)	Petitioner
Respondent.)

Petitioner Colin Raker Dickey (“Dickey”) filed his federal petition October 4, 2007. Dickey’s federal petition was determined to contain unexhausted claims. Respondent, Kevin Chappell, Warden of San Quentin State Prison (“the Warden”) filed a motion to dismiss for lack of exhaustion that was denied, and Dickey’s motion for stay and abeyance was granted May 21, 2008. During the pendency of Dickey’s second state habeas petition, lead counsel for Dickey, Kerry R. Bensinger, was relieved as counsel of record. Dickey’s second state habeas

1 petition was summarily denied by the California Supreme Court May 23, 2012,
2 and second Counsel Elizabeth Piliavin-Godwin was relieved as counsel of record
3 June 1, 2012. David Senior was appointed as replacement counsel to represent 4 Dickey on June 12, 2012. Mr. Senior staffed this case with the assistance of 5 attorneys associated with his firm.
