11 L. TERRONEZ,
12 Defendant.

Case No. 1:08 cv 01629 GSA PC

ORDER RE DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR
SUMMARY JUDGMENT (ECF No. 56)

13
15
16 Plaintiff is a state prisoner proceeding pro se in this civil rights action pursuant to 42
17 U.S.C. § 1983. The parties have consented to magistrate judge jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C.
18 § 636(c).<sup>1</sup>

20 I. Procedural History

21 This action proceeds on the May 4, 2009, first amended complaint. Plaintiff, an inmate
22 in the custody of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR) at Salinas
23 Valley State Prison, brings this action against Defendant Lisa Terronez, a correctional officer

26
27 <sup>1</sup> Plaintiff filed a consent to proceed before a magistrate judge on November 6, 2008. (ECF No.
28 5.) Defendant filed a consent to proceed before a magistrate judge on December 24, 2009 (ECF No. 16.)

1 employed by the CDCR at Kern Valley State Prison. The conduct at issue in this lawsuit
2 occurred at Kern Valley State Prison. Plaintiff claims that Defendant Terronez subjected him to 3 unconstitutional conditions such that it violated the Eighth Amendment prohibition on cruel and 4 unusual punishment. Defendant filed her motion for summary judgment on May 18, 2012.<sup>2</sup>

6 Plaintiff has opposed the motion.

7 II. Allegations

8 Plaintiff alleges that on April 4, 2007, Defendant “deliberately refused to dispense
9 Plaintiff’s medically ordered weekly supplies . . . specifically, defendant Terronez deprived
10 Plaintiff of clean diapers under the guise that plaintiff’s order expired.” (Am. Compl. ¶ 6.)
11 Plaintiff alleges that he told Terronez that the authorization for his medical supplies was 12 permanent. Plaintiff asked to speak to someone else. Terronez told Plaintiff “she didn’t care and 13 she was only doing her job, and when plaintiff requested to speak with someone else, defendant 14 said she was running things up in here, and plaintiff needed to suck it up and fill out a medical 15 request.” (Id. ¶ 6.) Plaintiff further alleges that “according to defendant Terronez, staff
16 complaint response, defendant concedes that the order was still good until April 10, 2007, yet
17 plaintiff was nonetheless compelled to eat, sleep, live, and breathe in his own encrusted human 18 feces from April 4, 2007, through April 11, 2007.” (Id. ¶ 8.)
19

21 III. Res Judicata

22 Defendant argues that because Plaintiff’s claims have previously been litigated in state

26 <sup>2</sup> On May 27, 2009, the Court issued and sent to Plaintiff the summary judgment notice required
27 by Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952 (9th Cir. 1998), and Klingelege v. Eikenberry, 849 F.2d 409 (9th Cir. 1988) (ECF 28 No. 11.) The order was re-served on Plaintiff on August 29, 2012, in response to the Ninth Circuit’s decision in Woods v. Carey, 684 F.3d 934 (9th Cir. 2012) (ECF No. 66).

1 court, his claims are barred by the doctrine of res judicata. Defendant argues that because 2 Plaintiff's claims were previously decided on the merits in state court, summary judgment should 3 be granted in her favor based on the final decisions of the California state courts. Defendant
4 attaches as exhibits to her motion the following:

6 1. Exhibit A: Complaint filed April 7, 2008, by Plaintiff, entitled Anthony Gaston v.
7 Terronez, Kern County Superior Court Case No. S-1500-CV-263755 AEW.

8 2. Exhibit B: Findings and Order dated December 2, 2009, by Kern County Superior
9 Court Judge David R. Lampe granting Defendant Terronez's Motion for Summary Judgment in 10 Gaston v. Terronez, Kern County Superior Court Case No. S-1500-CV-263755 DRL.

11 3. Exhibit C: Civil Case Information and Docket in Anthony Gaston v. L. Terronez, 12 Kern County Superior Court Case No. S-1500-CV-263755 showing the Judgment affirmed on 13 appeal without opinion on August 5, 2011 by the California Court of Appeal, Fifth Appellate
14 District. The Court grants Defendant's request to take judicial notice of her exhibits.<sup>3</sup>

15
16 Under 28 U.S.C. § 1783, federal courts are required to give state court judgments the 17 preclusive effect they would be given by another court of that state. Migra v. Warren City Sch.
18 Dist. Bd. of Educ., 465 U.S. 74, 84 (1984); Maldonado v. Harris, 370 F.3d 945, 951 (9th Cir.
19 2004). California law holds that a final judgment of a state court "precludes further proceedings 20 if they are based on the same cause of action." Maldonado, 370 F.3d at 952. In determining the 21 preclusive effect of a state court judgment in federal section 1983 actions, federal courts must 22
23

24
25
26 <sup>3</sup> The Court may take judicial notice of court records in another case. Fed. R. Evid. 201; See 27 United States v. Wilson, 631 F.2d 118, 119 (9th Cir. 1980)(stating that a court may take judicial notice of court 28 records in another case).

1 look to state law. Marrese v. American Acad. Of Orthopaedic Surgeons, 470 U.S. 373, 379-380
2 (1985). Unlike the federal courts, which apply a “transactional nucleus of facts” test, “California
3 courts employ the ‘primary rights’ theory to determine what constitutes the same cause of action
4 for claim preclusion purposes.” Id.

6 Under this theory, “a cause of action is (1) a primary right possessed by the plaintiff, (2) a 7 corresponding primary duty devolving upon the defendant, and (3) a harm done by the defendant
8 which consists in a breach of such primary duty.” City of Martinez v. Texaco Trading & Transp.
9 Inc., 335 F.3d 758, 762 (9th Cir. 2003), citing Citizens for Open Access to Sand and Tide, Inc. v.
10 Seadrift Ass’n., 60 Cal. App. 4th 1053, 1065 71 Cal. Rptr. 2d 77 (1998). “[I]f two actions
11 involve the same injury to the plaintiff and the same wrong by the defendant, then the same 12 primary right is at stake even if in the second suit the plaintiff pleads different theories of 13 recovery, seeks different forms of relief and/or adds new facts supporting recovery.” Eichman v.
14 Fotomat Corp., 147 Cal. App. 3d 1170, 1174, 197 Cal. Rptr. 612 (1983), quoted in San Diego
15 Police Officers’ Ass’n v. San Diego City Employee’s Retirement Sys., 568 F.3d 725, 733 (9th Cir.
16 2009).

17
18
19 Page 4 of Defendant’s Exhibit A is Plaintiff’s statement of claim in the state court
20 complaint. Plaintiff alleges that:

21 On 4-5-07 Plaintiff advised Terrones that he needed his weekly
22 medical supplies (e.g. diapers, catheters, chucks, tape, and gloves 23 and/or leg bag), which plaintiff had been receiving for over a year
24 while at (KVSP), and defendant Terrones refused to issue plaintiff
25 diapers. Defendant Terrones actions and omissions compelled 26 plaintiff to eat, sleep, live, and breathe in his own human feces for 27 approx.. (7) days from 4-5-07 through 4-11-07, subjecting plaintiff
28 to inhumane and barbaric living conditions, defendant Terrones conduct was negligent, with reckless disregard, subjecting plaintiff to intentional infliction of mental and emotional distress, mental and psychological deprivation, and actual pain and suffering, in

1 violation of plaintiff's due process under the 14th amendment to the 2 constitution.

3 Defendant's Exhibit B, the order granting Defendant's motion for summary judgment in 4 his state court case, Kern County Superior Court case number S-1500-CV-263755, DRL,
5 establishes the following grounds for granting Defendant's motion for summary judgment:

6 In each claim a foundational fact is that Terronez deprived Plaintiff
7 of his diapers. In support of her motion for summary judgment,
8 undisputed facts 15, and 69, Defendant denies denying Plaintiff
9 any diapers. While it appears to be true that Plaintiff did
10 experience a short time during which KVSP did not provide 11 Plaintiff with his prescribed adult diapers, Terronez declares
12 unequivocally at paragraph 12 of her declaration that she did not 13 deprive him of his diapers. Further she declares she was not a 14 supervisor and did not have the authority to write or renew
15 prescriptions and did not supervise other staff so as to tell them not 16 to provide diapers to Plaintiff nor did she have authority to tell 17 others to provide such diapers when she became aware that 18 Plaintiff was out of diapers. Furthermore, for three of the days of 19 the alleged deprivation, Defendant Terronez either did not work or 20 did not work in a position where she could provide or deny
21 Plaintiff his diapers. In contradiction to this statement, Plaintiff 22 provided a sparse declaration wherein he fails to declare that she 23 did deprive him of his diapers, or that she caused others not to 24 provide him his diapers. Other than his own four paragraph 25 declaration, Plaintiff does not provide any other evidence from 26 which one may find a triable issue of fact as to Terronez's direct
27 denial of deprivation nor did she cause others not to provide him 28 his diapers. Plaintiff's declaration fails to show that Terronez was in some way responsible for not receiving his diapers, or that once knowing about the problem she possessed the power to cause him to be provided with diapers which power she deliberately failed to exercise out of some animus toward Plaintiff.

23 Defendant's evidence establishes that the same primary right is at issue in both 24 lawsuits. Defendant has established that Terronez was the same defendant in both actions. The 25 claims raised in the state court action were identical to the claims raised in this action.

26 Defendant argues that the amended complaint in this action re alleges the same facts for the same

1 time period, the same infringement of the same right and the allegation the Defendant Terronez
2 was responsible for the deprivation. As noted above, “[I]f two actions involve the same injury
3 to the plaintiff and the same wrong by the defendant, then the same primary right is at stake even 4 if in the second suit the plaintiff pleads different theories of recovery, seeks different forms of 5 relief and/or adds new facts supporting recovery.” Eichman, 147 Cal. App. 3d at 1174. Here,
6 the evidence submitted by Defendant clearly establishes that the two actions involve the same
7 injury to Plaintiff and the same wrong by Defendant. Therefore, the same primary right is as 8 stake. Plaintiff’s federal claim is precluded by the judgment entered in Kern County Superior
9 Court case number S-1500-CV-263755 DRL.
10

12 In his opposition, Plaintiff argues that the state court decision was incorrect.<sup>4</sup> Plaintiff
13 contends that the evidence relied upon by the Superior Court was based upon perjured testimony
14 by Defendant. Plaintiff contends that this action is not precluded by the state court litigation, as 15 they were filed at approximately the same time, and he twice amended his state court complaint.
16 Plaintiff argues that the state court judgment was not final. Plaintiff’s reasoning is that the state
17 court judgment is not valid, as it was entered before he could complete discovery. Plaintiff
18 contends that he did not have the opportunity to submit evidence that Defendant perjured herself,
19 and the state court judgment is therefore invalid.
20

21 III. Conclusion

22 Defendant’s Exhibit C is Civil Case Information and Docket in Anthony Gaston v. L,
23 Terronez, Kern County Superior Court Case No. S-1500-CV-263755 showing the Judgment
24

25
26
27 <sup>4</sup> The Court considers Plaintiff’s opposition filed on July 16, 2012, and supplemental opposition
28 filed on July 30, 2012 (ECF Nos. 63, 64).

1 affirmed on appeal without opinion on August 5, 2011 by the California Court of Appeal, Fifth
2 Appellate District. Plaintiff argues that the judgment was incorrect, but offers no evidence that
3 the summary judgment entered by the Superior Court is not a valid and final judgment. Plaintiff
4 offers no legal authority for his proposition that because he was pursuing both federal and state
5 actions at the same time, a final judgment entered in state court has no preclusive effect. The 6 evidence submitted by Defendant establishes, without dispute, that Plaintiff filed a state court
7 action asserting the deprivation of the same primary right by the same defendant. Defendant's
8 evidence establishes that a final judgment was entered in Kern County Superior Court, and 9 affirmed on Appeal in the California Court of Appeal, Fifth Appellate District. Plaintiff offers
10 no evidence to the contrary. Defendant's motion for summary judgment should therefore be 11 granted.
12

13
14 Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Defendant's motion for summary
15 judgment is granted. Judgment is entered in favor of Defendant and against Plaintiff. The Clerk
16 is directed to close this case.
17
18
19
20
21
22

23
24 IT IS SO ORDERED.
