STIPULATION EXTENDING TIME TO FILE DISPOSITIVE MOTIONS
 AND ORDER

18
 19 On September 22, 2008, the Court held a telephonic conference call in which it granted
 20 Plaintiff's request for a modification of the schedule order in this case. Docket Entry 60. As part
 21 of the Minute Order resulting from that conference, the Court set a deadline of July 9, 2009, for 22 dispositive motions to be filed in this case. Id. Since that time, the parties have completed
 23 discovery and new counsel, Sylvia Quast, has taken over the case on behalf of the defendant and 24 has worked diligently to come up to speed in this case, reviewing thousands of pages of 25 documents that have been produced, as well as all the deposition transcripts and other discovery
 26 in this case. In order to prepare a summary judgment motion that will address all aspects of this
 27 case, defendant requested plaintiff to stipulate to an extension of the dispositive motion deadline
 28

1 to July 27, 2009, to which plaintiff agreed. Accordingly, the parties respectfully request that the 2 court endorse this stipulation by way of a formal order.
