Civil Action No. 8:18-cv-00620-JVS (JDEx)

STIPULATION AND PROTECTIVE
ORDER

19 1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

20 Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, 21 proprietary or private information for which special protection from public 22 disclosure and from use for any purpose other than pursuing this litigation may 23 be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the Court 24 to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that 25 this Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to 26 discovery and that the protection it affords from public disclosure and use 27 extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential 28 treatment under the applicable legal principles.

STIPULATION AND PROTECTIVE ORDER

1 2. GOOD CAUSE STATEMENT

2 This action is likely to involve trade secrets, customer and pricing lists, 3 clinical information, business plans, and other valuable research, development, 4 commercial, financial, technical and/or proprietary information for which 5 special protection from disclosure and restrictions on use is warranted. Such 6 confidential and proprietary materials and information consist of, among other 7 things, confidential business or financial information, information regarding 8 confidential business practices, or other confidential research, development, or 9 commercial information (including information implicating privacy rights of 10 third parties), information otherwise generally unavailable to the public, or which 11 may be privileged or otherwise protected from disclosure under state or federal 12 statutes, court rules, case decisions, or common law. Accordingly, to expedite the 13 flow of information, to facilitate the prompt resolution of disputes over 14 confidentiality of discovery materials, to adequately protect information the 15 parties are entitled to keep confidential, to ensure that the parties are permitted 16 reasonably necessary uses of such material in preparation for and in the conduct 17 of trial, to address their handling at the end of the litigation, and serve the ends of 18 justice, a protective order for such information is justified in this matter. It is the 19 intent of the parties that information will not be designated as confidential for 20 tactical reasons and that nothing be so designated without a good faith belief that 21 it has been maintained in a confidential, non-public manner, and there is good 22 cause why it should not be part of the public record of this case.

23 3. ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF UNDER SEAL FILING PROCEDURE

24 The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 14.3, below, that 25 this Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file confidential 26 information under seal; Local Civil Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures that must 27 be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission 28 from the court to file material under seal. There is a strong presumption that the 1 public has a right of access to judicial proceedings and records in civil cases. In 2 connection with non-dispositive motions, good cause must be shown to support a 3 filing under seal. See Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 4 1176 (9th Cir. 2006), Phillips v. Gen. Motors Corp., 307 F.3d 1206, 1210-11 (9th

5 Cir. 2002), Makar-Welbon v. Sony Electronics, Inc., 187 F.R.D. 576, 577 (E.D.
6 Wis. 1999) (even stipulated protective orders require good cause showing), and a 7 specific showing of good cause or compelling reasons with proper evidentiary 8 support and legal justification, must be made with respect to Protected Material 9 that a party seeks to file under seal. The parties' mere designation of Disclosure
10 or Discovery Material as CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
11 does not— without the submission of competent evidence by declaration, 12 establishing that the material sought to be filed under seal qualifies as 13 confidential, privileged, or otherwise protectable—constitute good cause.

14 Further, if a party requests sealing related to a dispositive motion or trial, 15 then compelling reasons, not only good cause, for the sealing must be shown, and 16 the relief sought shall be narrowly tailored to serve the specific interest to be 17 protected. See Pintos v. Pacific Creditors Ass'n., 605 F.3d 665, 677-79 (9th Cir.
18 2010). For each item or type of information, document, or thing sought to be 19 filed or introduced under seal, the party seeking protection must articulate 20 compelling reasons, supported by specific facts and legal justification, for the 21 requested sealing order. Again, competent evidence supporting the application to 22 file documents under seal must be provided by declaration.

23 Any document that is not confidential, privileged, or otherwise protectable 24 in its entirety will not be filed under seal if the confidential portions can be 25 redacted. If documents can be redacted, then a redacted version for public 26 viewing, omitting only the confidential, privileged, or otherwise protectable 27 portions of the document, shall be filed. Any application that seeks to file 28

1 documents under seal in their entirety should include an explanation of why 2 redaction is not feasible.

3 4. DEFINITIONS

4 4.1 Action: Glaukos Corporation v. Ivantis, Inc., No. 8:18-cv-00620-JVS
5 (JDEx) (C.D. Cal.).

6 4.2 Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the 7 designation of information or items under this Order.

8 4.3 "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items: information (regardless 9 of how it is generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for 10 protection under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c), and as specified above in 11 the Good Cause Statement.

12 4.4 "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items: information 13 (regardless of how it is generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that 14 qualify for protection under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c), and as 15 specified above in the Good Cause Statement, for which the Producing Party 16 reasonably believes that the information or items are (a) trade secrets; or (b) 17 highly confidential, non-public, personal or proprietary business information, the 18 disclosure of which would be especially detrimental or harmful to the producing 19 party if disclosed beyond the limited class of permitted recipients delineated 20 herein.

21 4.5 Counsel: Outside Counsel of Record and House Counsel.

22 4.6 Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information 23 or items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as 24 "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL."

25 4.7 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, 26 regardless of the medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or 27 maintained (including, among other things, testimony, transcripts, and tangible 28 things), that are produced or generated in disclosures or responses to discovery.

1 4.8 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a 2 matter pertinent to the litigation who (1) has been retained by a Party or its 3 counsel to serve as an expert witness or as a consultant in this Action, (2) is not a 4 current employee of a Party or a Party's competitor, and (3) at the time of 5 retention, is not anticipated to become an employee of a Party or of a Party's 6 competitor.

7 4.9 House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a party to this 8 Action, who work in the legal department of a party, and whose responsibilities 9 including supervising this Action. Notwithstanding the above, the parties also 10 agree that House Counsel will be deemed to include Steven McAuley, counsel 11 for Ivantis, Inc.

12 4.10 Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association 13 or other legal entity not named as a Party to this action.

14 4.11 Outside Counsel of Record: attorneys who are not employees of a 15 party to this Action but are retained to represent a party to this Action or any 16 related proceedings, including the copending inter partes review proceedings 17 before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (IPR2018-01147 and IPR2018-18 01180), and have appeared in this Action or a related proceeding on behalf of 19 that party or are affiliated with a law firm that has appeared on behalf of that 20 party, and includes support staff.

21 4.12 Party: any party to this Action, including all of its officers, directors, 22 employees, consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record (and 23 their support staffs).

24 4.13 Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or 25 Discovery Material in this Action.

26 4.14 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation 27 support services (e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits 28

1 or demonstrations, and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or 2 medium) and their employees and subcontractors.

3 4.15 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is 4 designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL.”

5 4.16 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery
6 Material from a Producing Party.

7 5. SCOPE

8 The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only 9 Protected Material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or 10 extracted from Protected Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or 11 compilations of Protected Material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or 12 presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material.

13 Any use of Protected Material at trial shall be governed by the orders of the 14 trial judge and other applicable authorities. This Order does not govern the use of 15 Protected Material at trial.

16 6. DURATION

17 Once a case proceeds to trial, information that was designated as 18 CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL or maintained pursuant to 19 this protective order used or introduced as an exhibit at trial becomes public and 20 will be presumptively available to all members of the public, including the press, 21 unless compelling reasons supported by specific factual findings to proceed 22 otherwise are made to the trial judge in advance of use of such information at 23 trial. See Kamakana, 447 F.3d at 1180-81 (distinguishing “good cause” showing 24 for sealing documents produced in discovery from “compelling reasons” standard 25 when merits-related documents are part of court record).

26 7. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

27 7.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for 28 Protection. Each Party or Non-Party that designates information or items for

1 protection under this Order must take care to limit any such designation to 2 specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. The Designating 3 Party must, to the extent reasonably practicable, designate for protection only 4 those parts of material, documents, items or oral or written communications that 5 qualify so that other portions of the material, documents, items or 6 communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably 7 within the ambit of this Order.

8 Mass, indiscriminate or routinized designations are prohibited.
9 Designations that are shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for 10 an improper purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber the case development 11 process or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may 12 expose the Designating Party to sanctions.

13 If it comes to a Designating Party's attention that information or items that 14 it designated for protection do not qualify for protection, that Designating Party 15 must promptly notify all other Parties that it is withdrawing the inapplicable 16 designation.

17 7.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided 18 in this Order, or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, Disclosure of Discovery 19 Material that qualifies for protection under this Order must be clearly so 20 designated before the material is disclosed or produced.

21 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

22 (a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic 23 documents, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial 24 proceedings), that the Producing Party affix at a minimum, the legend 25 "CONFIDENTIAL" (hereinafter "CONFIDENTIAL legend") or "HIGHLY 26 CONFIDENTIAL" (hereinafter "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL legend"), to each 27 page that contains protected material. For electronically stored information on 28 which affixing the applicable legend to each page is not practical, the designator

1 shall designate the electronic file with the applicable confidentiality designation 2 “_CONF” or “_HIGH_CONF” appended to the file name. If only a portion of 3 the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must, to 4 the extent reasonably practicable, clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by 5 making appropriate markings in the margins).

6 A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents available for 7 inspection need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party 8 has indicated which documents it would like copied and produced. During the 9 inspection and before the designation, all of the material made available for 10 inspection shall be deemed “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL.” After the inspecting 11 Party has identified the documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing 12 Party must determine which documents, or portions thereof, qualify for 13 protection under this Order. Then, before producing the specified documents, the 14 Producing Party must affix the “CONFIDENTIAL legend” or “HIGHLY 15 CONFIDENTIAL legend” to each page that contains Protected Material. If only 16 a portion of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party 17 also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate 18 markings in the margins).

19 (b) for testimony given in depositions that the Designating Party 20 identifies the Disclosure or Discovery Material on the record, before the close of 21 the deposition all protected testimony.

22 (c) for information produced in some form other than 23 documentary and for any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a 24 prominent place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the 25 information is stored the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY 26 CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information warrants 27 protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the 28 protected portion(s).

1 7.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent 2 failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, 3 waive the Designating Party's right to secure protection under this Order for such 4 material. Upon timely correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must 5 make reasonable efforts to assure that the material is treated in accordance with 6 the provisions of this Order.

7 8. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

8 8.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a 9 designation of confidentiality at any time that is consistent with the Court's 10 Scheduling Order.

11 8.2 Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute 12 resolution process under Local Rule 37-1 et seq.

13 8.3 Joint Stipulation. Any challenge submitted to the Court shall be via a 14 joint stipulation pursuant to Local Rule 37-2.

15 8.4 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be 16 on the Designating Party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper 17 purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other 18 parties) may expose the Challenging Party to sanctions. Unless the Designating 19 Party has waived or withdrawn the confidentiality designation, all parties shall 20 continue to afford the material in question the level of protection to which it is 21 entitled under the Producing Party's designation until the Court rules on the 22 challenge.

23 9. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

24 9.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that 25 is disclosed or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with 26 this Action only for prosecuting, defending or attempting to settle this Action.
27 Such Protected Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and 28 under the conditions described in this Order. When the Action has been

1 terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of section 15
2 below (FINAL DISPOSITION).

3 Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at 4 a location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the 5 persons authorized under this Order.

6 9.2 Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless 7 otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, 8 a Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated 9 “CONFIDENTIAL” only to:

10 (a) the Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel of Record, as well as 11 employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary 12 to disclose the information;

13 (b) up to two House Counsel of the Receiving Party to whom 14 disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action and who have signed the 15 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

16 (c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party who 17 have complied with § 9.4 below, and their staff, assistants, or employees, to 18 whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action, who have signed the 19 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

20 (d) the court and its personnel;

21 (e) court reporters and their staff;

22 (f) professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and 23 Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action 24 and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” 25 (Exhibit A);

26 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the 27 information or a custodian or other person who otherwise is reasonably believed 28 to have possessed or known the information;

1 (h) during their depositions, witnesses, and attorneys for 2 witnesses, in the Action who are affiliated with the Disclosing Party. Pages of 3 transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected 4 Material may be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed 5 to anyone except as permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order; and 6 (i) any mediators or settlement officers and their supporting 7 personnel, mutually agreed upon by any of the parties engaged in settlement 8 discussions.

9 9.3 Disclosure of “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items.

10 Unless otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating 11 Party, a Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated 12 “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL” only to those individuals or parties identified in 13 9.2(a) and 9.2(c)-(i).

14 9.4 Disclosure of Protected Material to Experts. As a condition
15 precedent for disclosure of CONFIDENTIAL or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL
16 material from a Producing Party to any Expert in accordance with §§ 9.2 and 9.3, 17 at least five (5) days prior to disclosure the Receiving Party shall identify the 18 Expert by name, provide a curriculum vitae (“CV”) or equivalent resume 19 disclosing the Expert’s employment history, past or present relationship with any 20 of the parties, all consulting engagements in the past four years, and all cases in 21 which the individual has testified in a deposition or trial in the past four years, 22 and provide an executed copy of Exhibit A. If a Producing Party objects to the 23 proposed disclosure to such Expert, the Producing Party must advise the 24 Receiving Party promptly and provide the specific basis for the objection, and the 25 parties shall promptly confer in good faith to resolve the concerns giving rise to 26 the objection. If the parties are unable to reach agreement, the objecting party 27 must apply to the Court for a protective order no later than fifteen (15) days after 28 receipt of the executed copy of Exhibit A and CV or resume. In any such motion

1 is initiated pursuant to Local Rule 37, the ten-day deadline of Local Rule 37-1 2 shall be shortened to five days. For avoidance of doubt, no objection may be 3 made solely on the basis that an expert has previously consulted for a competitor, 4 participated in clinical studies regarding a competitor's product, or used a 5 competitor's product. The burden shall be on the objecting party to demonstrate 6 to the Court why such Expert should not be permitted to receive Protected 7 Material. If an objection and motion for protective order are timely made and 8 filed in accordance with this provision, Protected Material shall not be disclosed 9 to the Expert pending the Court's resolution of the dispute.

10 10. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED 11 PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION

12 If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other 13 litigation that compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this 14 Action as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL," that Party 15 must:

16 (a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such 17 notification shall include a copy of the subpoena or court order;

18 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena 19 or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by 20 the subpoena or order is subject to this Protective Order. Such notification shall 21 include a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order; and 22 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to 23 be pursued by the Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

24 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with the 25 subpoena or court order shall not produce any information designated in this 26 action as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL" before a 27 determination by the court from which the subpoena or order issued, unless the 28 Party has obtained the Designating Party's permission. The Designating Party

1 shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in that court of its 2 confidential material and nothing in these provisions should be construed as 3 authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this Action to disobey a lawful 4 directive from another court.

5 11. A NON-PARTY'S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE 6 PRODUCED IN THIS LITIGATION

7 (a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced 8 by a Non-Party in this Action and designated as "CONFIDENTIAL" or 9 "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL." Such information produced by Non-Parties in 10 connection with this litigation is protected by the remedies and relief provided by 11 this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be construed as prohibiting a Non-12 Party from seeking additional protections.

13 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery 14 request, to produce a Non-Party's confidential information in its possession, and 15 the Party is subject to an agreement with the Non-Party not to produce the Non-16 Party's confidential information, then the Party shall:

17 (1) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the 18 Non-Party that some or all of the information requested is subject to a 19 confidentiality agreement with a Non-Party;

20 (2) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the 21 Stipulated Protective Order in this Action, the relevant discovery request(s), and 22 a reasonably specific description of the information requested; and

23 (3) make the information requested available for inspection
24 by the Non-Party, if requested.

25 (c) If the Non-Party fails to initiate the Local Rule 37 procedure to 26 seek a protective order from this court within 14 days of receiving the notice and 27 accompanying information, the Receiving Party may produce the Non-Party's 28 confidential information responsive to the discovery request. If the Non-Party

1 timely seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party shall not produce any 2 information in its possession or control that is subject to the confidentiality 3 agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by the court. Absent a 4 court order to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the burden and expense of 5 seeking protection in this court of its Protected Material.

6 12. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

7 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has 8 disclosed Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized 9 under this Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) 10 notify in writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its 11 best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) 12 inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all 13 the terms of this Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the 14 “Acknowledgment an Agreement to Be Bound” attached hereto as Exhibit A.

15 13. PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED 16 MATERIAL

17 The production or disclosure of any information (including documents) 18 that a Producing Party later claims should not have been produced due to a 19 privilege or protection from discovery, including but not limited to any attorney-20 client privilege, work product privilege, joint defense privilege, or settlement 21 privilege, shall not be deemed to waive any such privilege or protection. A party 22 or non-party may request the return or destruction of such information, which 23 request shall identify the information and the basis for requesting its return.
24 When a Producing Party identifies such information as privileged or protected, a 25 Receiving Party: 1) shall not use, and shall immediately cease any prior use of, 26 such information; 2) shall take reasonable steps to retrieve the information from 27 others to which the Receiving Party disclosed the information; 3) shall within five 28 (5) business days of the Producing Party's request: a) return the information and

1 all copies thereof to the Producing Party; or b) destroy and confirm to the 2 Producing Party in writing that the information and all copies thereof have been 3 destroyed. Within five days of satisfaction by the Receiving Party of conditions 4 3(a) or 3(b), above, Producing Party provide a log identifying the information 5 with sufficient detail for the Receiving Party or a Court to evaluate the claim of 6 privilege. No one shall use the fact or circumstances of production of the 7 information that the Producing Party later claims should not have been produced 8 to argue that any privilege or protection has been waived. Within ten (10) days 9 after a Producing Party or Receiving Party provides the log identifying the 10 information, and not thereafter, the Receiving Party may request in writing 11 production of the information on the basis that: (a) the information was never 12 privileged or protected from disclosure; or (b) any applicable privilege or 13 immunity has been waived by some act other than the production of the 14 information in this action. The Producing Party and the Receiving Party shall 15 meet and confer in accordance with applicable law or Court rules regarding a 16 motion to compel, after which the Receiving Party may file a motion. Any such 17 motion must be filed within 30 days of the Receiving Party's written request for 18 production described above. Notwithstanding this provision, no party shall be 19 required to return or destroy any information that may exist on any disaster 20 recovery backup system.

21 14. MISCELLANEOUS

22 14.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of 23 any person to seek its modification by the Court in the future.

24 14.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this 25 Protective Order, no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to 26 disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in 27 this Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on 28

1 any ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective 2 Order.

3 14.3 Filing Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any 4 Protected Material must comply with Local Civil Rule 79-5. Protected Material 5 may only be filed under seal pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of 6 the specific Protected Material. If a Party's request to file Protected Material 7 under seal is denied by the court, then the Receiving Party may file the 8 information in the public record unless otherwise instructed by the court.

9 15. FINAL DISPOSITION

10 After the final disposition of this Action, as defined in paragraph 6, within 11 60 days of a written request by the Designating Party, each Receiving Party must 12 return all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy such material. As 13 used in this subdivision, "all Protected Material" includes all copies, abstracts, 14 compilations, summaries, and any other format reproducing or capturing any of 15 the Protected Material. Whether the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, 16 the Receiving Party must submit a written certification to the Producing Party 17 (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party) by the 60-day 18 deadline that (1) identifies (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected 19 Material that was returned or destroyed and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party 20 has not retained any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries or any other 21 format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Notwithstanding 22 this provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an archival copy of all pleadings, 23 motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, legal memoranda, 24 correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work 25 product, and consultant and expert work product, even if such materials contain 26 Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, no party shall be required to 27 return or destroy any Protected Material that may exist on any disaster recovery 28 backup system. Any such archival copies that contain or constitute Protected

1 Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in Section 6
2 (DURATION).

3 16. VIOLATION

4 Any violation of this Order may be punished by appropriate measures 5 including, without limitation, contempt proceedings and/or monetary sanctions.
