UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

ÖSSUR hf, OSSUR AMERICAS, INC.

Plaintiff,

vs.

MANAMED, INC., SPARTAMED, LLC,
JOHN LASSO, JOSEPH HORTON and
TREVOR THERIOT,

Defendants.

Case No. SACV 17-01015-JVS-DFM

PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Complaint Filed: June 12, 2017

Trial Date: None Set

1 Having considered Plaintiffs’ motion for a preliminary injunction, and the evidence
2 and arguments in support and opposition thereto, the Court finds that Plaintiffs are likely
3 to prevail on the merits of their claim that Defendants are infringing their trademarks.
4 The Court further finds that Plaintiffs are likely to suffer irreparable harm if the
5 Defendants’ conduct is not restrained while this action is pending. Moreover, because it
6 appears Defendants’ conduct is likely to cause confusion among consumers, the public
7 interest favors an injunction against Defendants’ conduct, and the balance of equities also
8 tips in favor of issuing the preliminary injunction. Therefore, the Court orders Defendants
9 Manamed, Inc., Spartamed, LLC, John Lasso, Joseph Horton, and Trevor Theriot
10 (“Defendants”) to observe the following restrictions on their conduct while this case is 11 pending:

- 12 1. Defendants shall immediately cease and desist offering for sale any products
13 under the trademark “Offloader One.”
- 14 2. Defendants shall not use the “Offloader One” trademark in commerce in any 15 way.
- 16 3. Defendants shall promptly remove from the website, www.manamed.net
17 any references to the “Offloader One.”

18 4.

19 Plaintiffs shall post a bond in the amount of $10,000.

20
