13	On December 13, 2016, Plaintiff Kareem Davis moved this Court for an Order
14	directing Desert Schools Federal Credit Union to release funds which had been deposited
15	in May 2008 into an account in said Credit Union for the benefit of the then-minor Kareem
16	Davis. (ECF 90.)
17	The Court ordered that objections, if any, to the requested relief be filed by
18	December 28, 2016, and that, absent same, the requested relief would be granted. (ECF
19	No. 92.)
20	No objections having been received, the Court deems the matter submitted and
21	appropriate for decision without oral argument. (Local Rule 230; Fed. R. Civ. P. 78.) The
22	hearing scheduled for January 13, 2017, is hereby vacated.
23	The Court being satisfied that it was the intention of the Court and parties that the
24	funds so deposited, and all interest accumulated thereon, be released to Kareem Davis
25	upon his reaching the age of majority, and it appearing, further, that said Kareem Davis
26	has reached the age of majority, the motion shall be granted.
27	GOOD CAUSE APPEARING, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the sum of Five
28	Thousand One Hundred Fifty Two Dollars and Ninety Cents ($5,152.90), plus all interest
