01/13/2009	20	CASE MANAGEMENT PLAN #46: In the City of NY case, employees of the parties who will testify as experts must be disclosed at the same time as other experts. If the employees are not retained under Rule 26, they do not need to furnish an expert report. In the Orange County case, the three plumes that plaintiffs dismissed from defendants' selection of ten focus plumes are dismissed without prejudice because the claims relating to those plumes are not ripe. Plaintiffs will not dismiss all claims relating to the seven remaining plumes on defendants' list. Defendants will select three more focus plumes by 12/19/08 and plaintiffs will inform defendants by 1/7/09 whether plaintiffs' claims relating to the selected plumes are ripe. In the New Jersey case, the parties will provide discovery of all readily available electronic data by 2/6/09, including all electronically stored site file information. Because no "focus plumes" have been selected, this discovery is statewide. Plaintiffs may not redact information in the site files relating to tests for other contaminants. The next status conference is scheduled for 1/15/09 at 10:30 am. The following status conference is scheduled for 2/26/09 at 4:30 pm. Status Conference set for 2/26/2009 at 04:30 PM before Judge Shira A. Scheindlin. (Signed by Judge Shira A. 01/14/2010	57	CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER #57: 1. Village of Hempstead and West Hempstead: A. A conference is scheduled for February 10, 2010 at IOAM to discuss preparation for the West Hempstead trial scheduled to begin on June 21, 2010. This conference may be converted to an "all cases" status conference if the parties identify a sufficient number of issues that should be decided by the Court. B. Plaintiffs are directed to supply defendants with the "Village of Hempstead spill documents" requested by defendants. If defendants are not satisfied with the documents produced, they may identify what documents they believe are missing to Special Master Warner. C. Plaintiffs are directed to supply defendants with the Bates numbers of the "West Hempstead Analyte Data and Laboratory Procedures" documents requested by defendants. 2. New Jersey: A. Plaintiffs are directed to produce the "Oracle" database in native format. If the parties cannot resolve the other electronic discovery disputes in this case, including whether portions of the "Oracle" database should be redacted, with ten (10) days, these disputes are referred to Special Master Warner. B. Plaintiffs are directed to produce the non-site-specific discovery requested by defendants. If plaintiffs object to any of these requests as being overbroad, the matter is referred to Special Master Warner. C. Plaintiffs are directed to produce a list of sites for which they have not identified specific MTBE release points. If defendants, with plaintiffs' direction, are unable to extract the other sites at issue in this case - i.e., those sites where specific IVITBE release points have been identified - from the databases already produced by plaintiffs, the parties are directed to meet with Special Master Warner to determine how to proceed with extracting a list of MTBE release sites. D. The parties are directed to meet and confer to discuss a joint proposed case management order for the selection of focus sites. If the parties cannot agree upon a joint proposal, they shall submit individual proposed case management orders. The parties shall not limit the selection of focus sites to a single county or geographic region and shall not use a "strike" process in selecting focus sites. In addition, the parties shall not sequence the proposal of focus sites between parties, but shall propose focus sites in two waves - e.g., both parties will propose eight (8) sites on one date and then both parties will propose four (4) additional sites on a later date. The parties may select a larger number of focus sites for discovery than for trial. The number of discovery sites shall be no greater than fifty (50), and the number of trial sites shall be no greater than twenty (20). E. Defendants shall be given limited discovery on the entire set of sites at issue in this case. The discovery should be aimed at providing defendants with the information needed to select focus sites for trial. The parties shall meet with Special Master Warner to determine the scope of this limited discovery. F. Plaintiffs are directed to provide short interrogatories to defendants requesting information regarding the refineries from which each defendant has shipped gasoline products into the State of New Jersey, the terminals

		that each defendant has used in doing so, the stations that each defendant owned in New Jersey, the underground storagetanks used at those stations, and the periods of time during whichdefendants had ownership of each one of those stations. Each defendant shall answer these interrogatories separately and retains the right to make objections as appropriate. F. The time for asserting third party claims is stayed. A deadline for asserting third party claims relating to focus sites will be set after those sites are chosen. As to all other sites, the time for asserting third party claims is stayed indefinitely. 2. Puerto Rico: A. Plaintiffs are directed to produce a list of sites for which they have notidentified specific MTBE release points. If defendants, with plaintiffs' direction, are unable to extract the other sites at issue in this case – i.e., those sites where specific MTBE release points have been identified – from the databases already produced by plaintiffs, the parties are directed to meet with Special Master Wanler to determine how to proceed with extracting a list of MTBE release sites. B. The parties shall inform the Court of their progress following the parties' scheduled visit to Puerto Rico on January 14 and 15.C. The parties are directed to be ready to discuss the process of choosing focus sites for trial by the next status conference. The parties shouldlook to the Court's rulings in the New Jersty case for guidance on how to proceed with discovery and the selection of focus sites. 3. Exxon Mobil shall be permitted to take de bene esse fact depositions of Mr. Robert Reynolds, Mr. Robert Scala, and Mr. Sullivan D. Curran. Mr. Reynolds is already scheduled to be deposed in the Napoli Bern cases. Unless that deposition is cancelled, Exxon Mobil shall be permitted to take its deposition of Mr. Reynolds following the deposition relating to the Napoli Bern cases. 4. In the Napoli Bern cases, the defendants are directed to inform plaintiffs by January 11, 2010 which scheduled expert depositions, if any, they are waiving. 5. Tampa Bay Water, City ofCrystal River, City ofInverness Water District, and City of Homosassa: Plaintiffs are directed, no later than January 15, 2010, to serve interrogatories and/or document requests on Gulf Oil Limited Partnership ("GOLP") in anticipation of GOLP filing a motion for summary judgment in these cases. Defendants shall either respond to these requests or explain to Special Master Warner why the requested documents do not exist. After any such issues are settled, GOLP shall submit a proposed schedule for briefing its summary judgment motion. 6. Riverhead Water District case: Plaintiff is directed to amend its interrogatory responses as directed at the status conference by January 20, 2010. 7. Town ofSouthampton: Plaintiff was directed to amend its interrogatory responses by January 8, 2010. 8. Orange County Water District: the parties are directed to select the ten (10) focus plumes that will be used for trial. 05/08/2013	175	ORDER: Through a letter dated May 1, 2013, the Defendants in the above-captioned case informed the Court that: (1) Plaintiff's memorandum in opposition to the Motion for Partial Summary Judgment re Nuisance & Trespass, Doc. No. 147, substantially exceeded the page limit I set at the February 25, 2013 Status Conference; and (2) Plaintiff's declarations and exhibits in support of this motion exceeded the page limits set by my Individual Rules. I promptly directed my Clerk to transmit the following message (the "Resubmission Order") to the parties: Plaintiff's brief in opposition, and declarations, are rejected as oversized.... Because the declarations submitted by Plaintiff are plainly over the page limit set by my Individual Rules, and because Plaintiff was previously given a chance to cure and failed to do so, the excess pages of this declarations – found at Doc. Nos. 169–172 – shall be stricken. Defendants shall have until May 9, 2013 at 12:00 a.m., EST, to select the pages of these declarations they would like to strike and communicate this selection to my Chambers. If Defendants fail to timely make this communication, twenty-eight pages of the above-mentioned declarations shall be selected at random, stricken, and not considered by the Court.
