Professional Vendors to 16 whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action and who have signed the 17 "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);

18 (g) The author or recipient of a document containing the information or a custodian 19 or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information;

20 (h) During their depositions, witnesses, and attorneys for witnesses, in the Action 21 to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary provided: (1) the deposing party requests 22 that the witness sign the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A); 23 and (2) they will not be permitted to keep any confidential information unless 24 otherwise agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by the Court. Pages of 25 transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected 26 Material may be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to 27 anyone except as permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order;

28 (i) Any mediator or settlement officer, and their supporting personnel, mutually

1 agreed upon by any of the Parties engaged in settlement discussions; and

2 (j) To a federal or state agency or entity by the Bureau where the disclosure is 3 required or permitted by statute or regulation.

4 7. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN 5 OTHER LITIGATION

6 If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order or other legal process, 7 including discovery requests, issued in other litigation that compels disclosure of any 8 information or items designated in this Action, as CONFIDENTIAL that Party must:

9 (a) Promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall 10 include a copy of the subpoena or court order or other legal process;

11 (b) Promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order or other 12 legal process to issue in the other litigation, that some or all of the material covered by 13 the subpoena or order or other legal process is subject to this Protective Order. Such 14 notification shall include a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order; and 15 (c) Cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the 16 Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

17 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with the 18 subpoena or court order shall not produce any information designated in this action as 19 CONFIDENTIAL before a determination by the court from which the subpoena or order 20 or other legal process issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party's 21 permission. The Designating Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking 22 protection in that court of its confidential material and nothing in these provisions should 23 be construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this Action to disobey a 24 lawful directive from another court.

25 8. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

26 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed 27 Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this 28 Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately: (a) notify in writing

1 the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures; (b) use its best efforts to retrieve 2 all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material; (c) inform the person or persons to 3 whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order; and (d) request 4 such person or persons to execute the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” 5 that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

6 9. MISCELLANEOUS

7 9.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person to 8 seek its modification by the Court in the future.

9 9.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this Protective 10 Order, no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to disclosing or 11 producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated 12 Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any ground to use 13 in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order.

14 9.3 Filing Protected Material. Without written permission from the Designing Party 15 or a Court order, a Party may not file in the public record in this Action any Protected 16 Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any Protected Material must comply 17 with Local Rule 79-5. Protected Material may only be filed under seal pursuant to a 18 court order authorizing the sealing of the specific Protected Material at issue. The fact 19 that a document has been designated under this Order is insufficient to justify filing 20 under seal. Instead, Parties must explain the basis for confidentiality of each document 21 sought to be filed under seal. Because a Party other than the designator will often be 22 seeking to file designated material, cooperation between the Parties in preparing, and 23 in reducing the number and extent of, requests for under seal filing is essential. If a 24 Party’s request to file Protected Material under seal is denied by the court, then the 25 Receiving Party may file the information in the public record unless otherwise 26 instructed by the court.

27 10. FINAL DISPOSITION

28 The confidentiality obligations imposed by this Order shall remain in effect until a

1 Designating Party agrees otherwise in writing, a court order otherwise directs or the 2 Action reaches final disposition. Final disposition shall be deemed to be the later of: (1) 3 dismissal of all claims and defenses in this action, with or without prejudice; or (2) final 4 judgment herein after the completion and exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, 5 trials, or reviews of this action, including the time limits for filing any motions or 6 applications for extension of time pursuant to applicable law.

7 After the final disposition of this Action, within 60 days of a written request by the 8 Designating Party, each Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the 9 Producing Party or destroy such material or retain such material in compliance with 10 federal recordkeeping requirements in a manner that ensures the confidentiality of the 11 material. As used in this subdivision, “all Protected Material” includes all copies, 12 abstracts, compilations, summaries, and any other format reproducing or capturing any of 13 the Protected Material except as required to comply with federal recordkeeping 14 requirements. Whether the Protected Material is returned, destroyed, or retained pursuant 15 to federal recordkeeping requirements, the Receiving Party must submit a written 16 certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the 17 Designating Party) by the 60 day deadline that: (1) identifies (by category, where 18 appropriate) all the Protected Material that was returned, destroyed or retained pursuant 19 to federal recordkeeping requirements; and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party has not 20 retained any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries, or any other format reproducing 21 or capturing any of the Protected Material except as required pursuant to federal 22 recordkeeping requirements. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to 23 retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing 24 transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert 25 reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work product, even if such 26 materials contain Protected Material. Any such archival copies that contain or constitute 27 Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order.
