1 GOOD CAUSE STATEMENT

2 This Court may enter a protective order upon a showing of good cause. See 3 Phillips v. G.M. Corp., 307 F.3d 1206, 1209 (9th Cir. 2002) (Rule 26(c)). Here, 4 there is good cause for the entry of this protective order. Plaintiff Deidre Lewis 5 has filed product liability claims against defendant QVC, Inc. (“Defendant”).

6 The Parties anticipate they will produce certain information and documents 7 in this matter that are confidential or competitively sensitive, including 8 Defendant’s confidential information that is relevant to the testing, marketing and 9 sales of the subject product, as well as damages. The Parties therefore request that 10 this type of information be limited to this litigation and not be publicly disclosed.
11 This Protective Order provides a means for limiting access to, use of, and 12 disclosure of such confidential documents or information that is produced in this 13 action. Any unauthorized disclosure of confidential documents or information in 14 violation of this Order may be subject to discipline by the contempt powers of this 15 Court.

16 Based on the foregoing, the parties stipulate and the Court ORDERS as 17 follows:

- 18 1. Any party to this litigation and any third party shall have the right to 19 designate as “Confidential Material” and subject to this Order any information, 20 document, or thing, or portion of any document or thing that (a) contains trade 21 secrets, competitively sensitive technical, marketing, financial, sales or other 22 confidential business information (e.g., marketing scripts and memos, internal 23 marketing “blueprints,” internal quality control documents, documents showing 24 how QVC tracks its products, internal documents reflecting product testing and 25 evaluation, and internal documents concerning any customer complaints or reports 26 of injury), (b) contains private or confidential personal information (e.g., private or 27 confidential information pertaining to QVC’s customers or employees), (c) 28 contains information received in confidence from third parties, or (d) the producing

1 party otherwise believes in good faith to be entitled to protection under Rule 2 26(c)(1)(G) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (“Confidential Material”).
3 Any party or third party covered by this Order that produces or discloses any 4 Confidential Material shall mark it with the following or a substantially similar 5 legend: “CONFIDENTIAL.”

6       2. Any party and third party shall have the right to designate as “Attor-7 neys’ Eyes Only Material” and subject to this Order any information, document, or 8 thing, or portion of any document or thing that the designating party reasonably 9 believes is among that considered to be most sensitive by the party, including but 10 not limited to highly sensitive business or personal information, the disclosure of 11 which is highly likely to cause significant harm to an individual or to the business 12 or competitive position of the designating party. Any party to this litigation or 13 third party covered by this Order that produces or discloses any Attorneys’ Eyes 14 Only Material shall mark the same with the following, or a substantially similar, 15 legend: “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.”

16       3. Any Confidential or Attorneys’ Eyes Only Material produced in a 17 non-paper medium (e.g., videotape, audiotape, computer disc) may be so 18 designated by labeling the outside of such non-paper medium, as appropriate, with 19 the following, or a substantially similar, legend: “CONFIDENTIAL” or 20 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS’ EYES.” If a receiving party 21 generates any electronic copy, hard copy, transcription, or printout from any such 22 designated non-paper medium, that party, and all persons subject to this Order, 23 must treat each copy as the original was designated and label it in a manner 24 consistent with this Order.

25       4. All designations of Confidential Material and Attorneys Eyes Only 26 Material shall be made in good faith and in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26
27 (c)(1)(G). The parties will use reasonable care to avoid designating as Confidential 28 or Attorneys Eyes Only documents or information that do not need to be

1 designated as such. To the extent possible or reasonably practical, the designating 2 party must designate for protection only those parts of material, documents, items, 3 or oral or written communications that qualify so that other portions of the 4 material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not 5 warranted are not swept unjustifiably with the ambit of this Order. Mass, 6 indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. If it comes to a 7 designating party's attention that information or items that it designated for 8 protection do not qualify for protection, that designating party must promptly 9 notice all other parties that it is withdrawing the inapplicable designation.

10       5. All Confidential Material and Attorneys' Eyes Only Material shall be 11 used by the receiving party solely for purposes of the prosecution or defense of this 12 action; shall not be used by the receiving party for any business, commercial, 13 competitive, personal or other purpose; and shall not be disclosed by the receiving 14 party to anyone other than the persons set forth in paragraphs 6 and 7, unless and 15 until the restrictions under this Order are removed either by written agreement of 16 counsel or Court Order. Counsel may, however, give advice and opinions to his or 17 her client solely relating to this action based on an evaluation of Attorneys' Eyes 18 Only Material, provided that such advice and opinions shall not reveal the content 19 of such Attorneys' Eyes Only Material except by prior written agreement of 20 counsel or Court Order.

21       6. Confidential Material and the contents of Confidential material may 22 be disclosed only to the following individuals under the following conditions: 23       a. Outside counsel retained by the parties for this case and in-
24 house counsel for the parties working on this case;
25       b. Outside experts or consultants retained by outside counsel for 26 purposes reasonably related to the scope of an expert's work in this case, provided
27 they have signed a non-disclosure agreement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit
28 A;

1 c. Secretarial, paralegal, clerical, duplicating and data-processing
2 personnel working under the direct supervision of outside counsel, in-house 3 counsel, outside experts, or outside consultants described in paragraphs 6.a and 4 6.b;

5 d. The Court, jury, court reporters, and court personnel;

6 e. Any witness who is shown or examined about any Confidential
7 Material or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material, if it appears that the witness originated, 8 authored or received a copy of it, was involved in the specific subject matter 9 described therein, or is employed by the party who produced the Confidential 10 Material or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material, or if the producing party consents to 11 such disclosure;

12 f. Vendors retained by or for the parties to assist with respect to 13 pretrial discovery, trial, or hearings, including but not limited to court reporters, 14 litigation support personnel, jury consultants; persons preparing demonstrative and 15 audiovisual aids for use in court, in depositions, or mock jury sessions; as well as 16 their staff, stenographic, and clerical employees whose duties and responsibilities 17 require access to such materials;

18 g. An individual party or, in the event of a party that is a business 19 entity, the party's executives, officers, directors, managers, and employees with 20 whom outside counsel of record find it necessary to consult, in the discretion of 21 such counsel and in good faith, in preparing the action for trial or settlement and 22 who have been made aware of this Order and have agreed to abide by its terms;

23 h. As ordered by the Court, provided that such other persons have 24 signed a non-disclosure agreement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A.

25 7. Material designated as Attorneys' Eyes Only Material may be 26 disclosed only to:

27 a. Outside counsel retained by the parties for this case and in-
28 house counsel for the parties working on this case;

1           b.     Outside experts or consultants retained by outside counsel for 2 purposes reasonably related to the scope of an expert's work in this case, provided
3 they have signed a non-disclosure agreement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit
4 A;

5           c.     Secretarial, paralegal, clerical, duplicating and data-processing
6 personnel working under the direct supervision of outside counsel, in-house 7 counsel, outside experts, or outside consultants described in paragraphs 7.a and 8 7.b;

9           d.     The Court, jury, court reporters, and court personnel;

10          e.     Vendors retained by or for the parties to assist with respect to 11 pretrial discovery, trial, or hearings, including but not limited to court reporters, 12 litigation support personnel, jury consultants, persons preparing demonstrative and 13 audiovisual aids for use in court, in depositions, or mock jury sessions;

14          f.     Any witness who appears to have originated, authored or 15 received a copy of the information, and other persons as to whom outside counsel 16 for the designating party agrees in advance; or 17          g.     As ordered by the Court, provided that such other persons have 18 signed a non-disclosure agreement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A.

19          8.     Confidential and Attorneys' Eyes Only Material shall be used only by 20 individuals permitted access to it under paragraphs 6 or 7. Confidential and 21 Attorneys' Eyes Only Material, copies thereof, and the information contained 22 therein, shall not be disclosed in any manner to any other individual until and 23 unless (a) outside counsel for the party asserting confidentiality consents to the 24 disclosure or waives the claim of confidentiality, or (b) the Court orders the 25 disclosure.

26          9.     With respect to depositions during which there has been disclosure of 27 Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material, the party or third party designating 28 the material as Confidential or Attorneys' Eye Only Material shall have until thirty

1 (30) days after receipt of the deposition transcript within which to inform all 2 parties that portions of the transcript are to be designated as Confidential Material 3 or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material, which period may be extended by agreement of 4 the parties. During the 30-day period, no deposition transcript containing 5 Confidential Material or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material, and no contents of the 6 Confidential Material or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material contained in the transcript, 7 shall be disclosed to anyone other than (a) the individuals described in paragraphs 8 6.a, 6.b, 6.c, 6.d, and 6.f above with respect to Confidential Material, (b) the 9 individuals described in paragraph 7 with respect to Attorneys' Eyes Only 10 Material, and (c) the deponent. Upon being informed that certain portions of a 11 deposition are to be designated as Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only, all parties 12 shall immediately cause each copy of the transcript in its custody or control to be 13 appropriately marked and limit disclosure of that transcript in accordance with 14 preceding Paragraphs of this Order.

15 10. Each person who signs the non-disclosure agreement attached hereto 16 as Exhibit A shall be subject to the jurisdiction of this Court for purposes of any 17 proceedings relating to compliance with or violation of this Order.

18 11. With the exception of this Court and its staff, who are bound by 19 separate duties established by the Local Rules with respect to any confidential 20 information, the recipient of any Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material 21 subject to this Order shall maintain that material in a secure location and exercise 22 at all times due and proper care to ensure the continued confidentiality of the 23 material.

24 12. If counsel for a party receiving documents or information in 25 discovery in this case objects to the designation of any of them as Confidential or 26 Attorneys' Eyes Only Material, the following procedures shall apply:

27 a. Counsel for the objecting party shall serve on the designating 28 party or third party a written objection to such designation, which shall describe

1 with particularity the documents or information in question and state the grounds 2 for objection. Counsel for the designating party or third party shall respond in 3 writing to the objection within ten (10) days (or more if agreed-upon by outside 4 counsel), and state with particularity the grounds for asserting that the document or 5 information is Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material. If no timely written 6 response is made to the objection, the challenged designation will be deemed 7 withdrawn. If the designating party or third party makes a timely response to such 8 objection asserting the propriety of the designation, counsel shall then confer in 9 good faith in an effort to resolve the dispute. If the designating party does not 10 agree to de-designate the Materials in the designation objections and instead 11 pursues the meet-and-confer process, the parties shall conduct the in-person meet 12 and confer required by Local Rule 37 within ten (10) calendar days of the 13 designating party's meet-and-confer letter.

14           b.     If a dispute as to a designation as Confidential or Attorneys' 15 Eyes Only Material cannot be resolved by agreement, the objecting party may 16 present the dispute to the Court. If the objecting party elects to present the dispute 17 to the Court, the objecting party shall thereafter serve the designating party with a 18 joint stipulation pursuant to Local Rule 37 within seven (7) calendar days of the 19 parties' in-person meet and confer session. The objecting party shall thereafter file 20 the joint stipulation and related motion papers with the Court within two (2) court 21 days of receipt of the designating party's portion of the joint stipulation, to seek 22 relief from the Court to de-designate any or all designations on documents, 23 testimony or information addressed by the designation objections (the "De-24 designation Motion"). Pending resolution of the dispute, the document or 25 information that is the subject of the filing shall be treated as originally designated.

26           13.    Documents containing Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material 27 shall not be filed with the Court except as necessary, including without limitation 28 in support of motions. Any such filings will be made in good faith and not solely 1 for an improper purpose such as harming, harassing or embarrassing another party.

2 All requests to seal documents filed with the Court shall comply with L.R. 79-5.

3 14. If the need arises during a hearing to disclose publicly Confidential or 4 Attorneys' Eyes Only Material, the party seeking to make such disclosure shall do 5 so only after giving notice to the producing party and affording the producing party 6 the opportunity to oppose the disclosure, and only after permitted by the Court.

7 15. To the extent consistent with applicable law, the inadvertent 8 disclosure of Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material, regardless of whether 9 it was so designated at the time of disclosure, shall not be deemed a waiver of 10 confidentiality, either as to the specific material disclosed or as to any other 11 material or information concerning the same or related subject matter. The 12 inadvertent disclosure may be rectified by written notification, to counsel for all 13 parties to whom the material was disclosed and within a reasonable time after 14 disclosure, that the material should have been designated as Confidential or 15 Attorneys' Eyes Only Material. The written notification shall constitute a 16 designation of the material as Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only under this 17 Order.

18 16. When the inadvertent disclosure of any information, document or 19 thing subject to attorney-client, another privilege, or work-product immunity, is 20 discovered by the producing party and brought to the attention of the receiving 21 party, the receiving party's treatment of such material shall be in accordance with 22 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). The inadvertent disclosure shall not 23 by itself constitute a waiver by the producing party of any claims of privilege or 24 work-product immunity. Nothing herein, however, restricts the right of the 25 receiving party to challenge the producing party's claim of privilege within a 26 reasonable time after receiving notice of the inadvertent disclosure.

27 17. If any receiving party having possession, custody or control of any 28 Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only Material receives a subpoena, request for

1 production of documents, or other process or order (the “Request”) to produce such 2 material in another, unrelated legal proceeding, the receiving party shall (1) give 3 notice of the Request to counsel for the disclosing party or third party that 4 designated the material as Confidential or Attorneys’ Eyes Only Material, (2) 5 provide a copy of the Request to counsel for the disclosing party or third party, and 6 (3) cooperate in all reasonable efforts of the disclosing party or third party to 7 oppose production of the material sought by the Request. The disclosing party or 8 third party making the designation as Confidential or Attorneys’ Eyes Only 9 Material shall have the burden of defending against the Request.

10 18. Nothing in this Order shall preclude any parties, third parties or their 11 attorneys from disclosing or using any material or documents from the party’s or 12 third party’s own files which the party or third party itself has designated as 13 Confidential or Attorneys’ Eyes Only Material. No information that is in the 14 public domain, or which is already rightfully known by the receiving party, shall 15 be subject to this Order.

16 19. This Order shall not deprive any party of its right to object to 17 discovery by any other party or on any otherwise permissible ground. This Order 18 is being entered without prejudice to the right of any party to move the Court for 19 modification or for relief from any of its terms.

20 20. This Order shall survive the termination of this action and shall 21 remain in full force and effect unless modified by Court Order or the written 22 stipulation of the parties filed with the Court.

23 21. Within sixty (60) days of the termination of litigation between the 24 parties, including conclusion of all appeals and the expiration of time to appeal or 25 seek further review, each party or other person or entity subject to the terms hereof 26 shall assemble and to return to the producing party or third party all original and 27 unmarked copies of documents and things containing Confidential and Attorneys’ 28 Eyes Only Material, and destroy, if the producing party so requests, all copies of 1 Confidential and Attorneys' Eyes Only Material that contain or constitute attorney 2 work product as well as excerpts, summaries and digests revealing Confidential 3 and Attorneys' Eyes Only Material; provided, however, that counsel may retain 4 one copy of all transcripts and pleadings, and any exhibits thereto, subject to the 5 provisions of this Order. If destroyed, counsel shall certify to the destruction and 6 provide a copy of the certification to the producing party or third party.
